OUIET DAY IN THE LEGISLATURE

No Time Wasted in Useless Debate in the House.

THE LYTLE BILL RECONSIDERED

Baldwin Bill Is Also Reconsidered The Temper of the House Against the Measure -- Gubernatorial Appointments Confirmed by Senate. Reception to Speaker Llewellyn.

Harrisburg, Pa., April 8.-The session of the house today was the reverse of exciting. The order was bills on second reading and a large number went through this stage. The members were disposed to work and no time was wasted in uscless debate. The Lytle bill, which was defeated last Thursday on final passage, was reconsidered by a vote of 101 to 29 and then further consideration was postponed. Mr. Sexton of Montgomery, by whom the motion was made said he voted against the bill, but that it had a great many friends in the house and he hoped it would be given another chance.

Mr. Clarency, of Philadelphia, made a vigorous protest against re-consideration. He said the bill was one of the most dangerous that has been introduced in the house for twenty years. When it was under consideration on third reading the statement was made that it was sanctioned by the attorney general and insurance commissioner to correct certain errors in the insurance laws. Mr. Clarency said this was a mistake and that neither of these officials has anything to do with it. The bill allows trust companies to engage in business by reason of their board of directors and without the consent of the state authorities.

The Baldwin bill to regulate the collection of garbage, offal or refuse waste in cities, townships and boroughs in which a contract has been made by the authorities for its collection and disposition was also reconsidered and further consideration postponed. The temper of the house seemed to be against the measure, but Mr. Baldwin pleaded so hard to give it another chance that they yielded. The bill to distinguish applications, certificates and policies issued by local premium life and accident insurance companies was recommitted to the insurance commit-

APPOINTMENTS CONFIRMED.

The senate met at 11 o'clock this morning. President Pro Tem McCarrell occupied the chair. Bills were read in place and properly

The senate adjourned until Monday evening at 9 o'clock.

William H. Llewellyn, speaker of the New Mexico house of representatives, was tendered an impromptu reception this morning in the house. Mr. Llew-ellyn is on his way to Washington on business and stopped over in Harrisburg to visit the legislature.

The Walton capitol bill was reported from the buildings and grounds committee. It appropriates $550,000 for a new state house to be erected on the site of the old building in time for the next session of the legislature, measure provides that the work shall be done under the direction of a commission composed of the governor, auditor general, state treasurer, speaker of the house and president pro tem of the senate.

Mr. Marshall, of Allegheny, will offer a resolution tomorrow asking a special order for the bill on first reading tomorrow, second reading Monday night and third reading and final passage on Tuesday morning. Governor Hastings will sign the bill as soon as it reaches him in order that work may commence on the building within the next two

HYPNOTIC BILL REPORTED.

The Coyle bill prohibiting public exhibitions of hypnotism, mesmerism and bradism was favorably reported from committee, as were also the revenue bills framed by Deputy Attorney General Elkin and the bill taxing the matured stock of foreign and domestic building and loan associations for state

Mr. McWhinney, of Allegheny, secured leave of absence for tomorrow for the members of the committee to investigate the condition of the miners in the Pittsburg bituminous region. Mr. Hosack, of Allegheny, secured leave of absence for the same time for the oleo investigating committee, Both will meet tomorrow at Pittsburg.

A large number of bills passed second reading. The most important are those authorizing banks chartered under the laws of the state to pay interest upon demand deposits and allowing school houses to be used for Sunday school purposes and religious ser-

SWALLOW'S WITNESSES.

He Claims That They Have Been Tampered with--- A Gold Watch as an Element of Persuasion.

Harrisburg, April 8 .- The joint committee of the legislature investigating the origin of the capitol fire had another sitting today for the purpose of hearing Dr. Swallow. He made several statements during the hearing as to hear-say matters, but there was nothing important developed. Charles Stock, a fireman, told about getting into the cellar of the burning capitol and finding a closet on fire. thought this was evidence that the place had been fired by incendiaries.

and he was told that he must not inject words into the mouths of the witnesses. The committee adjourned to meet next Tuesday evening, when Dr. Swalow will have his other witnesses present. Sergeant-at-Arms Eyre asked Dr. Swallow to say on his word as a gentleman that he would be present next Tuesday evening. Hot passed between them, and the doctor agreed to be present.

HEN HOUSE THIEF DESTROYED.

C. C. Morgan's Deadly Response to Night Burglar Alarm.

Cleveland, April 8.-C. C. Morgan, o Actna street, heard the burglar alarm attached to his hen house ring late last night, and getting his revolver, investigated. In the hen house he found the thief, who knocked him down and began kicking him. Morgan fired four bullets at his antagonist, who thereupon broke away and disappeared in the darkness. At daylight the thief's was found in a ravine near by, with three bullet holes in it.

It was identified as that of Charles Nelson, a young carpenter, living on Broadway.

CHURCH DEBTS. CHURCH DEBTS.

Who would think of paying church debts in such times as these? Why, strange to say, the preachers on Wyoming district had the courage to undertake it! And payments have been made at Taylor, Ashley, Clarks Summit, Parsons. Simpson, Providence, Plains and other places. The greatest effort along this line was made by the Asbury church in Scranton under the leadership of their pastor, who actually undertook to raise a debt of $18,000. And he has so far suc-

The Sabbath schools are largely attended and very efficient in most places; the chief complant being a lack of qualified and attentive teachers to meet the demands of the large numbers of intelligent scholars. The largest school is at Elm Park, Scranton, which has an enrollment of 1,200. The publications of the Methodist Book Concern are used in all of our schools. The Pirst church, Wilkesarre, employed a deaconess, Miss Emily E. Cummings, who has done excellent work among the afflicted and the neglected children of the city.

At Elm Park, Scranton, the "Kings Daughters" have raised $240 for the support of Miss Tillie Hawley, who does the work of a deaconess without the tille. They have also furnished a room in the Lackswanna hospital and sent flowers and fruit to 43 persons, having raised in cash for the year $255.

The Welsh mission, at Wilkes-Barre, has about mantained its former standing. The trustees have sold a lot, the proceeds of which are to be applied on their indebtedness, which, when paid for, will reduce their debt to $300.

MARKETS AND STOCKS.

Wall Street Review. New York, April 8.-There was an unmistakable improvement in the tone of the market for stocks today over that which has prevailed of late. The market was not active, but there was good buying and many stocks and the general list was firm, the heavy liquidarlon in a number of stocks, which has been a depressing influence, having apparently come to an end, for the time being at least. There was a disposition to feel various points in the market, and where resistance of values was found there was a buying of the stock. The general average price was higher at the close than at last night's close. The total sales of stocks today

In October last F. A. Chapman, of Forty Fort was transferred to the Michigan conference, and E. V. Armstrong was transferred from that conference to this and stationed at Forty Fort, where he has done excellent service. It is with gratitude to God that we record the prosperity of our cause on the Wyoming district and that the lives and health of our pastors have been preserved. Two members of our conference residing within the district have been called to their reward. William Keatly, a superanuated members, died suddenly early in the year, and George W. Peck, a supernumery member and for fifty-one years a Metholist preacher, died in great peace on Feb. 16, 1857. Both of these breithren were honored workmen and doubtless well ready for the Master's call.

Our work demands more active efforts all mations, together with the increasing worldliness of this age, both of which and the saving of sinners. We shall hope for the more steady tread of the other m Flour-Fairly active. Corn Meal-Steady Rye-Dull; No. 2 western, 38\u03b4c. c. i. f.
