WEDDINGS AND RECEPTIONS.

Davis-Simpson.

On Wednesday evening Miss Grace E. Simpson was united in marriage to Richard L. Davis at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Cordner, of Tenth avenue. Rev. Frederick Ehringer, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, officiated. Miss Isabelle Davis, the groom's sister, was maid of honor, and William Richards the best man. The bride was dressed in a very becoming drab gown with velvet trimmings, and her maid also in brown with green silk trimmings. A large number of guests were present and at the reception extended congrat-

O'Brien-Hogan.

At St. Rose church, on Wednesday afternoon, Miss Kate Hogan and Thos. E. O'Brien were joined in holy matrimony by Rev. W. A. Nealon. The bride was attended by a sister of the bridegroom. Miss Mame O'Brien, and John Melvin was the best man. A large number of friends were present and witnessed the impressive ceremony. The bride and her maid of honor were dressed in handsome gowns with pearl and lace trimmings and hats to match. A wedding supper and reception was given to the immediate friends of the families at the home of the bride's brother, John Hogan, of South Washington street. A serenade was given in the evening by the acquaintances of the popular young people. Mr. and Mrs. O'Brien will begin housekeeping at their new home on Salem avenue where their friends will offer congratulations.

At Rest.

The remains of James H. Campbell, who died in a hospital at Cincinnati, and the funeral was largely attended Rev. Charles D. Fitchett conducted the services. A quartette consisting of Mrs. Hannah Leonard, Miss Edith Lewis, George Moon and David Lewis. rendered the music. A beautiful day, wreath of flowers, presented by his Sunday school class, was laid upon the grave. The pall-bearers were Dwight Campbell, Henry Fluctien, Robert Benson, John Benson, Francis Masters and William McCann. flower bearers were William and Joseph Isgar.

operation for appendicitis and for some time appeared to recover his strength. But on Easter Sunday he complained of severe pains in his left leg. He continued to grow worse and treatment was given him, which, however, only afforded temporary relief. Wednesday morning an operation was performed to save his life, but the disease had progressed too far, and the result was blood poisoning. Harry was a regular attendant at the Baptist Sunday school, He was also a promising publi at Wood's Business college, where he would have graduated with honors in June. His death is mourned by many friends, and the parents have the sympathy of the ommunity.

A Pleasant Surprise Party.

Miss Sarah Phillips, of South Church treet, was pleasantly surprised at her home on Wednesday evening. A number of her friends assembled to congratulate her upon her birthday. A very pleasant social gathering was enjoyed. Among the guests were Mesdames Thomas Morgan, George Davis, Lewis Correll, Frank E. Morgan, Anna Herberts, Henry Gramer, Oscar Morgan and Charles Smith; Misses Mary Phillips, Lizzie Price, Maggie Pearey, Alice Price and Lulu Phillips, Important Transfer of Business.

Contractor William Kinback, who has several building under erection, has placed his business in the hands of T. C. Rebinson, to whom he was in debt for lumber. It is thought that the business will be arranged in a satisfactory manner so that the men will be at work again in a few days. Mr. Robinson has rented the factory on South Main street, with the machinery, and the work will be carried on under his direction.

Residences Erected at Reynshanhurst

A very attractive portion of the city has been lately improved by the erection of four handsome residences at Reynshanhurst. The property owners are Mrs. Olive Treverton, Charles Lowden, Winton Carey and Jesse Rounds. Two others are under construction by Mr. Frederici and A. H.

JERMYN.

The case of Mrs. A. L. McLaughlin vs. the Rushbrook Water company, was adjourned to meet at the arbitratiln room in the court house at Scranton, on Thursday, May 13, and not May 20, as stated in these columns yesterday.

Last evening at 8 o'clock in St James' Episcopal church Rev. C. E. Fessenden spoke the words that united for life Andrew Clarkson, of Archbald and Miss Isabelle Nicholson, one of Jermyn's popular young ladies. The bride was attended by Miss Kate Herney, and the grooman was James H. Nicholson, a brother of the bride, A large number were in the church to see the pretty service, which made the couple one. After the ceremony the party was driven to the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Nicholson, on South Main street, and a weddin supper and reception was participated in by the immediate fami-
