Funeral of Thomas Kirkwood.

The funeral of Thomas Kirkwood, who died in New York city Wednesday, took place from the home of his brothconducted by Father Nealon,nephew of Mr. Kirkwood. The interment was in the old Catholic cemetery on Belmont street. Many friends followed the remains to their last resting place and the pall-bearers were old friends of Mr. Kirkwood when he was a resident of Carbondale.

Counterfeit Money.

From appearances it seems that some one is endeavoring to pass off counter felt money in this vicinity. Most of the coins are dollars and at one business place three were offered vesterday Several of the coins are very good imitations, while others were very poor. They are somewhat smaller than the genuine and a trifle lighter and have a greasy feeling.

I found it almost impossible to read or write for a period longer than a few minutes. I would pick up a newspaper with the intention of ginteing over the news of the day. In five or ten minutes I would have to lay the paper aside and get up and walk around to quiet my nerves. It was the same when I did any writing. I could write for a few minutes and then have to give it up, as my hands would become shaky and my whole body and mind in a quiver.
