MARRIAGE MEASURE OFFERED IN HOUSE

Plan to Prevent the Wedding of Feeble-Minded People.

MR. LAWRENCE'S GROCERY BILL

House Considers the Measure Authorizing the Governor to Appoint Ladies' Auxiliaries to the Pennsylvania Commission to the Tennessee Exposition—Slim Senate Session.

Harrisburg, May 3.—A bill was introduced in the house this evening by Mr. McLaughlin, of Venango, to prevent the marriage of a person who from natural, as distinguished from accidental causes, shall be insane in the past or of a person who shall hereafter have been twice convicted of a felony, or of an insane or feeble minded person. The measure also provides that any person who shall knowingly assist in procuring or abetting such a marriage, including the parties to the marriage, shall be guilty of a misdemeanor and subject to six months imprisonment and $500 fine, both or either, at the discretion of the court.

Mr. Lawrence, of Beaver, presented a bill to authorize the attachment of wages and salary in cases where food has been furnished by a retail grocer and limiting the right of defendants and garnishee to claim the benefit of laws exempting property from levy and sale under execution. On motion of Mr. Dunlap, of Philadelphia, a bill amending the act to regulate and license public lodging houses in cities was recommitted to the judiciary general committee.

The house concurred in the bill authorizing the governor to appoint twenty ladies, not more than one from each county, as an auxiliary to the Pennsylvania commission of the Tennessee exposition.

Speaker Boyer appointed Messrs. Wilson, of Lancaster; Scott, of Philadelphia; Kunkle, of Dauphin; Simon, of Allegheny, and Singer, of Philadelphia, a committee to investigate the insurance scandal.

SOLDIERS' ORPHANS' SCHOOL

Thirty-first Annual Commencement to Be Held This Week. Special to the Scranton Tribune. Harford, May 3.—The thirty-first annual commencement of the Harford Soldiers' Orphans' school will be held at the academy on Thursday and Friday next, May 6 and 7.

MOVING TOWARD CHEAP FUEL

Silk and Tin Plate Mills for Monongahela Valley. Pittsburg, May 3.—Joseph Bamford, jr., of Bamford Bros. silk manufacturers, Paterson, N. J., has about decided to locate a new plant at Monongahela, in the Monongahela valley, owing to the cheapness of fuel. He will employ several hundred hands.

The National Tinplate company, of Anderson, Ind., where natural gas has been selected a site for a new plant, acres at Fortham, on the Monongahela river, and will there erect the largest tinplate plant in the world. W. H. Donner, president of the company, said today that he had contracted for two immense steel buildings, also for the machinery.

Stork Not a Candidate. The Ex-Congressman Refuses to Be the Democratic Party's Choice. Stroudsburg, May 3.—Ex-Congressman and ex-Judge John H. Storm, of Luzerne county, has declined to accept the nomination for auditor general. At a recent meeting of the state leaders Judge Storm was asked to stand for the nomination.

He supported Bryan last fall and threw the vote of the county to the Democratic candidate for congress, who was doomed up to the time Storm came out for him to overwhelming defeat. As it was Candidate Barger was defeated by less than 300 votes, which was due entirely to the loss of his own county.

EASTERN LEAGUE BASE BALL GAMES

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

The Washington club made itself liable today by having a game forfeited. The Senators were dallying for rain when Umpire Lynch declared the game forfeited to the Giants. Rain prevented games at Boston and Chicago.

Results. New York..... 0 Washington..... 0 (Forfeited). Cleveland..... 6 Cincinnati..... 3 Pittsburgh..... 7 Louisville..... 4 Baltimore..... 4 Brooklyn..... 4 (Eleven innings). Philadelphia at Boston, rain. St. Louis at Chicago, rain.

Percentage Record. Philadelphia..... P. W. L. P.C. Today's Games. Philadelphia at Boston. Baltimore at Brooklyn. St. Louis at Chicago. Cincinnati at Pittsburgh. Louisville at Pittsburg. New York at Washington.

PRAYING FOR RAIN.

Senators Were Too Slow About It to Satisfy Umpire Lynch. Washington, May 3.—It was a sore band of rosters who left the grounds after today's game. There were but two hundred of them. The field was very wet and the cold weather threatened rain, which finally came but not before Umpire Lynch had rightfully forfeited the game to New York.

