BILLS IN THE HOUSE,

Three important revenue bills were introduced in the house tonight by Chairman Bolles of the ways and means committee. They were framed by Deputy Attorney General Elkin and are intended to be party measures. One taxes inheritances and is expected to yield $500,000 a year. The bill exempts real estate and fixes the rate of taxation on mixed and personal property at $2 on every $100 clear value and at and after the same rate for any less

If the tax is not paid at the end of a year 12 per cent, interest is added and in cases where the estates from litigation or other causes cannot be settled up in a year a charge of 6 per cent. interest will be made. If the property thus in dispute shall not be productive to the extent of 6 per cent, the heirs shall not be compelled to pay a greater amount than they have realized.

The bill provides for the collection of the tax by the same method as is employed to collect the collateral inheritance tax. Another bill introduced by Chairman Bolles taxes corporations claiming to be insolvent and whose capital stock, therefore, has no value. The bill provides for taxation that the value of the stock shall not be less than that of the property. This scheme will yield $500,000 a year to the state. The third bill taxes certain corporate loans. A meeting of the ways and means committee will be held tomorrow evening to act upon these and other reve-

PREACHER SUED FOR DIVORCE.

Rev. Potter's Wife Files a List of Complaints Against Him.

New York, April 5.—Rev. Dr. Daniel C. Potter, who five weeks ago was put out of the Baptist Tabernacle church, after a fight with the Baptist City Mis-sion society which had existed over five years, has been sued for divorce. In all the church toreclosure complica-tions there appeared the name of Julia Ross, who had been appointed superintendent of the Woman's mission. She was Dr. Potter's housekeeper, fought his battle, shared his long slege and finally when he was driven out accompanied him to his flat on East Eighth street. It fell with the force of a thuaderbolt on Dr. Potter, when on Thurship Howe & Hummel served him with papers in a suit for absolute divorce brought by his wife, Mary C. Fotter. Mrs. Potter asks for alimony and the custody of the three children of the marriage. In her petition she charges Dr. Potter with acts in vio lation of his marriage vows committed between the years 1891 and 1897. Finally she names as principal co-respondent one Julia Oschewsky, better known as "one Julia Oschewsky, better known as Julia Ross, his housekeeper and super-intendent of the Young Woman's Mission and Bible class." She declares that Dr. Potter was guilty of several acts of mis-conduct with Miss Ross at the Baptist church building on Second avenue.

The wife charges that Dr. Potter was guilty of similar acts with a woman unknown, at No. 175 East Eleventh street. The next accusation is misconduct with an unknown woman on the yacht Pearl, at Shippen Point, Conn. Dr. Potter at Shippen Point, Conn. Dr. Potter at that time, 1892, had charge of the yacht and he spent much time cruising.

In the last count of the charges the name of Miss Ross appears. Ever since Dr. Potter was ejected from the church he has lived in the flat. Here again Mrs.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, April 5.-The traders in stocks made a plaything of New Jersey Central stock today and worked their will with it. So inviting a subject for speculation was it that it absorbed a large share of attention a very narrow market, its wide and erratic fluctuations making it especially available for the purposes of the traders.

The absorption of the professional element in the coalers left the market decidedly dull and transactions small. There was however, a large number of odd lots of shares traded in, supposed to be for outside public of the present low level of prices. There was some slight suffering of prices about mid-day on covering of shorts and in sympathy with the short lived upward movement in the coalers. Leather preferred showed the exers, Leather preferred showed the extreme gain of 1½, but the Vanderbilts profited to the extent of a sharp fraction. Later the market succumbed to a number of adverse influences or it was interpreted as such by the dealers.
