CITY NOTES.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company will pay today at the Arch-bald, Hyde Park and Continental mines.

Today is pay day at city hall, but owing to the trouble over the appropriation ordinance there will be no money paid out in salaries.

It was Elizabeth Haisley and not Elizabeth Haisley who was adopted by Mrs. Mary E. Fenrot Thursday by permission of the court.

"The Dozzer" was repeated at the Academy of Music last evening. The company will give a matinee this afternoon and will also be seen tonight at the Academy.

The exploding of a lamp caused a blaze in a house on Fellows street last evening. The lamp was thrown out of the house and the fire put out before any damage was done.

Complaint is made of the practice that is made of dumping garbage on Hyerson avenue near Delaware street, and on Washington avenue near the corner of Columbia avenue.

The official bond of City Engineer Phillips in the sum of $500 was sworn to before Mayor Bailey yesterday morning. His bondsmen are Thomas D. Bevan and Andrew Smith.

The thirteenth regiment will go to Philadelphia next month to assist in the unveiling of the Washington monument in that city. They will leave for Philadelphia on May 14.

The inquest in the case of the Davis child, who was burned to death on the South Side, last week was postponed last night for a week owing to the absence of a number of important witnesses.

John Glogoski and Anna Karpinski, of Scranton; John C. Jamison and Carrie M. Schmidt, of Scranton; George Beddoe and Lottie Stims, of Pritchburg; Chris Hartman and Margaret Hughes, of Carbonate were granted marriage licenses yesterday.

Mrs. Hand will conduct the Gospel meeting at the Young Women's Christian association Sunday, May 2, at 3.45 p. m. This is a special meeting to which all young women are invited. Monday afternoon at 2 o'clock the meeting in the city are requested to meet for prayer and conference at the association rooms.

Professor Walter H. Hoell last evening met in the Young Men's Christian association parlors a number of the students at the John Raymond institute, which recently closed its season. Arrangements were made for the holding of summer sessions for the reading and discussion of literary works by the standard authors. Meetings will be held every week and Professor Hoell will be instructor.

FALSE PRETENSE ON A LARGE SCALE

Slick Agents Collected Money That Did Not Belong to Them.

THOMAS H. MORGAN ARRESTED

He Was Arraigned Before Alderman Millar Last Night But It Was Shown That He Was Not the Person Who Engaged in the Unlawful Practice. Other Warrants Have Been Issued and Arrests Will Follow.

A case of wholesale false pretenses and forgery is being prosecuted in Alderman Millar's court. The outcome of the proceedings will affect the collection of money from sales amounting to nearly $300, which is the aggregate value of from 60 to 80 patent black boards and desks that have been distributed about this city.

It appears that during the summer months four young men, who took this method of paying their way through Dickinson Law school, traveled throughout the state selling combination blackboards and desks. They represented the Powers Chautauqua Desk Manufacturing company, with works and headquarters at Chicago. Another company, the Gately & Fitzgerald concern, also had agents in this vicinity selling desks. The two sets of sellers frequently conflicted and it now is charged that the men representing the Gately & Fitzgerald firm collected money due from sales by the Chicago company. This was done on the wholesale plan.

Way it was done. The manner of collection was: The Gately-Fitzgerald people in canvassing found that the student-agents had traveled the same routes before. Instead of pressing their sales the agents persuaded themselves to be representatives of the Chicago firm and in this guise they collected the money due to the other agents. As before estimated these collections amounted to nearly $300.

When the agents for the Chicago company went around to collect from their buyers they found in nearly every house a receipt for amounts that had been paid. The receipts were signed by the Powers Chautauqua Desk company. When the Chicago firm heard of the swindle they employed Attorney Joseph W. Brown and D. L. Fickles to prosecute the offenders. This was a month ago.

Detective Dyer was sent with a warrant to arrest Thomas H. Morgan of Hyde Park avenue, who was an agent for the Gately and Fitzgerald firm. However when Detective Dyer went to Morgan's house the black craps of debt hung on the door and the arrest of Morgan was deferred.

Yesterday he was arrested and taken before Alderman Millar.

MORGAN EXONERATED. Several of the families that had been imposed upon were present in the alderman's office. No one could identify Morgan as the agent who had collected the money; in fact they were sure that he was not the guilty person. He was forthwith discharged. He was represented by ex-District Attorney John P. Kelley.

