THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-MONDAY MORNING, MAY 3, 1897. said to be a worthless fellow who doss nothing toward their support. Information of the condition of affairs reached Mrs. Dugan, agent for the As-

ALDERMAN DAVIES NOW.

Succeeds Ex-Alderman Blair, Who Has Served Twenty-one Years.

After twenty-one years of continuous cervice as alderman of the Fifth ward, Major M. L. Blair lays by the ermine and retires to private life. His administration of the affairs connected with his office have been invariably impartial and always governed by the best Side yesterday. of judgment.

EX-ALDERMAN M. L. BLAIR.

The major will not soon be forgotten. Of course, the conditions of any man's avocation must meet with a change, and it will be henceforth Alderman Davies and 'Squire Blair (by courtesy), The ex-alderman has carned his retirement by good service,

FUNERALS SATURDAY.

Saturday afternoon in the First Welsh Baptist church occurred the funeral services of the late David S Hughes, of 314 Hughes court. The auditorium was filled by the relatives and numerous friends. Large bouquets of flowers adorned the casket and many floral emblems from the lodges and fellow teachers of Miss Hughes were placed near by. The shop employes, where the deceased had worked, attended in a body and Silurian lodge, No. 763, Independent Order of Odd Fellows, was largely represented. The Rev. John T. Morris, of the Bellevue Calvinistic Methodist church, preached a touching sermon eulogistic of the dead. Remarks were also made by Rev. Ervynwy Morgan, of Swansea, Wales, and the church choir sang several beautiful selection. Following the services the remains were borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where they were laid in final rest. The following were pall-bearers: Henry P. Davies, Thomas V. Lewis, Thomas Johns. T. Williams, John Moniger and Joseph D. Reynolds. The flower bearers were Harry Scibring, Reese Jenkins and Charles Clark.

The funeral services of an infant child of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Schweibert, of 119 North Everett avenue, occurred Saturday afternoon. They were of a private nature, only attended by the immediate members of the family. Interment was made in the Washburn street cemetery.

NEW STORE BUILDING.

The funeral of Mrs. Charles Brady day, The excavating which has been gotook place Saturday morning from her ng on for some time on the pror windows abutting upon the two en-trances. The front of the building above the first floor will consist of light brown sandstone and ornamental pillars. The building will be occupied by Mr. McCann as a general store, tery.

PERSONAL MENTION.

parade.

writing

Honesdale,

Side conclave, No. 211.

Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Morse have rewith a painful accident Saturday while turned home after a week's visit in engaged at his duties as driver in the New York city.

Cayuga mine. One of the fingers of The Misses Jennie Price and Mary the left hand was found to be so Harris, of Eynon street, are in Plybadly crushed that amputation was remouth visiting among friends. sorted to.

Rev. J. O. Davis, of Plymouth, occu-Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Ridgeway, of North Main avene, are in Wilkes-Barre. pied the pulpit of the Welsh Baptist church yesterday, Sidney Lowis, of Leggetts street, vls-They were called there by the serious illness of Mrs. Ridgeway's father. ted friends in Taylor yesterday. Ebenezer P. Davies, of Eynon street,

Rev. Dr. N. G. Parke, of Pittston, and Rev. P. H. Brook are the guests of went to New York city on business about two weeks ago and stayed to view the Grant mausoleum dedication. Major J. B. Fish. On Friday Mrs. Davies was called there The death of Mrs. Ellen McDonough to attend her husband who had conoccurred yesterday at her home on Oak tracted a severe illness by exposure street, after a week's illness. The deon Tuesday last while viewing the seased is survived by four children The funeral will take place Tuesday E. E. Evans, of Eynon street, and afternoon at 2.30 o'clock.

enior member of the firm of Evans & George Maboy, of the Bristol house, Powell, shoe merchants, left for Louiss visiting friends in Wilkes-Barre. ville, Ky., yesterday afternoon, Mr. David Griffiths, of William street Evans goes to attend the national conwho has been seriously ill for some clave of Heptasophs to be held there time, is recovering slowly. this week. He will represent West A young daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

James Watson, of North Main avenue, Robert Williams, of McAdoo, Schuylis seriously ill. kill county, was a visitor on the West Mrs. Thomas T. Jones, of Parker treet, is ill. The home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank H.

