VALE'S BRIEF VISIT.

An Insane Patient Escapes from the Hospital.

Constable Neary was summoned by telephone calls for the aid of the police to the hospital on Monday evening. He was accompanied by Director Norton. A patient under treatment after prolonged drinking, who was subject to fits of insanity, named LeGrand Vale, had broken a window in a room on the second floor, and leaping down, had hurried away.

It was thought that he might endeavor to reach his home in Greenfield, and therefore the call for the police was sent. However, he proceeded only a short distance and entered a house, causing great excitement. He was soon taken to the station house and slipped to an asylum.

SLIPPERY JOHN CHESTER PECK.

A Prisoner Breaks Away from the Constable.

A warrant for the arrest of John Chester Peck, charged by Mrs. Lucy Layman with assault and battery, brought him on Monday morning to justice. The prisoner, who had been under ball three times during the past month, further ball was refused by the justice, and accordingly Constable Healey started with the prisoner for the county jail. Suddenly, as they passed quietly down the street, Peck broke away, hoping to escape in the darkness. The constable darted after him, and the prisoner was soon on his journey to the jail, where he is now in safe keeping.

Meeting of Common Council.

No very important business was considered by the common council at their meeting on Monday evening. The appropriation ordinance was reported favorably by the committee on ordinances and passed the second reading. After some general business the meeting adjourned to meet next Monday evening in order to pass the appropriation ordinance at the final reading.

Maplewood Cemetery Association.

A meeting of the Maplewood Cemetery association was held on Monday evening for the purpose of amending one of the by-laws, in regard to cleaning the lots. It was decided that the work should be done by the association and not as heretofore by the owners of each lot. A better regulated and more beautiful cemetery will result from the new arrangements.

Peculiar Wedding Up a Tree Near Montrose.

SCHEME OF THE FARMER'S CLUB Plan to Disseminate Populistic Rot Through the Republican Press.

New Industry Will Probably Locate in Susquehanna—Regarding the Release of Goldman—Other County News.

Special Correspondence to The Tribune, Susquehanna, March 23.—Near Montrose there is said to reside Miss Emma Swanson and her accepted suitor, Charles Bangs. One night not long ago they went to a neighboring village to attend the wedding of one of their friends. At the festivities Emma became jealous of Bangs' attentions to another woman, and refused to speak to him. So when it became time to go home they both felt relieved, when the Rev. Mr. Hunter, the village preacher, joined them. The party were walking along the highway at a rapid pace, the young persons sulking, while the minister's face bore a worried and hapless expression. In a field adjoining the road was a Texas stubble, and the Rev. Mr. Hunter, a recent acquisition to the place. The steer is ferocious, and no lover of the human race. At the further end of the field there is a set of bars, and the trio reached the opposite side of the exulting of their impending danger, ignorant of or so ahead of the steer. Bangs gave a cry of alarm and ran for some trees a few feet ahead, closely followed by Miss Swanson and the preacher. Bangs shinned up one, and Miss Swanson showed her worth by climbing another, assisted by the preacher, who gave her a lift before he sought safety in still another tree. The minister had hardly cleared the ground when the steer rushed up, bellowing and throwing mud. The infuriated animal ran around and around the trees, but half hour passed, but no relief came. The steer still stood guard, thinking this an excellent time to reconcile the couple, the minister began. His work was done, however, almost before he had begun. The couple desired to be married then and there, thinking they were about to meet a tragic death. And the minister married them. Bangs had had a license in his pocket for several weeks. The lovers could just form hands from where they clung, but got a grip and held it, while Mr. Hunter performed the ceremony from the third tree. The Texas steer bellowed the wedding march. When the good man had concluded, Farmer Stone and his two boys drove up with a load of ice. An explanation was hastily spoken, the steer was driven away, the preacher kissed the bride, and received his fee, and the party were driven to the residence of Mr. Bangs. It was one of the most unique marriages ever held in the county.

JOINED THE MAJORITY. The funeral of Mrs. John Frederickson occurred and was largely attended from the family residence on Saturday afternoon. Rev. D. I. Sutherland officiating.

