Farmer John Wright's Peculiar Experlence with a Sociable Steer.

AN ELMIRA PADRONE HELD TO BAIL

A Susquehanna Cow Defends Her Mistress from a Wife-Beater--Notes of News for Railroaders -- Congress man Grow Desires a Place for Billy Pike.

Special Correspondence to The Tribune. Susquehanna, April 6.-A few days since, John Wright, of Fairdale, while walking down a pleasant lane, was accosted by a restless steer, which suggested a little promenade. Mr. Wright's objections did not count, so he turned around and went back on his tracks, so as to go the same way the steer was going. Then the frisky steer waltzed him down that lane, in and out of the fence corner, around a 40-acre lot, under a bridge, through the stockyard, around a barn three or four times, under a hay wagon and out again, through an orchard and over a pair of bars, into a milk house, through a blackberry patch and up a shellbark While attempting to climb the tree after him the steer fell and broke his neck. The owner of the sociable "critter" sued Wright for malicious mischief in causing its death, but the unsympathetic jury discharged the murderer without a struggle, and piled the costs on the irace prosecutor. It was a great week for Farmer John Wright.

THE PADRONE HELD TO BAIL. Michael Delpapa, the well-known Elmira padrone, was brought before Justice Tiffany, in this place, on Saturday, charged by Augustus Forte, an Italian track laborer, of this place, with conspiring to cheat the said Forte and others. The case, which attracted a crowd, was summed up on Monday afternoon, when Delpapa was held to bail in the sum of $500 for his appearance before the Grand Jury. The case grows out of the padrone system of furnishing the Eric railroad with laborers. In a few years Delpapa is said to have amassed a fortune, estimated at $200,000, in the business. The laborer is charged $5 for being given a job. Then he is assessed $1 per month for the honor of being on the pay roll, He is also charged for rent of the old freight cars or shantles along the line, Dalpapa is also an Italian barber, grocer and liquor dealer. He furnishes several railroads with laborers. It is reported that, in view of recent detractable developments, the Erie will abolish the padrone system on its entire system and give American citizens a chance to obtain work.

RAILROAD FLOTSAM.

Traffic is the dullest on the Jefferson Branch known in years. Several locomotives are being rebuilt in the Eric shop. The men are still working seven hours per day.

Jefferson Branch conductor Polk Palmer, of this place, will write a book, entitled, "What I Know and Think About the Grippe.' Howard Taylor, formerly of the Susquehanna shop, has been appointed master mechanic of the Lehigh Valley shop in Wilkes-Barre.

Attached to a record-breaking freight train on the Erie's New York division, a few days since, was a car equipped with appliances for testing and record the locomotive at various points. The car, which was built in the Erie shop here, was attached to the locomotive and the balance of the train followed.

THE COW DEFENDED HER, Recently a vicinity farmer's wife was assailed by her husband, in a field, where was standing a cow that the woman greatly petted. On seeing the man beating his wife, tearing her clothing and otherwise maltreating her, the cow charged up the field and attacked the man with such fierceness that he was glad to retreat. The animal then took up a defensive position by the woman's side and stood perfectly still, while the woman struggled to her feet and supported herself by leaning against its flank until she had sufficiently recovered to take refuge from her husband in flight.

Congressman Grow is urging the claims of his private secretary, William J. Pike, of Hallstead, for a foreign consulship. Billy would appreciate a job twisting the British lion's tail. There is no reason why he couldn't creditably fill a consulship.

SUSQUEHANNA COUNTY FACTS. Some Montrose lads have been skinning and mutilating live cats. Here is a case for the authorities.

The sheriff will wind up the affairs of the Forest City mining car shops. At the coming term of court, the Kelly brothers will be tried for the murder of Leon Gage, of Brackney. Counsel for both sides are prepared. The funeral of Mrs. Lucian Buck and Mrs. Eneline Griggs, Mr. Buck's sister, occurred from the Great Bend Episco pal church on Monday.

The Fescendon Saw at Direhardville, was burned on Friday morning. The loss was heavy with no insurance. E. W. Safford, esq., of Montrose, has been elected chairman of the Democratic county committee, and Dr. Wilson, of Montrose, secretary; W. C. Cruser, of Montrose, F. J. Gratton, of Hallstead, and J. D. Miller, of Thomson, Susquehanna, were elected delegates to the state convention.

THEY ARE PROHIBITIONISTS, TOO!

Lee Wrighton, of Tuscarora, last week hired a man to clean out a well which had not been used for some time. He had lowered the man to the bottom of the well, in a tub, and was turning away when he heard a piercing yell. Looking into the well he saw a multitude of snakes along the rocky walls reaching out their long heads. The man from below could see their glistening eyes. He screamed and raved and flopped around in the tub. and begged to be drawn up. Wrighton began to turn the windlass and the man was drawn up through the mass of protruding snakes' heads. In his excitement he shook the rope, which swayed the tub to and fro, so that he was thrown unconfortably close to the reptiles. When he jumped out he was covered with cold perspiration, and his body trembled like a leaf. He spread the story of his adventure, and no one could be hired to clean the well. Mr. Wrighton commenced to remove the rocks and fill it up, and the snakes immediately began to show themselves, Before ten feet of rocks had been removed, sixty-four snakes, from two to six feet long, had been killed. Then the well caved in and the remainder were buried.