Rey, and Mrs. Samuel Wholey are he guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Kennedy, of Washington avenue. Dr. McLain is suffering from a severe attack of tonsilltis.

SOUTH SIDE.

A large number of people from differ-Fred Clark, of South Main avenue, ent sections of the city visited Connell's spent yesterday visiting friends in park yesterday afternoon. The weathr was gloomy and their visits were

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

Leader, residing at the corner of Mullein and Washburn street, was brightened by the appearance of a bright lit-

Mrs. Thomas Reynolds, of Archbald

street, Bellevue, is very ill at her home

with slight hopes of recovery at this tle girl yesterday afternoon,

There are now four industrial schools n the West Side. Each school is connected with a church and is attended by the junior members of the Sabbath chools of the churches. The last one to be organized was the one opened Saturday in the Scranton Street Eaptist church by Miss Annie Morgan. The other three are connected respect-ively with the St. David's Episcopal, St. Mark's Lutheran and the Jackson Street Baptist churches. The Bellevue mines will work five days this week. A young child of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Goodwin, of $13 Hampton street, is very 111. present a very inviting appearance.

West Side Business Directory. NOTARY PUBLIC.

c. G. MORGAN & SON, NOTARIES Public, Real Estate, Foreign Exchange and Ocean Ticket Agents, Rents collected. Prompt monthly settlements. Office 1101 Jackson street, over Musment of the people is increased. HARRIET J. DAVIS, FLORIST .- Cut flowers and funeral designs a specialty; 104 South Main avenue; two doors from Jackson street. SECOND HAND FURNITURE-Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J. C. King, 701 to 709 West Lackvening. ivenue, spent yesterday with friends awanna avenue. in Fittston.

PROVIDENCE.

ociated Board of Charities, and Saturday a warrant for Harris' arrest charging him with neglecting his childle window and two curved glass side College of Pharmacy, graduated last fren was issued. week and stood high in his closs. Constable Tierney arrested Harris

Saturday evening and he was held in ball to appear at court. The children The funeral of Mary, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael Size, occurred Sunday afternoon and was will be taken care of by Mrs. Duggan. largely attended. The remains were interred in Hydo Park Catholic ceme-

OBITUARY.

1872 to 1894.

hearing began.

ound defective were:

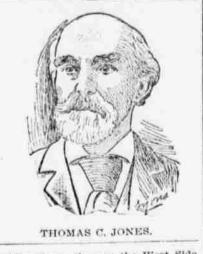

Martin Quinn, Thomas Smith.

ogether a little over four years.

Those Who Voted Illegally.

Emrys Brace, of William street, met Thomas C. Jones, of 118 South Everett avenue, died last evening at the family residence shortly after 7 o'clock, time he married her last year. death being due to heart failure. The teccased was a well known man on the West Side, where he has lived for many years. He was employed as a miner in on the ground of cruelty. the Briggs shaft up to about six or eight months ago, and was a momber of the Capouse Mine Accidental fund. He was familiarly known among his many acuaintances as "Tom Mettle" and had many pronounced traits of character which served to widen the circle of his friends. He was born in Abervale, Monmouthshire, Wales, ir 1836, and came to this country in 1862.

residing for a time on the West Side. Patrick Shea. Twelve years were spent by him in the west during the thirty-five years he of brief duration. The white tower has lived in America. He is survived that was condemned last year because by his wife and two grown sons, David of its unsafe condition, is undergoing and Thomas, and a brother, David, His repairs, and will scon be the popular brother lives in St. Louis, and the youngest son, David, resides in Illinois; attraction as it was before the entrance Thomas, the elder son, is in South was nailed up. At the base the wood-America. The funeral services will be en sills, which have been partially held at the home, probably on Wednesdecayed, are removed and are being day, and interment will be made in replaced by brick pillars capped with iron. When this structure is strength-Washburn Street cemetery.