Warrants for the arrest of two other agents were issued yesterday and the case will be heard as soon as the arrests are made.

SIR KNIGHTS PREPARING.

Making Ready for Next Month's Annual Conclave at Easton.

The committee and officers representing the two Scranton commanderies of Knights Templar, the Cooper Lion and Melita, have about completed arrangements for the trip to Easton, where from Monday, May 24, to Thursday night the annual conclave of a Grand commandery will be held.

Bauer's band of thirty pieces will accompany the two commanderies. They will leave in a special parlor car, two day coaches and a combination baggage and smoking car attached to the 323 Lackawanna train. The Sir Knights will be in full Templar uniform. Their headquarters in Easton will be at the United States hotel.

Blue lodge Masons will be invited to accompany the Sir Knights and share with them the cheap rates of transportation.

It is now considered probable that more cars than originally provided for will be necessary, in which case the train will be made a special one and will follow the regular fast afternoon train going East.

JOHN CHANGED HIS MIND TWICE.

Couple of Days in Jail Made Him Agree to Marry the Girl.

Thursday last John Grogoski, of Pritchburg, accompanied by a constable, met Miss Anna Karpinski at the office of the clerk of the courts for the purpose of securing a marriage license. While awaiting their turn in front of the clerk's desk, Grogoski changed his mind and said, "Take me jail." He was taken to jail.

Yesterday he again changed his mind and came before court in custody of Warden Simpson to secure his release by marrying the girl. "Get out of jail, and I will release you on your own recognizance," said Judge Arch-bald. They procured the license and went away to hunt up somebody to marry them.

NO WATER IN THE TROUGH.

Was Dry for the First Time in Thirty Years.

Nate Thompson came in for his full share of abuse yesterday from the men who have occasion to drive by the watering trough in front of the Thomas hotel at Bull's Head. For thirty years has water flowed in and out of that trough, and from 600 to 1,000 thirsty animals have daily during the heated months slaked their thirst at its dripping side.

The trough is a round affair, bearing some resemblance to a horsehead, and was constructed and kept up by Joseph Church. The Providence Gas and Water company furnished water free until yesterday, when the thirsty animals in the vicinity of Bull's Head, in the depths of the old trough found it dry.

The blame for this condition of affairs is laid at Nate Thompson's door. Mr. Thompson owns a number of buildings in the vicinity of Bull's Head, and some of them are used as tenements. Near them is a large building, also owned by Mr. Thompson, which was used as a carriage repository.

In this building was a faucet, through which water could be drawn from the main of the Providence Gas and Water company. From this faucet Mr. Thompson's tenants have for two years obtained the water they needed for household purposes. Mr. Thompson refused to settle with the company for this water, and the company thereupon turned off the water from the pipe which supplied this particular faucet.

Then Thompson's tenants made a raid on the water trough and carried from it the water that they needed. The water company started notice upon them to stop that practice, as the water trough was for the accommodation of the traveling public, and not for the people of the neighborhood. This notice was ignored, and yesterday the water company seized the difficulty by the horns and shut off the water from the trough.

That's why it was dry yesterday, and why some dark brown things were said about Nate Thompson.

There is a probability that the trouble will be patched up and the water again turned on within a few days.

EIGHTH ANNIVERSARY.

Celebrated by Washington Camp, No. 430, P. O. S. of A.

Washington camp, No. 430, Patriotic Order Sons of America, celebrated its eighth anniversary last evening with an entertainment and dance at Music hall. The attendance was large and the fine programme was much enjoyed.

John Scholl was chairman of the evening. An overture by Lawrence orchestra, which also furnished the dance music, was followed by a few happy remarks by Emil Bonn. The Mozart quartette, Mrs. Randolph Jones, Mrs. Boston Williams, Edwin Bowen and John W. Jones, sang "The Spring Song" and an address was delivered on "Washington at Valley Forge" by C. F. Huth, state president of the order.

Mr. Huth's remarks were filled with patriotic feeling and called for frequent applause. Edwin Jones favored with a solo.

The second part of the entertainment opened with an overture by the orchestra and included a solo by Miss Lydia Saylor, recitation by Miss L. Schuman, duet by Messrs. Jones and Evans, a piano selection by Robert Scholl, duet, "Till We Meet Again," by Mesdames Jones and Williams, a comic speech by Fred Jones and a closing selection by the quartette.

