Caught While Herding in Colorado

Clung to Him While a Commercial Traveler in the Middle West, Notwithstanding all Efforts to Get Rid of it. Het Springs of Arkansas, of no wall.

From the Chronicle, Chicago, Et.

Mr. William Clement, of Freeport, Illinois, is a well-known commercial traveler, and represents the large Chicago house of Reed, Welsh & Lange. In his early life Mr. Clement migrated to the breezy west and became a cowboy in Colorado. After doing as much at cow punching as he desired, he turned his attention to mining, the exposure from which and his life on the piains undermined a once strong constitution, and rheumanism, liver and hidney trouble and dropsy made their unwelcome appearance.

The Hot Springs of Arkansas were visited in the hope of relief, but he was disappointed, and so he took up his residence in Illinois, and obtained employment as a drummer for a large house in Chicago that has long since gone out of business. Physiciaus were consulted both at home and while on the road, with only pecuniary benefit to the doctors, for Mr. Clement grew worse instead of better, and constantly had to lay up for weeks at a time.

It was then that the sufferer conceived the idea of trying Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for porter, "that fifty cents would not be much expenditure, so I bought a box of the pills and began taking them according to directions.

"I thought," Mr. Clement said to the reporter, "that fifty cents would not be much expenditure, so I bought a box of the pills and began taking them according to directions.

"I did not have many days to wait before them and with the treatment. Pirst my kidneys began to do their work thorough."

Senate bill to enable tax collectors to offect taxes for the payment of which hey have become personally liable or for which they shall during the year 1897 become personally liable, without having collected the same by expiration of the authority of their warrants or by expiration of their term of office and to extend the time for collections for one year from the passage of the act, passed finally, Mr. Gould, of Erie, called up postponed bill allowing liquor dealers and their employes to testify against minors in cases where the former have been prosecuted for selling liquor to such persons. The measure passed finally, and was messaged to the senate. Mr. Mansfield, of Beaver, presented a bill appropriating $3,500 to pay the deficiency in the compensation and exforeman and mine boss.

The first section of the bill placing bake shops under the control of the factory inspectors' department, and preventing labor on Sunday, except the aying of "sponges," was read and then the bill was laid aside for further consideration. Bills amending the act of June 18, 1895, providing that all principals of other persons in charge of schools are rquired to refuse the admission of any child, except upon a certificate signed by a physician setting forth that such child has been successfully vaccinated; prohibiting the adulteration of malt and brewed liquors passed finally.

LIBEL BILL PASSED. The libel bill framed by the Pennsylvania State Editorial association came up for third reading near the close of the afternoon session and much time was given up to its consideration. On motion of Mr. McElhanny, of Allegheny, the house went into committee pany's telephones. Mr. Martin also de- of the whole for general amendment. Mr. Smith, of Jefferson, who had the measure in charge, had inserted an amendment to correct the phraseology after which the committee rose and the report was adopted. Mr. Smith then mittee except that after he had been secured unanimous consent to strike out section three, which provides that in trials of indictment for libel the commonwealth shall not be at liberty to stand aside jurors. The bill was then taken up for third reading, as amended, and passed this stage by a vote of 76 to 61. It was then laid aside for printing.

Rheumatism Cured in 24 Hours.

T. J. Blackmore, of Haller & Blacknore, Pittsburgh, Pa., says: "A short time since I procured a bottle of 'MYS-TIC CURE.' It got me out of the house in twenty-four hours. I took to my bed with Rheumatism nine months ago and the 'MYSTIC CURE' is the only medi-cine that did me any good. I had five of the best physicians in the city, but I received very little relief from them. I know the 'MYSTIC CURE' to be what it is represented and take pleasure in recommending it to other poor sufferers. Sold by Carl Lorenz, druggist, 418 Luckawanna ave., Scranton.