ened it will be retouched with paint, Miss Mame E. Gaynor, daughter of so as to place it in becoming contrast Mrs. Mary Gaynor, and the late Pat-rick J. Gaynor, died Friday night at the with the prettily cultivated grounds immediately surrounding at its foot, family home, 520 North Lincoln ave-Besides the remodeling of the observanue, She had been ill for about a tory the rest of the grounds are being month with pneumonia to which her beautified and when the $1,000 yearly system was susceptible by reason of the enfecting after effect of a severe Andrew McDermott, William Moore, appropriation is expended upon the accessary improvements the park will attack of the grip. Up to the time of her iliness she had been in charge of Orders were received at Connell's the Keyser Valley branch office of the orks to commence operations on full Central Pennsylvania Tel-phone and time today. Each week brings with it Supply company, of which her brother, fresh rumors of operations at the South James L. Caynor, is a local superin-Scranton Steel mills, but as the followtendent. The deceased was twentying Monday appears the disappointfour years of age and was born in this Patrick Ferguson. city, having passed all her days in the The Elite Social club composed of a locality in which she died. She was ircle of prominent young ladies of the an estimable young lady, possessing Twentieth ward, will conduct a rose extended to May 15, 1897, on condition ocial in Callery's hall next Wednesday the finest qualities and having the happotitioners will call no witnesses of py faculty of making and retaining May 5, 6, 7, 8, 1897. friends. To her family her untimely William T. Jones and son, of Irving death is a most sad bereavement and to her legion of young friends it is a cause of sincere mourning. Those who emetery.

knew her best loved her most and to these intimate friends her death will e as that of a sister. Besides her ther, five brothers and five sisters

Mrs. Nora Hines, mother of School Controller Hines, of Pittston, died sudwas on her way to visit a neighbor, Mrs. John Walsh, when she was overcome by heart trouble and had to be

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick J. McLaughlin,

death of an infant child, who died yesterday morning. No funeral arrange

FOURTEEN IN A WEEK.

Last Week.

place this afternoon.

Locomotives, Stationary Engines, Boilers, HOISTING AND PUMPING MACHINERY. General Office: SCRANTON, PA. When in doubt what to use for Nervous Debility, Loss of Power, Impotency, Atrophy, Varicocele and C A QUA Dat SA opposite West Linden street, on North Main avenue, will soon be completed. The foundation walls for a three-story department store will then be laid. The plans for this building, which is being erected by Peter McCann, are in the hands of Feeney and Williams. The building will be constructed of veneered brick with a frontage of 50 [feet, depth of 100 feet, and a floor space of about 14,000 square feet. It will be of good architectural design and an adornment to the main thoroughfare of the West Side, All modern improve ments will be introduced and each department will be connected by wide arches. The front elevation will be relieved by unique show windows and sizes.

TALL

MEN

THIN

late home on Keyser avenue. The futo be held in Callery's hall on the evening of Tuesday next, has been indefineral cortege moved to Holy Rosary church where a high mass of requiem nitely restponed because of a misunderstanding among the managers, was celebrated. The floral offerings were many and beautiful. Those acted as pallbearers were: Patrick Ly-nett, Joseph Evans, William Judge, The funeral of Mary, the 2-year-old haughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Devine, Thomas Evans, Thomas Naughton and home on account of ill health. A young son of Mr. and Mrs. William Henry, of West Market street, is dangerously ill.

lieved by unique show windows and entrances. There will be one large mid- who has been attending the New York doubt the best for the money ever shown in Scranton. We've speculated a little on the tariff and bought an enormous lot. After the Dingley Bill passes you'll pay about half again as much. We have them not only in the regular sizes but also in extra long and short suits. Suits for thin folks and fat folks. Same price in all

$10.00

Clay Worsted Suits.

