FUNERAL OF MRS. DEVER.

Requiem Mass Was Celebrated in St.

Patrick's Church. The funeral of the late Mrs. Annie Dever was held at St. Patrick's Catholie church yesterday morning. The Rev. J. B. Whelan celebrated a high mass of requier at the church and the body was borne to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery where it was laid in final rest. The funeral cortege was an exceptionally large one, owing to the wide circle of friends and relatives enjoyed by this most estimable lady. The ocession started from the home of the Hon. T. V. Powderly, on North Main

The pattbearers were: John B. Madigan, T. V. Powderly, P. J. Powderly, Scranton; P. J. Powderly, Carbondale; John Lee and Thomas Connors, Among the out of town people who attended the funeral were: Patrick A. Powderly, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Powderly, Mr. and Mrs. James Farrell, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Powderly, Mrs. Thomas O'Connell, T. V. Walker, Mrs. T. J. Hoffman, Mrs. Edward J. McHale, Mrs. Patrick Coogan, Mrs. Riorden, Miss Delaney, Miss Hannah Lee, Robert Price, Davis, of Carbondale; Miss Hannah Larroway, Mrs. Robert Spaiding and James Dever, of Wilkes-Barre.

CHRISTIAN ENDEAVOR SOCIAL.

The Christian Endeavorites of the Sumner Avenue Presbyterian church' held a dime social and entertainment in the church last evening which far outdid any previous effort along that line. The programme which was pleasingly received by the large audience was as follows: Children's chorus; recitations by Charles Cadwgan, Miss Gertic Hughes, Miss Bornice Conger, Miss Anna M. Davis, Miss Allie Jones, Miss Bloda Jenkins, Miss Helen Davis and Thomas D. Thompson; solos by Miss Mary J. Griffiths and Richard Watkins; duet by the Misses Bloda and Mary Jenkins, and several selections by the Taylor qurtette, consisting of Miss Aunie Beisecker, Miss Ray Morgans, Chas. Dibble and Richard Watkins, Miss Jessie Morgan acting as accompanist. The welcoming address was made by the chalrman, William E. Jameison, in a pleasant style. Following the programme coke and coffee were served to those present.

THE VOLUNTEERS.

A farewell was tendered Lieutenant Trautman, of the West Side Volunteers, at the post rooms on North Main avenue last evening in honor of his teparture to a special field of work in New York city. The lieutenant will be assistant on the staff of Captain Handicott, of the Thirty-fifth street post. He will no doubt fill his new position as acceptably as he has his present one and he goes with the best of wishes from his friends here.

Captain Johns and wife, of Post No. 2. will, after Monday have charge of Posts Nos. 1 and 2, being the central city and West Side ports. They will nereafter reside on Adams avenue. The young son, Hinton, of Captain John's, will assist in the added field of labor.

"NO. 413" CAUSES TROUBLE.

An Arrest Follows Druggist Vetter's Smooth Device.

If J. M. Eckert hadn't located his cut rate patent medicine store at 413 Penn avenue, alongside the regular drug establishment of P. J. Veiter, at No. 415, the former wouldn't have been assaulted and the latter wouldn't have been arrested on a charge of having done the assaulting.

The patent medicine store in all its advertisements calls particular attention to the unlucky number. "413." Druggist Vetter displayed a sign printed in small letters and large figures. 'This Isn't No. 413," but purchasers didn't notice the meaning and entered the drug store to purchase goods, although they had intended patronizing "No. 413," adjoining.

When the patent medicine man Eckert remonstrated with the druggist yesterday afternoon there was a physical mix-up. It all ended in the latter being arraigned before Alderman Miland held in $300 ball to appear at court.

ANOTHER WAGON ON THE TRACK.

Butcher Murray Wants $500 from the Traction Company.

Butcher Thomas Murray, of the South Side, represented by Attorneys M. J. Donahoe and I. H. Burns, yesterday brought suit against the Scranton Traction company for $500 damages, which, he avers, he, his horse, wagon, harness and meats sustained by reason of the negligence of the company.

The allegation of the plaintiff is that on January 16, 1896, a Traction company trolley car, running at a high rate of speed and without ringing a bell or giving any other warning or alarm, dashed along Pittston avenue and across Palm street, at which point Mr. Murray was crossing the track with his butcher wagon. There was a ollision and Mr. Murray, his horse, wagon, harness and meats were scattered promiscuously over the street intersection.

SOUTH SIDE.

The admirers of Fitzsimmons were jubilant yesterday and even those who chose Corbett as a favorite were com-pelled to convert their depression into shouts of laughter upon witnessing the payment of a novel bet near the city line. Owen Melvin and William Powell, both clerks in the Minooka store, wagered a wheelbarow ride on the recent fight, vesterday at noon being the time determined upon for settle-ment. As a result Melvin, the loser, was compelled to convey Powell through the streets of the South Side and Minooka. The barrow was decand Minooka. The barrow was dec-orated with American flags, and fol-lowed by a large cheering crowd of enthusiasts. The streets were not in the most favorable condition, and the wheel sank in places nearly up to the hub in mud. After completing his task the loser made one strong resolution, which will likely end his betting.
