FACIIONAL KNIFE TO BE SHEATHED

Pretty Well Settled That Pennsylvania Politics Is to Be Harmonized.

COL. QUAY'S TALK WITH WARWICK

The Basis of the Agreement Said to Be the Joint Recognition of Senator Penrose and the Mayor as Leaders of Philadelphia Republicanism -- How This Arrangement Affects David Martin.

FROM THE NEW YORK SUN.

Philadelphia, April 11.—Before the wet season of April showers shall have ended, and the genial season of May flowers have begun, harmony and good-will will be established among the fiercely contending factions of eastern Pennsylvania.

Some time ago Senator Quay made this statement to a personal friend of his own name, Mayor Warwick: "Nothing would please me better than an honorable and amicable adjustment with the mayor, which would not invite the sacrifice of friends or principle. If it can be accomplished there will be peace in Pennsylvania, and I will get out of politics at least out of active participation and constant duties in a way satisfactory to myself."

Within the past week Senator Quay and Mayor Warwick, of Philadelphia, have consulted in regard to the matter of party harmony. Both being practical politicians and possessed of a good deal of good sense, an era of good-will and political peace will follow that contending factions will result in giving Senator Quay and Mayor Warwick the chief offices in the state at large, and in making Senator Penrose and Mayor Warwick the recognized leaders of the Republican party in Philadelphia.

THE EFFECT.

The effect of this concert of leaders—Senator Quay, Governor Hastings, Senator Penrose and Mayor Warwick—will be the nomination of candidates for state treasurer and auditor-general next August agreeable alike to Senator Quay and Governor Hastings, and of a city treasurer and register of wills of Philadelphia agreeable alike to Senator Penrose and Mayor Warwick; most likely State Senator C. Wesley Tammie for register of wills, and Jacob J. Seeds for city treasurer, provided that Mr. Seeds, the very able chairman of finance of our city council, would accept a nomination to an office that requires the safe custody of $1,000,000 during his three years' term of office.

THE HARRISBURG VIEW.

Harrisburg, April 12.—Walter J. Christie, staff correspondent of the Pittsburg Commercial-Gazette, writes from here: "The Quays are rapidly gathering in all the state delegates. Flight is being made in some of the counties. The following are the delegates claimed by the Quays: Butler, 2; Mercer, 4; Allegheny, 7; Greene, 4; Beaver, 3; Warren, 2; Lackawanna, 4; Snyder, 1; Berks, 2; Columbia, 2; Bradford, 5; McKean, 3; Venango, 2; Wayne, 2; York, 6.

It is now admitted all along the line that James A. Hieacum, of Greensburg, has a sure thing in the treasurer's office. It is said that he will not lose a delegate in the western part of the state, save those controlled in Allegheny county by Flinn and Magee. Cambria, which is sometimes mentioned as doubtful territory for the Quays, will be carried by Beacom.

Senator W. J. Scott, of Luzerne county, spent an hour with Quay the other day. It is said that he has been converted, and that in the future there will be no trouble about Luzerne county.

The auditor-generalship has not been decided. The friends of McCauley, of Chester, are very anxious to secure Golin and Hardenberg want the nomination. The friends of Golin are feeling sore because Quay does not take them up. The politicians do not want the Lebanon man, Senator Hardenberg, to have a talk with Senator Quay during his visit here last week, and is more confident than ever of his nomination. The Beaver senator told Hardenberg to go ahead and make his fight and promised he will do nothing against him. The Wayne senator will go to Washington this week for another conference with Quay, after which he will make a systematic canvass.

Mayor Warwick, of Philadelphia, has been taken into the Quay camp, and harmony between factions is now assured in the Quaker City. It is said that after the combine fight of David Martin, Magee and Flinn made a deal that none of them would make peace with Quay unless the entire trio was included. This bargain is said to be delaying the harmony scheme in Philadelphia. The Quays are not wanting the Pittsburgers and Martin, also, to break faith. It is said that the ward leaders who recently went over to Quay were induced to do this on the proposition that Martin was going to fight with the Pittsburgers.

SENATOR SCOTT OBJECTS.

Doesn't Care to Persist in Behalf of Ex-Congressman Leisenring. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Wilkes-Barre, April 12.—One of the political secrets which has leaked out since Friday's conference of the boys in relation to the Leisenring gubernatorial boom is that Senator Scott is outspokenly opposed to the ex-member from Upper Lehigh, and his opposition is so expressed in a manner that the project of petitioning Mr. Leisenring for governor has for the present, been abandoned.

SWINDLER AT WORK.

Fraudulent Orders for Photographs and Collects in Advance. Harrisburg, April 12.—Residents of Scranton are looking for a swindler who played a neat game on them last week and victimized them for about $25. The swindler offered them the names of the photographers and collected payment in advance, giving an order on a Harrisburg photographer. In some instances he secured as many as a half dozen orders in one family.

MINE MULES MUST GO.

Compressed Air and Electricity Are Gradually Displacing Them. Scranton, April 12.—A compressed air locomotive has just been put into service in the gangways of Heliance mine, near this place, and General Manager Luther, of the Reading Coal and Iron company, is confident that it will prove far superior to mule power.

NEW OUTLET FOR COAL.

New York Railroads Are Reaching Into Northern Pennsylvania. Bradford, April 12.—S. S. Bullis, the Clean Lumberman, has resigned as superintendent of the Buffalo and Arcade railroad, and it is said important changes will be made in the management of the road. It is reported that Goodyear Iron, of Buffalo, has purchased the right of way of the Tonawanda Valley and Cuba railroad, and with the Buffalo and Arcade road will make a connection to the coal regions of Pennsylvania.

It was intended to have an outlet via the Erie railroad to Charlotte, N. Y., where coal may be loaded on boats for Canada. The connecting link will be built from Wellsville to Cuba, N. Y., thus affording a direct route from the latter place to the lumber regions of Potter county.

It is the name only that is to be inserted, not the title of the office to be filled. The latter is already printed there and constitutes part of the ballot prepared for the use of voters.

THEY CLAIM DRAKE'S ESTATE.

Descendants of the Freebooter Ask for Only $200,000. Allentown, April 12.—Two hundred descendants of Sir Francis Drake, the famous English navigator, have formed an association in the western part of Pennsylvania, to put forward a claim for what was once his estate. The property, they say, is situated in Devon and Cornwall, in England, and consists of about 6,000 acres of land and over $200,000,000 in money, which is the accumulation of rentals for about 150 years.

SURVEYING A NEW RAILROAD.

Projected Route Connects the North Penn and Perkiomen Lines. Telford, April 12.—Surveyors who claim they are laying out a railroad from New York to Pittsburg, are keeping residents of Upper Montgomery county advised of the work of surveying. The line was commenced at a point near Potstown, thence to Fagleyville, Perkiomenville, Morwood and Telford. The road thus far would connect the North Penn railroad with the Perkiomen.