Can get his fit in this lot of Patrick Mullen. Burial was made in Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. James Bell, of Georgetown university, has been compelled to return

William and Thomas Evans returned

SHORT

MEN

Without

MEN

f Butler street, will be held this afernoon. The members of the various societies and organizations in town are requested to meet in Temperance hall, on Chestnut street, tomorrow evening to make arrangements for the observance of Decoration Day, By order of J. B. Mrs. Michael Boland, of Archbald. Hobday. The list of uncalled for letters re-nathing in the postoffice for the week St. Rose Novitiate, Carbondale, and on anding May 1, are as follows: Miss E. Barnes , William D. Beurick, James Caldwell, Mrs. Charles Cowell, Miss transferred to St. John's Parochial Annie Cunningham, Gertrude A. Deck-er, Mrs. Ira B. Gardner (2), James Gol-June 26, 1894. January 1, 1895, she relen, Mrs. Anna W. Hughes, Lizzie Maturned to Carbondale and took the goir, Mrs. —, 707 Madison avenue; F. J. Olver, Joseph Perry, Mrs. Hannah M. Price, F. S. Rinker, John D. Royle, final vows, after which she went to Laurel academy, where her last earthly work was performed. Her funeral John Schrader, Neilie Shuitz, Edward Stanley, Mrs. Swinder, Francis A. Swingle, Herman Mikias, Majk Guzy, will take place this morning at 10 o'clock from St. John's church, Susque hanna. Gores Kaputa, Anna Kurpita, Majk

The Forest band participated in the Polish demonstration in Duryca yester-

The proposed tournament, which was

DUNMORE.

Szverbinka, Pasquale Ciałe Ciardullo, Giuseppe Luongo. Mrs. A. L. Morris, of Grove street, s the guest of relatives in Reeders, Pa. J. S. Huber, of Philadelphia, has returned home after a short visit with Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Huber, of Quincy evenue.

The case against Street Car Conductor Daniels for obstructing a public rossing will be tried before Burgesa Burschell this evening. The Guild af St. Agnes, of St. Mark's church, will meet in the parish house tomorrow afternoon at 4 o'clock, A full attendance is desired.

ments have been made as yet. Mr. Mc-MINOOKA. Laughlin is the well known hotel pro-The Tuxedo Athletic club will conprietor of Scranton street. luct a boxing tournament at Callery's Miss Mary Henahan died Saturday hall on Tuesday evening., The star at the home of her parents, Mr. and attraction will be a 15-round bout be-Mrs. Thomas Hennhan, of 513 Emmet tween Faddy Burke, of Forty Fort, street. She was 22 years of age and and an individual from Plymouth, who was a very popular young woman. He is styled the "Luzerne Hurricane." Two death is greatly regretted. preliminaries of six rounds each will precede the principal "go," Burke and Howell are no novices at the business, An infant child of Mr. and Mrs. John and a lively bout may be expected. The continual downpour of rein prevented yesterday's game between the Minooka team and the West Side Browns.

visitor in town yesterday. The Golfs, a new social organization, which lately sprang into existence, held a meeting yesterday at the new hall and completed arrangements for their nesday evening. John McVarish, who left home some few weeks ago en route for the gold fields of South Africa, has returned aome

