The Burgess of Excter About to Fulfig His Long-Cherished Plan for a Summer Resort.

Pittston. April 16 .- The Gazette says Senator James S. Slocum, of Excter, is about to consummate his long cherished desire for a hotel, picnic ground and resort on the mountain side opposite Campbell's ledge. The plans now being considered are on an elabor-Ground has already been ate scale. broken for the hotel, which will be one of the finest in this neighborhood. It will be located but a short distance this side of the Forest Castle, along the line of the Harvey Lake branch of the Lehigh Valley railroad. Drawings have been prepared for the building and been accepted. In size it will be 40x60 feet, three stories high and contain all the modern improvements. The picnic ground and other proposed improvements will be in keeping with the other arrangements, and will be managed and constructed by Senator Slocum. Directly east of the hotel site and immedictely on the opposite side of the railroad track is a large plot of ground and grove on the banks of the beautiful Sugguehanna river. It is the intention to fit this up as a summer resort. All of the ansusements customary at such a place will be erected on the grounds for the use of picnickers. A race track for bleyclists will also be constructed.

One of the most attractive features of the arrangements is the proposition to convey picnickers to the grounds by A landing will be constructed boat. from which place will ply between the railroad bridge and the grounds two excursion boats.

to light the interior of business places, lodges and churches in this borough, it is evident that kerosene as an illuminating agent, must go. The private residences have not yet been canvassed but the company is assured that when they are ready a goodly number of incandescent lights will be employed in the majority of the residences in town on the start. When the are lights are erected it will be a new era for the people of Hawley when they shall suddenly emerge from the blackness of darkness into light that shine alike upon the just and unjust. Our wheelmen are longing for the time to hasten when electric light rambles on the cycle may be indulged in and courtship is never more pleasant than when taken "on the wing."