HOME HAPPENINGS.

A "Business Men's Carnival" will probably be held here in about three weeks, under the auspices of the ladies of Christ Episcopal church. Ladies from Pittston will conduct the affair. According to the Democrat, some Montrose people would like to have that orough changed back to one ward, instead of three, as at present. Susquehanna will probably be divided into six wards and Oakland borough into two wards.

About $3,000 has already been subscribed towards the erection of a new Presbyterian church.

The graduating class of Laurel Hill academy this year will number over twenty. This excellent old educational institution, the pride of the Catholics of this section, is second to no hall of learning in Northern Pennsylvania. A diploma from Laurel Hill Academy means something.

Let us hope that the "advance agent of prosperity" will not have the grippe. The sheriff is about the only business man who thrives in hard times.

The Easter hat will be big-so will be the price thereof. Hon, Linus E. Moore, one of our representatives in Harrisburg, gives it as his opinion that the $5,500,000 state appropriation for schools will not be cut down this year.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

Wall Street Review. New York, April 6.-Interest in selling of stocks was very languid on the Stock exchange today and the market was ap-parently afflicted with an attack of spring fever. Many of the stocks which are usually dealt in had not a single sale recorded to their credit and others showed only a few odd lots with not a single full share lot to make a quotation. Fluctuations in the main were very narrow, not offering a sufficient margin to invite operations even by the profes-sional traders. The duliness seemed to be reflected in part from other countries, London showing nothing doings in Americans, the stagnation being so marked that London agents of some of the houses in the street ceased cabling. Chicago was taken up with her municipal election and Boston and Philadelphia election and Boston and Philadelphia election and Boston and Philadelphia were also very quiet. Such dealings as occurred were subject to entirely fieitious influences and were concentrated in a few stocks. The absence of the heavy liquidation that has characterized recent markets was, however narked and the railway list held remark-Furnished by WILLIAM LINN, AL-LEN & CO., stock brokers, Mears build-ing, rooms, 705-706.

AND INFLAMMATORY RHEUMATISM IN A LINENS. YOUNG BOY.

Mr. and Mrs. Howse Despaired of Their Boy's Life-Ho was Compelled to Give up His Studies.

From the Leader, Cleveland, Ohio-

Few boys withstand an illness of so serious and it was difficult at such times to detect a nature as that with which Fred L. Howse his heart beats. These spells caused Mr. Howse and myself much unessiness about years of age, and attends the public schools. His home is No. 30 Plymouth Place, Cleveland Our boy's condition. We called in a doctor and he prescribed for Fred, but the lad did years of age, and attends the public schools. His home is No. 30 Plymouth Place, Cleveland, Ohio, and he is now a picture of puerlie health and vigor. In the fall of 1895, however, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Howse, the former, a well-known business man, whose office is in the Arcade, had almost despaired of saving his life. The lad became afficted with inflammatory rheumatism which affected his entire body, and accompanying that painful ailment were several other very serious disorders. When she was requested to describe her son's sickness and his recovery, Mrs. Howse said:

"It was in September, 1895, that Fred who was up to that time in delicate health, was attacked by inflammatory rheumatism." It was necessary for us to take, Fred out of school on account of his illness, but now he has returned and can join in all the sports with his schoolmates, and his prevented to describe her son's sickness and his recovery, Mrs. Howse said:

It was necessary for us to take, Fred out of school on account of his illness, but now he has returned and can join in all the sports with his schoolmates, and his prevented by the doctor and at the end of that period—it was about. New Year's then—Fred was sufficiently improved to be able to go out.

"The improvement was slow at first, but it was sure. I had unbounded faith in the pills as is evidenced by our continued use of them. It was necessary for us to take, Fred out of school on account of his illness, but now he has returned and can join in all the sports with his schoolmates, and his prevented to describe the son's sickness and his prevented to down town stores. Then for four months steadily Fred took them instead of the medicine prescribed by the doctor and at the end of that period—it was about. New Year's then—Fred was sufficiently improvement was slow at first, but it was sure. I had unbounded faith in the private was a very active case for

The board of control, according to law, adopted a resolution, providing for the levy of a special tax to form a sinking fund for the payment of the principal and interest of its bonds, which will amount each year to at least 8 per centum of its indebtedness, thus insuring the prompt payment of the interest and of the redemption of the bonds at maturity. The bonds now offered for sale are, therefore, perfectly secured, and no safer securities can be put upon the market. The bonds are dated April 1, 1837, from which date they shall bear interest.

The school district has promptly met the payment of principal and interest of former issues bonds, and the same rule will govern the payment of those now being issued.