Children of W. W. Harris,

Park avenue the family of W. H. Harris have eked out some kind of an existence for many months past. The three children of the family, Gertie, aged 13; Jennie, 10, and Harry, 6, have been compelled to sleep in the stalls where the horses had been. Harris, the father of the family, is sted in the Scranton Florence missis survivo her. They are: John, Thomas, Saturday afternoon in Mrs. Thomas James L., Joseph, William and Misses Dickson's home on North Washington Margaret, Nellio, Winifred, Agnes ar. avonue, addresses were made by Miss Genevieve. The funeral will take place Decker and Miss Carver, the latter tomorrow morning at 9 o'clock. being matron of the local mission. high mass of requirem will be celebrated Mrs. W. S. Diehl presided. Mrs. A. at St. Patrics's church and interment E. Hunt offered prayer and Miss Deckwill be made in Hyde Park Cathelle er was introduced. She spoke at ength, giving a history of the Florence Crittenden missions since the first After a few days illness with pneumeeting in New York city until the monia Sister Mary Martin died Saturpresent time when forty .wo missions day at Laurel Hill academy, Susque are in operation. hana. Before entering the convent she Every mission has been named after was Miss Maggie Boland, daughter of Mr. Crittendon's dead little daughter. Florence. After Miss Decker had con-She was born in that borough April cluded. Miss Carver made a few re-6, 1868. On March 18, 1892, she entered marks pertaining chiefly to the local mission. She averred that besides the November 22, 1892 she received the thousands of saloons in the city of white veil. September 1, 1893, she was Scranton "there are $60 houses of prostitution." Mrs. Hackett afterward anschool, Pittston, where she taught until

TWO GENEROUS DONATIONS.

Contributed to Assist the Work of the Florence Mission.

the meeting of the ladies inter red today, and to which he so tenderly nounced that Mrs. Thomas Dickson referred at the conclusion of his serhad given $500 to the mission and a mon. Mr. Gibbons' address was an af-fectionate retrospect in language befitcheck for $50 had also been received from Mrs. Blackington. After a period ting his exalted calling. Particularly of informal discussion the meeting adnoticeable was his tender reference to journed. those surrounding him during his pas torate here, both as a man and the

THE SULTAN'S DAUGHTER.

Akerstrom Company Will Open Its Engagement by Producing It.

ate has been a happy and prosperous This afternoon Ullie Akerstrom and one, and made particularly so by thos denly at 3.39 Saturday afternoon. She her company will begin a week's ensommitted to his charge. In brief the gagement at the Frothingham by pro-ducing "The Sultan's Daughter." The past year has been redolent and inspiring. Mr. Gibbons observes that Boston Globe says of the performance: the year past has been a happy one carried to her home, where she expired soon afterwards. Mrs. Hines had been "A large part of Miss Akerstrom's In answer to our pastor we can with nagretism lies in her versatility. She equal force say that the year now more than forty years a resident is as clever and engaging as a souclosed has been fruitful of great good Pittston. The funeral will take prette as she is accomplished and and equally pleasant to those who have had the privilege of listening and charming as a dancer. 'The Sultan's Daughter' is a bright, clean comedy, full of laughs from start to finish, and 504 Scranton street, mourn the the theater-going public should seize the opportunity to witness one of the best comedies that has visited us this

The price of admission to the matines each day this week will be 10 cents. Evening prices 10, 20 and 30 cents. This evening the company will pro-duce "Miss Rora" when ladics will be admitted free.

OFFICERS ARE RE-ELECTED.

Annual Meeting of the Anthracite Coal Operators' Association,

Owens, of 354 North Rebecca avenue died last evening at the family resi-At the annual meeting of the An bracite Coal Operators' association held in New York city on April 26, the usual routine business was transacted. The standing committees reported progress, and there was an extended discussion over the present methods of handling the small sizes of coal, which prevent them from competing on fa-Nine more divorces were granted vorable terms with bituminous coal At this meeting the same board of managers which served last year was re-elected, and the same officers, ex-John Horn, of this city, was divorced cepting that C. D. Simpson, formerly ecretary and treasurer, resigned the from Matilda Horn, to whom he was married in Wilkes-Barre in February. secretaryship, and H. S. Fleming, for-1895. They lived together until April 6, 1895, when they parted. His grounds merly assistant secretary, was appointed secretary. for divorce was cruel and barbarous

An Indemnifying Bond Filed.

