TRAGIC DEATH OF JAMES J. SLOCUM

Killed by a Coal Train on the Lehigh Valley Railroad.

Manner in Which He Was Run Down Is a Mystery -- Mr. Slocum Was 67 Years of Age and Was Formerly a Postmaster of Scranton -- Something About the History of the Man.

Special to the Scranton Tribune. Pittston, April 19.-James J. Slocum. ex-postmaster of Scranton, and well known throughout the Wyoming and Lackawanna valleys, was struck and killed by a coal train at 7.45 o'clock this evening as he was walking through a cut on the Lehigh Valley railroad near Campbell's ledge, west of this place.

Just how the accident happened will ver be known as Slocum was alone at the time. The train hands, as the train sped on at a fast rate, felt the ars jump as the wheels ran over the body. The train was stopped with the idea that a coupling had disconnected. Going back down the track the train crew found the mangled body of Slocum. Life was extinct. The head was severed from the shoulders and the body was cut through many times as it shifted on the rail.

BODY TAKEN TO HIS HOME.

Slocum was readily recognized as he was very well known here. The body was carried to his home, which is but a short distance from the place of the accident. Nothing more concerning the accident or the unfortunate man's doings today can be

His death has created a sensation here, as the old man was popular with all classes. A sketch of his eventful life shows the sterling characteristics of the Slocum family which has figured two valleys.

He was born sixty-seven years ago in Exeter township, this county, not far from his home at the time of death. As a boy he worked on the farm, the possession of which goes to his beirs. It is situated on the east bank of the Susquehanna river and is at present under lease to a produce company, During the administration of President Grant he was appointed postmaster of the city of Sgranton, and during his regime he lived with James Oakford. of Jefferson avenue, Scranton. He also at one time announced his candidacy for the nomination as state senator on the Republican ticket from the Luzerne district and he would probably have been successful had he not withdrawn a few days prior to the convention. He owned a great amount of property in Luzerne county, and his wealth is estimated to be over $100,000.

WELL KNOWN HERE.

The news of the death of James J. Slocum was received in this city last evening with much surprise and regret by his many friends. A message was sent to his sister, Mrs. Francis C. Oakford, who lives with her son, James W. Oakford, at 332 Jefferson avenue, but Mrs. Oakford is seriously ill and the sad news was kept from her.

She is the only surviving near relative. William Oakford, a brother, was found dead at Pittston about three years ago and an uncle of James Slo cum was killed by a train about eight years ago in Winchester, Virginia, He has several distant relatives residing in this city.

Friends of the deceased last evening in discussing his death told many incidents of his life. His wealth did not cause him to give up his wholesome old fashion style of living. Up to the time of his death he appeared in public in the garb of the old time farmer, his boots unblackened and his clothing simple and usually unkempt. Several years ago he donated enough money to build a church in his native town of Exeter and an idea of his ideas can be obtained from the fact that he stipulated in making the gift that it should belong to no one creed or denomination but should be used by all. This church is still in use in Exeter under the broad-minded plan set down by James Sieeum.

It is raid he received $20,000 from the Lehigh Valley railread for the right to run its Harvey Lake branch road through his property in Exeter. The latest idea reported of Mr. Slocum was that he would build a large hotel in Exeter under the brow of the famed Youth in Custody Alleged to Have Passed Bogus Checks.

Allentown, April 19.-Charles Uhler, about twenty years of age, was ar-rested charged with forging the names THAT IS ALL THAT IS KNOWN f T. J. Lenhart, Dr. O. H. Uhler and Henry J. Vheulon, to checks ranging in amount from $20 to $75.

V. D. Barner cashed a $20 check. Uhler is alleged to have telephoned to Barner, representing himself to be Dr. Uhler. He sent a boy to Barner and got the money. Later Barner met the doctor, who was surprised when told of the affair. Shortly after there was another ring at the telephone, and, it is said, that Uhler, still representing himself as Dr. Uhier, asked Barner to Large Galusha A. Grow, of Susquehancash another check.

Barner told him to send it up and at once sent for an officer. Unier came himself and walked into the trap. It Philadelphia was recommitted to the is not known yet whether he had other checks cashed. He attempted to pass them at various business places,

DOCTORS IN SESSION.

Arranging for the Forthcoming Fiftieth Annual Session of the American Medical Association.

Philadelphia, April 19.-The committee of arrangements for the fiftleth annual meeting of the American Medleaf association, which is to be held in this city on June 1, 2, 3 and 4, is preparing plans for the development of interest in the coming gathering and for the entertainment of the hundreds of doctors from all parts of the United States, who will be here on that occas-

The average attendance at previous annual meetings of the association has been somewhat less than a thousand, but in view of the fact that this is to be the jubilee anniversary of the organization of the association, and that so prominently in the history of the it is to be held in this great central city of medical and surgical interests, It is expected that the attendance will be very much nearer two thousand than one. Reports from all parts of the country already indicate a greatly increased attendance. There will be public and private entertainments for the delegates almost every evening. The University of Pennsylvania will give them a reception at the Union League, Jefferson college will entertain the visitors at the Academy of Fine Arts. The session will wind up in a blaze of banquets on the evening of June 4, when each of the thirteen sections will give a dinner to their special guests. There will be no general banquet for the entire association.

