GRINDINGS OF THE DIVORCE MILL.

Status of Several Proceedings for Separation Now Before Court. Attorney M. J. McAndrew, acting as mmissioner, yesterday took evidence in three divorce cases in Judge Edward's chambers.

Colonel F. J. Fitzsimmons appeared for Sarah Scott, who is seeking to free herself from the marital bonds that exist between her and Michael Scott, of the South Side, She avers that he never contributed to her support after their honeymoon was over, and that on June 28, 1896, he threatened to cut out her heart with a rezor and throw it in her face. For fear he would, she left his home. They were married in this city in July, 1895.

The same attorney appeared for John Martin, machinist, of this city, who is trying to have court annul his marriage with Mary Wirth on the grounds that she is the legal wife of William Wirth, formerly of this city. Martin and the Wirth woman were married in Wilkes-Barre Oct. 5, 1895. The very next day he heard of the previous husband, and looking him up, found out that what he had heard was a fact. He never lived with her afterwards Mrs. Wirth has instituted proceedings in divorce against William Wirth and William Wirth has instituted similar proceedings against her. She proposes to be thoroughly divorced while she is at it, she says. Attorney O. B. Partridge appeared for the libeliant in the case of Louisa Howe against Charles A. Howe. They were married in Binghamton Dec. 24, 1889, by Rev. E. L. Bennett and came to this city to live. From here they went to Waverly, A. Y., and thence to various other places, and in August, 1894, reached Altoona, where he deserted her. She has not heard from him

The divorce cases of John W. Bullock against Abbiezabeth Bullock, and Annie E. Miller against Chester L. Miller, will be heard before Judge Edwards in chambers this afternoon at 3 o'elock.

CITY IMPROVEMENT FUND.

Recommended by City Officials and May Be Submitted to Vote.

City officials are considering the wisdom of establishing a fund of about $150,000 to be used as an improvement and emergency fund. It would have to be raised by a bond issue and authorized by popular vote,

The improvement fund idea is oper ated in Williamsport and other Pennquested that those who have not received sylvania cities of that class and, it is said, is a a money-saving scheme. Its adoption here may be urged by City Solicitor Torrey and several leading councilmen, Such a fund would be used for the immediate payment of sewer pages. Among special features will be a London letter by Miss Kaiser; a paper on "Modern Mexico" by Hon. Theo. Hart, erty assessments would be paid into the fund. It is claimed that by this method of prompt payment to contractors,

SEVENTEEN KNOCKED OUT

Big Result Achieved in the Dunmore Election Contest --- Votes That Will Have to Be Deducted.

Yesterday was the banner day in the Dunmore contest as far as good results are concerned. Out of the thirty-eight witnesses examined seventeen were admittedly illegal voters and the contestants claim that even more than this number will be declared disqualified when arguments are heard. These seventeen were simply those who were unquestionably irregular, the majority having paid no taxes and the others being unnaturalized.

Those who were shown not to have paid taxes were: Thomas Loughney, Angello Mecca, Nicholas Massi, Martin Langan, John McGuire, Frank Moriano, James McGowan, Patrick McGowan, Martin McGuire.

The following were proven to be noncitizens: Angello Mecca (No. 2), Fransco Morallino, Martin Mecca, Donatti Mecca, Guiseppe Mayello, Liuigi Mal-Ho. James McAndrews, Thomas Murray was shown to have

Davis' Theater. Large audiences were convulsed with laughter at Davis' theater yesterday afternoon and evening, by the funny people in Dave Marion's Extravaganza company, who appeared in "City of Paris by Night" and "The Radley-Barton Ball." These comedies, arranged by Dave Marion, the well known song writer, author of "Only One Girl,' 'etc., contain original catchy music, interspersed with the popular airs and many bright sayings and ludicrous situations,

The Corbett-Fitzsimons fight by Jas. Van Leer and Joe Barton was one of the funniest acts, while the impersonations by James Bernard were well received and the burlesque by Charles ant laughter. The limb will never be of much use however. In leaving the hospital young Storm also leaves a record as one of the most unmanageable patients ever treated in the institution.

Young Storm at two different times since he was admitted to the hospital attempted to commit suicide. Once only a few weeks after the accident. he crushed a glass between his hands and then swallowed some of the fine glass. He was interrupted in the act by the nurses. Again, he attempted to drink a quantity of carbolic acid. "Anton," the orderly at the hospital approached Storms' bedside one day

Taylor People to Own Their Electric

Light Works. At a meeting of the Taylor borough council last Friday night it was decided to have a special election, the date to be decided upon later, to determine whether or not the residents want to experiment with their own electric light plant. The scheme is to bond the borough in the sum of $10,000. The oney is to be expended in the establishment of a power house for a sup-ply of light throughout the town.

The promoters of the scheme say that enough money can be collected from the rental of commercial and house lights to fully reach the original expenditure. It is argued that at $90 per light the borough by expending $10,000 in a lump will in a few years be ahead of the game. CONSTABLE YEOMANS WILL RESIGN.