The funeral of Mrs. George Demme occurred from the home on Saturday afternoon. Rev. B. H. Abbott, of Carbondale, officiating.

The funeral of Miss Olive Wells, formerly of Susquehanna, took place on Saturday morning from the residence of Mrs. Eudice Lamm, at Montrose. The interment was made in the North Jackson cemetery.

The funeral of Mrs. Louis Depper occurred from the Oakland M. E. church on Sunday afternoon, the pastor, Rev. W. R. Cochran, officiating. The interment was made in McKune cemetery.

IN SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY. A new scheme is to inject Demagogue-Populistic rot and demagogues into the Republican newspapers, disguised as farmers' club proceedings.

Some of the farmers' clubs appear to be discussing about everything, except farming.

Haltstead is having union revival meetings, and much interest is being manifested.

Now that we have our advice and bearings from scientific sources, who is willing to "go further down?"—Great Bend Plaindealer. No need of being in a hurry, Brother Moore; we'll all "go further down" in the same old-fashioned way. It was Shakespeare who wrote about "The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that rocks the world." He had not seen a Haltstead girl.

In Susquehanna county, the average salary of male teachers is $39.4 per month; females, $23.83. Average school term, 7.79 months.

The business men of Haltstead will close their stores each evening—except Saturday—during the revival meetings.

Albert Goldman, of Buffalo, who recently attempted to assist his brother-in-law, Alfred, to escape from the Montrose jail, has been released on bail. Two to one that Montrose never sees him again!

Brother N. P. Sotter we are grieved to say, was first to lead the pilgrim's way. Though young in years and full of cares, He was called to climb the golden stairs.

BETTER FUMIGATE THE TOWN. The Mormons who were in Forest City about a month ago have stirred up a feeling of solitude, on the part of Brother Whitney, for the welfare of our people. Rest easy, they have made their exit long since, and that without the aid of a pugilist, as you suggested. They have probably departed for fields more encouraging—Susquehanna, eh?—Forest City News.

VARIOUS WHISPERINGS. Sew the crane upon your beaver, now a sable may be made of it. You will grieve to hear the tidings, But the stove pipe joke is nigh.

Fifty machines have been put up in the shirt factory, and business will commence in about three weeks.

The Putnam Machine Tool company, of Southbridge, Mass., will locate in Susquehanna, if sufficient inducements are offered. If anybody has a job lot of superior inducements, now is the accepted time to drag them out.

The annual statement of the auditor gives the borough's liabilities as $8,220.24, and resources $1,593.78.

Some money exchanged hands in Susquehanna, on the result of the recent Carson City episode.

McKinley's inauguration cost $2,500,000—Montrose Democrat. It was well worth the money. The country can, at any time, afford to pay that amount for the inauguration of a Republican president—and all that it implies. See what it has cost the country, you have a Democratic president inaugurated. The Democrat will kindly hang his hard upon some other willow.

BLOOD ON THE MOON. The Susquehanna correspondent of the Montrose Democrat, mentioning the fact that an effort is being made to place the Susquehanna public schools under the common school laws of the state, says "It will cause religious wars." Oho, the weather prophet, says we will have war, pestilence and famine this year. Hully-gee, let's arbitrate!

SPRINGTIME ECHOES. The blue bird sat in the apple tree. And the red bird sat in the grove. They delivered their notes from their little throats.

"Oh, bring us a red-hot stove." Somebody's advertising in the Honorable Independent for "a second-hand mill carriage dog." Now, what sort of a hoodlum canine is that? Susquehanna is of opinion that such dogs, not worth a mill by a dam site.

There are 7,500 polls in Scranton, and the poll tax aggregates $2,750—Susquehanna Transcript. Yes; but they are electric light, telegraph and telephone polls.

Uncle Sam is having a cannon built capable of hurling a 2,300-pound projectile twelve miles. How it would astonish a belated pedestrian to have a 2,300-pound ball strike him squarely in the small of the back! We will have to borrow that gun when Susquehanna has its great "relicious war."

They are prodding the earth for coal along Tinker's creek. Let us hope that the prospecting will amount to more than "a Tinker's—"