Dancing followed. The committee of arrangements included John P. Schwab, T. H. Spruck, Jacob Corbin, H. C. Koehler, C. W. Snyder, Peter Neus, William E. Kirchoff, F. W. Weichel and Robert Deiter; refreshment committee, George Frable, chairman; Fred Hueter, William Hammen, Fred C. Miller, George Nurtz, Charles Marsh, John Kiefer, A. D. Bahr, H. C. James, Henry Kiefer, Fred Greiner. William Meister was prompter of the dances.

LAND-MARK DESTROYED.

Fire at Midnight in a Capouse Avenue Tenement.

Fire last night destroyed a two-story brick frame tenement house on Capouse avenue, owned by Mrs. S. Sykes, and inhabited by four families of foreigners. The blaze was discovered at 11 o'clock by a man passing the house, which stands at the corner of Delaware and Hudson tracks, facing Capouse avenue, and near Syke's stone yard.

An alarm was sent in from box 62, corner of Capouse avenue and Phebus street. The central city fire companies responded, but the damage is not great, as the building was an old one and was quite a familiar landmark.

The origin of the fire is unknown, but incendiarism is supposed, as there was no fire in the basement, where the fire started.

WOMAN IN THE CASE.

Mrs. Hayes Claims Her Husband Liked Her Second Best.

Celia K. Hayes, formerly of Stroudsburg, now a resident of this city, yesterday brought a suit in divorce against her husband, John H. Hayes, who she was married October 5, 1888, and who, she alleges, deserted her November 27, 1896.

One Emma Blanchard is named as being the cause of the trouble between Mr. and Mrs. Hayes. The libellant's attorney is E. P. Tinkham.

Great Alterations.

The firm of Davidov Bros., brokers and jewelers, have decided to remain in the city, and have leased the store No. 277 Lackawanna avenue, where for the last few weeks workmen have been busily engaged in making extensive improvements, and where the public will find one of the finest jewelry stores in the city.

Messrs. Davidov Bros. have stocked their store with an immense line of diamonds, jewelry, silverware, watches, clocks, musical instruments, fishing tackle, etc. which having been purchased at lowest cash prices, their customers will be given an opportunity to buy at lower prices than were ever heard of before in this city. They will also continue their loan department, and will advance money on diamonds, watches, jewelry, etc., at low rates. All business strictly private. The alterations will be completed in a few days when the opening announcement will be made.

New Quick Lunch Parlor.

The Lackawanna quick lunch parlor will be opened today at the corner of Lackawanna and Franklin avenues by Goldberg & Co. Coffee, tea and milk will be given away from 4 until 10 p. m. today.

There is Something of Mystery About His Passing Away.

Edward Cleary, a blind musician who for many years made his home in this city, died yesterday morning at Durycia under peculiar circumstances.

He was found at 5.30 o'clock in a semi-conscious condition lying along the fence at the entrance to Marcy park, near Durycia. He was unable to speak, and could give no account of how he came to be in such a condition.

Several physicians were called, but could do nothing to revive the man. He was in a dying condition and passed away before he could be removed from where he was found.

THEY START TOMORROW.

home of Mr. Cleary's cousin, Michael Cleary, on the back road at Durycia. In preparing the body, the undertaker found a small hole in the back of the head. Further than this, there was nothing to indicate how Cleary had met death. He was an accomplished player on the piano and violin, and though totally blind, generally made his way about the town without much assistance. His nearest living relative is a sister, who resides in New York.

SUDDEN DEATH OF JOHN SCRAGG.

Father of the Well Known Attorney Succumbs to Heart Disease. John Scragg, father of attorney John F. Scragg, died very suddenly at 11.30 p. m. last evening at his home, 320 Madison avenue. Heart disease is supposed to have caused death.

The deceased had not been ill for any extended period lately, but his old age, 75 years, had enfeebled the body and he frequently sought his bed for a short spell. Last evening at 9 o'clock Mr. Scragg was apparently well and was in good spirits. His death occurred a short time after he had retired.

Mr. Scragg was an old resident of this city. Besides his wife and his son, Attorney Scragg, the deceased is survived by another son, George, whose home is in New York city. The notice of the funeral will be printed later.
