SCORCHER MULCTED.

Fined for Fast Rievele Riding .- Mr.

Opic Pays Under Protest. $5.50 from William J. Opie on Wednesday evening as a fine for rapid bicycle riding on Belmont street. Special Policeman Gritman called at Irving Davis' store and read the warrant. Mr. Opie, accompanied by a large number of wheelmen, who feel great indigna-tion at what they regard as gross injustice, went to the alderman's office. Mr. Opic paid the fine under protest. George James, local consul of the League of American Wheelmen, and Moses Harnden, consul at Olyphant, were witnesses to the statement made that the defendant in paying the money did not acknowledge having raced or ridden too fast. His action admitted no offense whatever against the law. Consul James has sent an outline of the case to Consul S. A. Boyle, of Philadelphia. If the League of American Wheelmen do not investigate the matter it is thought that action will be taken by the local wheelmen. They will then probably employ legal assistance and take action in the case Much interest is felt and new applications for membership in the League

Warrahpa tribe, Degree of Pocahontas, will hold a regular meeting next mations. Friday evening. All members are rejuested to be present. Mrs. Thomas Solomon, who has been visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Tiffany, returned to her home at Jermyn yesterday. Mrs, Treverton, of Beach Lake, is isiting her son, George Treverton. The Eastern Star degree chapter, which was to have been instituted here last Tuesday evening, has been postponed until Tuesday, May 11. Sheridan lodge, Knights of Pythias, will hold their meeting nights hereafter on Wednesday night instead of Monday night. Two children of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Thomas, of the West End, are dangerously sick, one with bronchitis and the other with pneumonia. A very pretty wedding occurred at the home of Postmaster and Mrs. A. A. swingle, last Wednesday evening, on Main street, when their accomplished and only daughter, Addie, was united in marriage to George W. Roberts, The Rev. S. C. Simpkins performed the ceremony at 8.45 p. m. Miss Edith Swingle, a cousin of the bride from Green Ridge, played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the bridal party entered the parlor and stood under a large and elegant horseshoe made of evergreens. smilax and pink carnations. The root was bedecked with roses and forest treens and the general effect was most pleasing. The bride and groom were anattended. Miss Swingle's costume was of pink silk trimmed with cream lace. She carried a bunch of yellow roses and maiden hair fern. The ushers were Elmer and Harry Roberts, brothers of the groom, and Elmer and Florence Swingle, brothers of the bride. After the ceremony the guests present partook of a bountiful repast. Mrs. Roberts is a young lady of an unassuming nature and her acquaintances are many, as she has rendered her father valuable assistance as clerk in the postoffice for many years. Roberts is a popular and widely known years been engaged with his brothers in the grocery and boot and shoe business on the corner of Main and Depot streets. Mr. and Mrs. Roberts were the recipients of many tasteful and gifts from their numerous friends. They have dispensed with the customary wedding tour and taken abode in their handsomely furnished home on Hickcry street. Those in attendance were: Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Peters, Mr. and Mrs. Z. P.