SCENES IN THE LEGISLATURE

Hon. Galusha A. Grow and Ex-Speaker Louis T. De Rousse, of

New Jersey House of Representatives, Among the Spectators at the House Sessions in Harrisburg. Business of the Session.

Harrisburg, April 19.-Louis T. De-Rousse, of Camden, former speaker of the New Jersey house of represen-tatives, occupied a seat by the side of Speaker Boyer at tonight's session of the house. There were many other spectators in the chamber, the most distinguished being Congressman-Atna county. On motion of Mr. Scott, of Philadelphia, senate bill creating an additional court of common pleas in judiciary general committee. A bill requiring street railway cars to carry jack screws to extriente persons who may become fastened or caught in the running gear of such cars was introduced by Mr. Muchtbronner, of Aliegheny. A penalty of $25 per day is prescribed for every car used and operated without jack screws.

A bill introduced by Mr. Tillbrook. of Allegheny, permits notaries public to become connected with banks or banking institutions. Mr. Gould, of Erie, presented a bill appropriating $1,000 to the Northwestern Pennsylvain Humane society.

Mr. Creasy, of Columbia, called up is resolution to make original resolutions the order at Monday night's session. Less than a majority voting in the allirmative, the resolution failed. Mr. Phillips, of Chester, called up the postponed Hamilton road bill for secnd reading and a long discussion folowed the introduction of several

Mr. Piollet, of Bradford, the leader the rural element on the floor, made vigorous speech in opposition to the roposition because such a law, he said. would be burdensome to the farming interests of the state. Pending the discussion Mr. Bare, of Huntingdon, moved to adjourn. Before the motion was put the speaker cleared his table The senate resolution calling for an inquiry into the charges that an attempt was made to extort $50,000 from a New York insurance company to defeat the McQuown bill prohibiting the insuring of children under 16 years, on motion of Bliss, of Delaware, was concurred

The Elkin bill taxing direct inheritances over $5,000 passed finally on a special order by a vote of 104 to 42. Mr. Bliss, of Delaware, moved to amend the resolution to provide that the investigation be conducted exclusively by a committee of senators. The motion failed. Mr. Bliss then moved that the resolution be amended to provide that the committee be composed of five senators and three representatives instead of three senators and five epresentatives. The amendment was oted down by 59 to 56. At 12.10 the house adjourned until 10

'clock tomorrow morning. ADDRESS BY MR. GROW. In the senate this evening Congressman-at-Large Galusha A. Grow, by resolution was invited to address the chamber. Mr. Grow made a few re marks of a general nature and the business of the senate was then taken up. Louis T. DeRousse, ex-speaker of a brief speech. The governor returned without his approval the amendatory act, permitting the courts of common pleas to fill vacancies on election boards, for the reason that there was no reference in the title to the emendments proposed. Mr. Grady stated that last week a resolution had been passed by the senate recalling the bill from the governor for the purpose of making the necessary corrections in the title. He wanted to know who was responsible for the failure of the governor to re-postpone further consideration of the message for the present. This was The governor advised the senate that he had signed the bills providing for the establishment of free kindergartens out of the public school treasury and providing that war service in the rebellion be counted as double in computing fifteen years' retirement period. The senate passed over the governr's veto by a vote of 36 to 0 the resolution providing that the legislature attend in a body the dedication of the Grant monument in New York. Both branches of the legislature passed this resolution, but the house afterwards asked the governor to withhold his signature from the resolution. Upor this ground alone, the governor stated, that he vetoed the resolution.

In moving that the resolution be passed over the governor's veto, Mr Grady said that his excellency could take no offense at such action. The thirty-six members present thought as Mr. Grady did and voted to pass the bill over the veto.

These bills were read in place and properly referred; By Mr. Snyder-For the relief of Colmel Henry R. Guss, of West Chester, for the reimbursement of money due him for the maintenance and transan unknown depth. All the inhabitants portation of soldiers during the civil war. The bill carries with it an appropriation of $1,079.20, By Mr. McCarrell-Making It lawful for minors above the age of 18 years to contract for membership in fraternal and beneficial societies. A batch of bills was passed on first reading and the senate then adjourned until 10 o'clock tomorrow morning.

MR. KAUFFMAN TALKS.

Proposes to Discover Facts Concerning Insurance Scandal.

Philadelphia, April 19 .- State Senator Kauffman, of Lancaster county, was in the city today in conference with offieers of an insurance company regarding alleged efforts on the part of certain senators to secure $50,000 for the defeat of a bill to prohibit child life insurance in Pennsylvania. "We propose," said Senator Kauffman, "to do our utmost to have this matter investigated. The suspicion is abroad that the present senate is holding up everything and everybody in sight, and that the senators are making a barrel of money. I fer one intend to see that the facts concerning this in-surance scandal are brought to light, and if we cannot have an investigating committee appointed, we will ask for the appointment of a commission to hear testimony. Failing in that we will be compelled to publish the affidavits that have been made in this
