SCHOOL FUND BILL IS PASSED

The Country Members Line Up Solid for the Measure.

TO EQUALIZE THE DISTRIBUTION

Governor Vetoes a Proposition to Pay Witnesses Who Testify at Mining Investigations -- The Bill to Provide for the Removal of State Capitol Is Postponed .- Mr. Mackey Introduces a Measure Concerning Are Discussed.

Harrisburg, April 21.-In the sente this morning there was quite a dismore just and equitable method of for the reservation of forests and pardistributing the state appropriation to tially relieving forest lands from taxpublic schools. The bill provides for the dividing of all the school money interest upon demand deposits; senate into three-thirds. Two-thirds of the bill to regulate the distribution of the sum is to be distributed according to assets of certain insolvent partnerthe number of teachers employed and the number of school months. The remaining third is to be divided on the basis of population.

Mr. Osbourne declared that the measure was not at all fair to Phila-delphia and Pittsburg. "I am in favor of this bill," declared Mr. Flinn, "although I know that Pittsburg will not get as much as she is now receiv ing, but she will get all to which she is entitled. Under the present law Philadelphia gets $7.95 per pupil; Allegheny, $5.10, while a county like Beav-

Mr. Critchfield said that every country member was interested in the passage of the bill, and he asked the senators representing the rural dis-tricts to vote in the affirmative.

Another attack was made on the bill by Mr. Osbourne. He said the bill would take many dollars away from Philadelphia, Mr. Gobin spoke for the measure, and a vote being taken on final passage the bill went through by a vote of 33 to 9. The countrymer lined up almost solidly for the bill. A deal of time was spent in the sen ate in the consideration of bills on third reading. The resolution providing for an investigation of the state penitentiaries was referred to the committee on judiclary special, with instructions to report tomorrow morning.

GOVERNOR'S VETO.

The governor informed the senate that he had vetoed the concurrent resolution requesting the state treasurer to pay witnesses who testify in the investigation of the condition of the miners in the coal regions.

When the bill defining libel and its punishment came up for final passage, Mr. Thomas moved to amend by making section 3 read "In any civil action for libel (when the publication is printed for public information) the plea of justification shall be accepted as ade quate." The clause in the parenthesis, which was Mr. Thomas' amendment. was agreed to and the bill was laid over to be printed.

Mr. Thomas, the author of the bil providing for the removal of the state capitol to Philadelphia, moved that the measure be indefinitely postponed. This was agreed to.

HOUSE PROCEEDINGS.

Bills on third reading and final cass age was the order today in the house The political assessment bill was reached at the opening of the morning session. Mr. Woodruff, of Philadelphia. promptly moved to postpone consideration for the present. He explained that the Gobin bill, dealing with the same subject, has passed the senate and differed with his bill principally in that it extends to employes of coun-

There was much objection to postponing action but Mr. Woodruff's mo tion carried by a viva voce vote. The Focht bridge bill passed finally on special order, with only one dissenting vote.

The state fish commission bill passed finally as did also a bill amending the act of May 14, 1889, to extend the period of the limitation of liens for taxes entered of record to three years. Mr. Baldwin, of Delaware, made a lon; speech in support of his insurance bill. Mr. Clarency, of Philadelphia, spoke against the measure after which it was defeated by 76 to 63.

The bill relating to holidays was amended in committee of the whole to conform with a bill of like purpose passed by the senate. Mr. Hopwood,

When the Dempsey bill providing swer, hat school houses be allowed, at the iscretion of the directors, to be used for purposes of Sabath schools and religious services, came up for third eading, it met with disfavor and was lefeated by a vote of 191 to 46. The question was evidently misunderstood, and a motion was made by Mr. Stewart, of Philadelphia, for the reconsideration of the bill, which prevailed, followed by a discussion led by Repesentative Focht, of Union, who faored the measure. He claimed that if there was ever the need or demand for such a bill it was now; that under a decision of the Supreme court what are known in the Evangelical church of Pennsylvania as the Dubsites had on a legal technicality, been driven from their altars of worship into the streets by the faction known as the Bowman-Esherites, persected and robbed of their property; that a more creditable act could not be performed than to pass the bill and offer to those oppressed, devoted Christian people a place where they might worship their Master, Mr. Focht raked the Howman-Esherites for their injustice and harrowing persecution of people who vere the victims of a legal technicality. He was supported in the debate in fa-
