DUNMORE.

The Electric Hose company celebrated the fourth anniversary of its organization last evening. The gloomy weather did not mar the evening's enjoyment, but instead greatly increased it, and not until the wee hours of the morning had set in, did the laughter and merriment die away. Dancing, feasting and speech-making all were indulged in, and when it was all over, each one of the members declared that the affair was simply "ausgeseichnet." Frank C. DeBow, of Grove street, has left for Louisville, Ky., where he will represent the Dunmore Order of Hepta-

The Chief Tells All About It. Editor of The Tribune.

Editor of The Tribune.

Sir: Your article of last Friday and yesterday do the mayor, myself and the police force of the city of Scranton much injustice. The facts of the Washington Davis case, stated briefly and without malice, are as follows: The charge against Washington Davis was one of drunk and fighting. He was arrested at 4 a. m. Thursday morning, and was taken to the station house. He walked all the way and did not complain either of the way and did not complain either of screness or lameness. He did not make complaint to either night or day desk sergeants before the time of hearing. Then be did complain. The mayor fined him $3 and he was taken back to his cell. Frevious to this time Desk Sergeant Ridg-way procured his breakfast. Shortly af-ter the hearing, at 11.15, Sergeant Ridg-way telephoned for Dr. Fulton, the police surgeon, and he called about 2.30 p. m. surgeon, and he called about 2.39 b. m. When the doctor examined Davis he pronounced the injury to be due to a sprain at the knee joint, and bandaged it. When he was received at the Lackawanna hospital opiates were administered to him to ward off a possible attack of delirium tremens. elirium tremens.

The following are the statements of othrs who are connected with the case. I trust that The Tribune, in justice to all concerned, will give this the same prominence which it accorded the previous statements in this case.

Yours respectfully, Frank Robling, Jr., Chief of Police, On the morning of April 29, at 4 a. m. stood at the corner of Penn avenue and Spruce street, when I saw some one put Washington Davis out of Lohmann's res-taurant. He was talking loud and using profane language. When the other man that was also arrested, tried to quiet him, he, the above Davis, assaulted him with his cane, breaking it in two by striking him across the face. This was the first blow struck; then this man struck Davis a blow with his fist; that all hap pened in less than thirty seconds.

Officer Hezekiah Peters.

Officer Hezekiah Peters.

I went on duty at 5 o'clock a. m. April

29. At 5.15 a. m. I had a talk with Washington Davis. He told me he had been drinking and would like to have something to eat. As soon as Mitchell's dining room opened I procured him his breakfast which I wild for He never made fast, which I paid for. He never made any complaint to me about his leg until 11.15 a. m., just before police court, and I immediately telephoned to Dr. Fultor, who was not in at the time, but was in-formed that he would call as soon as pos-sible. The doctor called at 2.30 p. m.

Sergeant Charles Ridgway.
On Thursday last I was called to the police station to see Washington Davis who was complaining, the officer stated who was complaining, the while I reaches of a painful injury of the knee. I reaches the station about 2.20 p. m. and form that Mr. Davis had an injury of the knee the exact nature of which I could not then determine on account of swelling but thought it a sprain. I bandaged the leg and made the patient as comfortable as possible. I did not send him to the hospital at once, as I did not consider him sufficiently recovered from the influence of liquor to be admitted. The Lackawanna hospital will not admit patients under the influence of liquor. Mr. Davis was removed to the hospital about 10 o'clock Thursday evening.

W. G. Fulton.

(Secretary J. G. Eisele, of the board of lirectors of the Lackawanna hospital, stated last night to a representative of this paper that intoxication is no bar to admission to the hospital. Patients will not be received for treatment for drunkenness, but no injured person is denied admission to the hospital because of his being under the influence of liquor.—Ed.]