Mercer, who is considered weak in the wet, was pounded for seven runs in the second inning. When it became apparent that the Giants had a good lead, the Senators endeavored to prolong the game so that the rain would become so heavy that five innings could not be finished. This was done in such a clumsy manner that Umpire Lynch forfeited the game. The game was terminated with only two men out in the last inning. The score: R.H.E. Washington..... 9 0 0 0 1 3 New York..... 1 7 1 9 3

Batteries—McFarland and Farrell; Seymour and Warner. Umpire—Lynch. Cleveland-Cincinnati. Cleveland, May 3.—Cleveland put up an almost faultless game today, the fact that Childs and McAlear were disabled and could not play. Score: R.H.E. Cleveland..... 2 10 0 2 1 1 Cincinnati..... 0 9 0 9 2 0 2 5 1

Batteries—Young, Zimmer, Irwin, Stein and Peitz. Umpires—McDonald and McDermott. Baltimore-Brooklyn. Brooklyn, May 3.—The regular season was opened at Brooklyn today, with one of the most closely played games of the season. Score: R.H.E. Brooklyn..... 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 0 6 3 12 5 Baltimore..... 0 0 0 0 2 0 1 0 6 3 7 3

Batteries—Payne and Grim; Corbett and Robinson. Umpire—Hurst. (Called on account of darkness). Pittsburg-Louisville. Pittsburg, Pa., May 3.—The home team opened the season here today successfully in every respect. Score: R.H.E. Pittsburg..... 0 3 0 2 1 0 0 8 7 10 1 Louisville..... 0 0 0 0 0 1 2 6 4 8 4

Batteries—Killen and Ryan; Fraser and Wilson. Umpire—Sheridan. ATLANTIC LEAGUE. Philadelphia, May 3.—The games scheduled for Newark at Philadelphia, Hartford at Reading and Paterson at Lancaster were all postponed on account of rain.

Norfolk-Richmond. Norfolk, Va., May 3.—Norfolk hit Lever today for twenty-five bases, including three home runs, and won hands down. Score: R.H.E. Norfolk..... 2 0 0 2 1 0 0 0 11 2 Richmond..... 0 0 0 0 1 0 2 0 3 5 5

Batteries—Pfaffmiller and Heydon; Lever, Schabel and Foster. PITCHER WHITE IN TROUBLE. Signed with Lancaster, but Accepted St. Louis Advance Money. Lancaster, Pa., May 3.—George P. White, formerly of the Philadelphia and Athletic clubs, who, after agreeing to pitch for the Lancaster team signed a contract with the St. Louis team of the National league, accepted advance money from Von der Ahe, and the dispute of whose cause he will be decided by the national arbitration board in favor of Lancaster, has written to the local club officials declining to play here. President Hensel has written to President Young asking him to enforce the rules in the case of White, who will thus be debarred from playing with any club under the protection of the National agreement.

Diamond Dust. Two games this afternoon. Boyd will catch the first game and Gushon the second. There are nine married men on the Louisville team. They are: Erden, Wilson, Clingman, Rogers, Fraser, McFarland, Holmes, Pickering and Cunningham. Walters' injured knee is more serious than was at first supposed. He cannot leave his bed on account of it and it will at least be several weeks before he is able to play.

There are so many broken wings in the New York aggregation that it reminds you of a live bird shoot when the pigeons fall beyond bounds," remarked Earl Wagner. The batsman who has such a dread of the ball as to shrink from the plate will never develop form in the batting line. Andrew Friedman has as high a regard for a dollar as an average pitcher has for his wing. It was Andy who inspired the expression, "Money to burn." He assessed Phil Wagner 50 cents to enter the Polo grounds, though Phil was employed to keep tab on one of the gates.

A driving park association has been organized at Jersey City, N. Y., and will build a track this spring. "Snapper" Garrison is hard at work at the driving park for the coming track work at Bath Beach, Long Island. Judge Austin 2.1% is considered able to guide him in imposing sentences directed to the Eastern penitentiary for a period of eleven years.

The case of Miller, Jordan and Shaffer, three men who have been in the county jail for the past two years, charged with complicity in the mountain murder, was called in court this morning, and the Judge allowed a nolle prosequi. The prisoners being discharged unconditionally. There was not sufficient evidence to warrant the district attorney bringing the case to trial. However, the discharged men are liable at any time to arrest, if new evidence against them should be found.

not clear.—Syracuse Standard. Barnton was willing to lose him because his head will be laid with him, no matter if his arm is the best in the business. Sir Richard has taken. President Young interprets the earnest run rule about like this: "Score earned runs as you always have. The rules don't count. Of course, you have to obey the rules, but I interpret them for you, and when the rules are nonsense the only way out is to interpret sense into them." All of which is quite true.—Ex.

The cause of the trouble that kept Ruste out of the game for 18 months was two fines of $100 each, imposed on the player during the season of 1885. The first fine was inflicted on a charge of dissipation at Baltimore while the New York team was playing in that city, and the second fine was imposed for alleged indifference on the part of the player during a game at the Polo grounds. He refused to stand for them, and as he is financially well-fixed it was not a matter of bread and butter with him whether he played ball or not.