Sarah Hull, of Carbondale, was re-The Susquehanna Connecting Raiload company wants to enter upon leased from the bonds which bound land at Greenwood, the ownership of which it in dispute between the Winon Coal company and A. D. Dean, trustee, and Saturday filed an indemnifying bond in the sum of $500 to make good whatever damage is done by the taking of the land. It will remain for the court to say who sha" seceive dam-ine Pills. Drains checked full vigor quickly restored, neglected, such troubles result fatally, led for $1.00;6 boxes $5.00. With 0 orders we give a guarantee to VIGOR PEAL MEDICINE CO., Cleveland, O. For sale by JOHN M. PHELPS. Pharmacist, cor. Wyoming Avenue and Spruce Street, Scranton. Pa.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of in-terest will be published when accompa-nied, for publication, by the writer' name. The Tribune will not be held re-sponsible for opinions here expressed.]

Mr. Gibbons' Congratulated.

Sir-Permit me a brief space to ex-

pastor of the Presbyterian church.

It is pleasant for the members and congregation to know that his pastor-

oming under his spiritual guidance.

Further, that we voice the united sen

o him the sincere congratulation of he membership and congregation. Ir idding adleu to the past ne can safely

seceded with the kindest sentiment

esure him that his future labors ar

We say it and we know we are sup ported, that Mr. Gibbons' future i ull of promise, not made so, solely by these committed to his charge, but b those of the sister churches of this community who entertain for him the highest regard. Further, that the Presbyterians of this place recognize that they are to be congratulated in the advent of Mr. Gibbons here and hat his loss to the Presbyteriars of Forty Fort has been a gain to us of

Member of the Presbyterian church

A Boon to Catarrh Sufferers.

Eighty in every hundred bear th aint of this dread disease. Smail at is beginning but may prove a torture

for life if neglected. George Lewis,

Shamokin, Pa., says: "I am eighty years old; I have been a sufferer from catarrh for fifty years-Dr. Agnew'

Catarrhal Powder completely cured me. I look upon it as a miracle." It is delightful and safe to use. Sold by

CASTORIA

For Infants and Children.

Yours,

Frederick Hartnoll,

Dunmore.

day 2, 1897.

Matthews Bros.

nent of the church when we extend ditor of The Tribune.

AMUSEMENTS

THE FROTHINGHAM. One week commencing with mathee, Monday, April 3rd., the winsom actress, author and dancer, UILLIE AKERSTROM. UILLIE AKERSTROM, In her own original plays. Gus Bernard, propr. and manazer. Change of play each performance. All plays interspersed with numerous, eatchy specialities. A carload of special scenery, calcium and electrical effects. Monday mathnes. A most laughable comedy cutitled, "THE SULTAN'S DAUGHTER." Monday night. The beautiful American com edy: MISS 'RORA. PRICES-10, 20, 30c. 10c Matinee Daily 10c LADIES ADMITTED FREE Monday night, if accompanied by a person holding a pair go cent ticket. tend to the Rev. Mr. Gibbons my sin-cere congratulations upon his attaining his first anniversary as pastor of the Presbyterian church which occur-

FOR MEN ONLY. Seasonable Underwear

Light Weight Wool Merino, Balbriggan, Etc., CONRAD'S

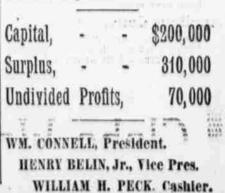

305 Lackawanna Avenus.

Special Attention Given to Business and Personal Accounts.

Liberal Accommodations Extended According to Balances and Responsibility.

3 Per Cent. Interest Allowed op Interest Deposits.

SLEPT IN HORSE-STALLS.

treatment. Seemingly Neglected Condition of the Living in a barn at 124 North Hyde her to her alleged husband, Richard Hull. They had been married sixteen

On the ground of desertion Annie E Miller was freed from the marital yoke which had bound her for thirteen years to Chester L. Miller. They came originally from Honesdale, but of late years she resided in this city.

dence. Funeral announcement will be made later. E. J. Milburger, of Pittston, was a Two a Day Is the Divorce Record for Saturday, making fourteen for the negligee social, which takes place Wedweek, a fairly good record, if the adjective good is permissible.