ARREST OF A SCORCHER.

William Opil Arrainged on the Charge of Fast Bicycle Riding.

Friends of William J. Opli are very indignant at his arrest on Saturday evening on the charge of fast bicycle riding. Special Policeman S. S. Gritman brought him before Alderman According to Mr. Opli's ac-Lowry. count of the affair, he was riding along Belmont street, when he was stopped by the officer saying "come to the alderman's office with me." On reaching the 'squire's office he was under arrest for racing. He protested against the charge but was willing to pay the fine and costs amounting to five dollars. As he had not just the amount with him he was allowed to go. Mr. Opil immediately consulted a lawyer, several wheelmen, and Mayor O'Nelll. and as the result it is said that there is no bicycle ordinance, and unless he was so riding as to endanger lives, he was not liable to the law. He was not racing and claims that riders go much faster all through the city. Mr. Opil who is chief clerk in Irving Davis' store, says that if the fine is demanded it will be paid under pro-test and suit will be commenced against the policeman and alderman for extortion.

Wheelmen who belong to the league are much interested and will test the right of what they call arbitrary arrests.

FIGHTING FOREST FIRES.

D. & H. Employes Battle with Flames on the Mountains.

On Sunday forest fires raged fiercely on the mountains in the vicinity of this city. The wind was strong and sent the burning leaves in every direction. The dry underbrush furnished material for the fire which spread with great rapidity. There was real danger to parties that were on Salem mountain seeing arbutus for the flames darted in every direction.

At one time the head houses at Nos. 3 and 4, above the city, were in danger. A large force of Delaware and Hudson men were called out to fight the fire when it approached gravity engine house No. 25, near Archbald. At Vandling and other places north of the city property was in danger. At a place near the Mayfield yard a small structure was burned in which was stored a boring apparatus. The rain on Sunday evening came when especially need, as the flames in many places were spreading very rapidly.

BELLIGERENT HUNGARIANS.

Arrested for Making an Attack Upon a Street Car.

Constable Healey arrested three Hungarlans on Saturday night near the the kitchen roof. Immediately he summoned the Mitchell Hose company and the fire was extinguished before much damage was done. The origin of the fire is not known.

Apparently life at the sailor boarding house has demoralized them,