Today, tomorrow and Wednesday Rochester will play Scranton, which promises to be one of the most formidable teams in the circuit this season. Syracuse dropped out of the circuit last season, but it will be strange if Rochester does not do at least as well as Wilkes-Barre. The best of the Scranton I interpret this season is drawn from Rochester teams of former years, Ollie Beard, Jim Daly, Frank Royl, Jack O'Brien, George Harper and Tommy Gillon are some of them, and "Sandy" Griffin, the manager, is an old Rochester player.—Rochester Herald.

That previous spider with the Billingsgate parts speech, Jesse Burket, who was ordered to exit from the field by Umpire Sandy McDermott in one of the Louisville-Brooklyn games, thought he was up against another dough-eater, but he was not. He is a good deal better, but Sandy, who has a strain of scrappy blood, will be a hard nut to crack. From any of the blue-tongued exhorters—Tebeau, Joyce, O'Connor, or the best, McDermott is one of the pickiest umpires that handles the indicator, and he ought to prove one of President Young's most valuable umpires.

PICTURES ARE PERFECT. Dan Stuart Has Sent the Kinetoscope Films of the Big Fight to Congress to Be Copyrighted. New York, May 3.—The sporting public will be glad to learn that the kinetoscope pictures of the Fitzsimmons-Corbett fight are nearly ready to be put upon exhibition. Dan Stuart has a force of experts at work making the films in the second lining. FRESH BOXING GOSSIP. Sharkey, the Sailor Champion, Makes a Broad Claim—How Muldoon Sees a Fluke.

At a recent boxing entertainment in New York city Tom Sharkey, the sailor champion, was invited to enter the ring and show himself to the spectators. Sharkey, "obliged," and also volunteered a short speech as follows: "Gentlemen, I am here to meet Mr. Maher, which I consider, is the next best man in the world."

Then Mr. Sharkey bowed and retired with a satisfactory smile on his face. "Peter Maher sat in a box near the ring, and he was asked by Sharkey what he thought of the "next best man in the world."

"Oh," said Peter, "he means that I am the next best man to Fitzsimmons. This was a rational explanation, but the extremely lofty manner of the sailor left the matter in doubt, and he was appealed to for a solution of the problem. In reply to a direct query he said:

"Why, I mean that Maher was the next best man to me. I'm the best man in the world? Didn't I have a draw with Corbett and get the decision over Fitzsimmons? None of them have defeated me."

And the "best man in the world" looked about with an expression which seemed to say: "Who can deny it?" Sharkey may be all that he claims, but the followers of the squared circle events are almost unanimous in the opinion that the Maher-Sharkey bout has ended the most thoroughly trounced sailor in America will climb through the ropes. There is no question that Maher's hitting ability is not exceeded by that of any pugilist in America, and Sharkey's impulsive tactics will be particularly agreeable to the Irish champion. It can be depended on that the bout will not be allowed to drift into a wrestling match, and Sharkey will not get a decision of foul unless he is entitled to it.

William Muldoon, referee of the Fifth Avenue Athletic club, handles intricate boxers without gloves. The instant that he, in his opinion, the contestants are not putting forth their best efforts he stops the bout and publicly accuses the men of "faking." He branded a recent bout between Willie John and Sam Egan as a "fake," and on another occasion he stopped the Doherty-Hagerstrom bout in the second round, declaring it "no contest" and stated that the boxers were attempting to fool the public. The fake was so well executed that the spectators were deceived, but Muldoon was not. It was afterward learned that Hagerstrom and Doherty trained together, and acted as seconds for each other. Some referees hesitate to stop a bout for fear of displeasing the spectators, but if more of Muldoon's firmness was shown fakes would be fewer.

Recent deaths in the ring seem to indicate that club physicians are not doing their duty. It is not at all unlikely that the club at Athens, Pa., when Vernon met his death, had no physician, and this serves as further warning against permitting any club to hold bouts without a thorough medical examination of contestants.

WILKES-BARRE COURT NEWS. Port Griffith Murderer Pleads Guilty and Gets Eleven Years. Wilkes-Barre, May 3.—John Cononath, the young Pole who, during a dance and beer drinking time in a Polish boarding house in Port Griffith one night last winter, stabbed an innocent young Pole to death with a butcher knife, was called in court this afternoon for trial on the charge of murder. The prisoner, before a jury was called, pleaded guilty, and Judge Bennett, after examining a few witnesses, guided him in imposing sentence, directed that Cononath should be sent to the Eastern penitentiary for a period of eleven years.
