BUSINESS OF THE STATE LEGISLATURE

House and Senate Will Attend Dedication of Grant Monument.

Mr. Woodraff's Reason for Supporting the Anti-Political Subscription Bill -- Committee Appointed to Investigate Condition of Bituminous and Anthracite Coal Miners -- Seyfert's Prize Fighting Bill Reported Affirmatively.

Harrisburg, March 25,-The senate met at 11 o'clock. A concurrent resolution, offered by Mr. McQuown, providing for the attendance of the legislature at the dedication of the Grant monument in New York on April 27 was adopted. The following bills were read in taining a disorderly house; also to authorize the employment of teachers of stenography, typewriting and telegraphy common schools, without

Mr. Grady made an effort by resolu tion to have the anti-cigarette bill placed on the calendar, but the effort was without result. The bill had been negatived by the committee on health and sanitation. Mr. Flinn said the bill was an important one and should have a place on the calendar. It had passed one branch or the other ever since he had been a member of the senate, but for some reason had failed to become a law. He had always favored its passage and was for its passage now. The vote to place on the calendar was lost by a vote of 16 to 14 and the lieutemant governor declared it lost.

Mr. Gibson's fire proof capitol bill also went over

President Pro Tem. McCarrell anounced these special committees on the part of the senate.

The house concurred in the senate resolution to attend the dedicatory ceremonies of the Grant monument in New York on April 27.

TO PURIFY PHILADELPHIA. The calendar of bills on second readwas taken up. Mr. Woodruff, of Philadelphia, called up the bill to prohibit the soliciting or collecting of political contributions from or by officers or employes in cities of the first class.

Mr. Woodruft, in favor of the bill, said that it was for the purity of elections in the city of Philadelphia, He said that six millions of dollars was the pay roll from which one per cent was collected annually from office holders in that city, the sum collected amounting to sixty-five thousand doilars for political purposes. five thousand dollars of this money was paid out to poll men and that the baland no person outside of those in control of city polities knew where this amount was placed. It was a movement in the direction of political, reform in that city and scores of offic holders and employes have been importuning him to have such legislation en-Mr. Bogart, of Philadelphia implored the members of the rural districts to vote for the bill, and it would wipe cut an abuse which was a dis-grace to the city of Philadelphia.

Mr. Stewart, of Philadelphia, thought the bill should be so amended as to include all boroughs and cities of the commonwealth for the reason that if it was good legislation for Philadelphia
