SCRANTON AND BUFFALO LOSE

And So the Two Clubs Remain Tied in First Place--Providence Required Eleven Innings to Defeat the Bisons--Springfield Takes Fourth Place Away from Wilkes-Barre--Toronto Receives Its Sixth Defeat.

The superior work of Rochester's pitcher, Herndon, defeated the Scrantons yesterday but in their fall they are accompanied by Buffalo and so the two clubs continue tied in first place. Toronto at Springfield received its sixth straight defeat which permits the ponies to take fourth place away from the Wilkes-Barres, who lost to Syracuse. Today there is a shift in the schedule.

COULDN'T HIT HERNDON.

That Was the Chief Cause of Scranton's Downfall Before Rochester Yesterday.

Scranton's first defeat out of five games played was experienced yesterday. Herndon, the Rochester pitcher, was the cause of it, and thereby hangs an example of one of the peculiarities of the national game. Last year when Herndon was with Buffalo, if the Miners were not hitting him freely, they had him so high in the air that he finished his games under protest. Yesterday, with poor support around him to begin with, he preserved his equilibrium and gave but four hits to what is believed to be the heaviest hitting team in the league. After the fourth inning he gave but one hit and a base on balls and had two strike-outs.

Good outfield work. "Pop" Lytle, the Wilkes-Barre veteran of many a hard campaign, appeared in right field for Rochester, Lynch going to left and Bottgens to center. Richter played Mulvey's position at third. Mulvey having been called to Providence by the death of his mother. Both Lynch and Lytle fielded in brilliant style. Rochester's infielders had but little opportunity to show their paces in the field, but each of the team got a slice of Gillon, the younger Shannon excepted.

The home team got an early lead of two runs on one error each by Lynch and Richter and an outfield fly to the first, and in the third Boyd's two-bagger and Patterson's wild throw to first of a ball batted in front of the plate by Gillon. The final run was earned in the fourth on Daly's single, Beard's two-bagger and Massey's fly to center. The Rochester merriest began in the last of the fourth, when three runs came in on a double, single, hit-by-pitcher, another single and Massey's missed grounder. Three more runs were added in the fifth on a base on balls, three singles with Eagan's error sandwiched in, an outfield fly and a single. The final Rochester tally was earned in the sixth on Lynch's triple drive to the corner of the right field fence and a single.
