At 2 o'clock tomorrow afternoon and at 7.30 tomorrow evening Rev. Dr. Bird will speak in Fuller's hall on Lackawanna avenue. His afternoon subject will be "The Times We Live In," and in the evening he will speak on "The Right Gospel for the Times." Dr. Bird says: "This will be the initial preaching growing out of the late prohibition conference held in this city. There will be service every Sabbath for several weeks if enough of people can be found who believe in a gospel without adulteration and preaching without fear, favor or compromise to support it. There is no intention to antagonize the churches of the city or the members who belong to them, but to provide a church home for the people who believe that a ballot box sin is as great as any other sin and vill not knowingly be a party to the legalized crimes of the day."

The Men's guild of St. Luke's Episcopal church is employing a force of workmen on the Guild's summer home for convalescents near Cresco and it will be opened in about three weeks. The home was the summer mansion of Loring Andrews. Several acres are attached to the property. For the purposes of the guild it has not been found necessary to make very extentive changes in the building. During the hot summer months the home will be occupied by poor, sick, weary or convalescent women and children.

The tenth anniversary of the pastorate of Rev. D. P. Jones, of the Welsh Tabernacle church of the West Side, was celebrated Thursday evening. The pastor and his wife were presented a handsome china tea set and a set of silver knives, forks and spoons. An entertainment programme was rendered by the younger members under the direction of Hugh Jones, Richard E. Thomas was chairman.

The Primitive Methodist state conference has been in session nearly all the week in the Primitive Methodist church on East Market street and will probably not adjourn until some time furing next Wednesday. On Thursday the following were elected officers: President, Rev. W. H. Acornly, Wilkes-Barre, Pa.; vice president, Hon. Robert Dudley, Irwin, Pa.; recording secretary, Rev. H. J. Buckingham, New Castle, Pa.; general secretary, Rev. J. Bath, Plymouth; Rev. J. Bath succeeds himself as general secretary. The newly elected vice president, Hon. Robert Dudley, of Irwin, is an ex-member of the state legislature. He attends the conference as lay delegate of the Irwin First church.

At the Rescue mission next week, meetings will be conducted by the fol-lowing: Monday evening, May 10, Miss Weir; Tuesday evening, May 11, Mrs. L. M. Gates: Thursday evening. A tangled garden, bleak and dry, And silent 'neath a dark'ning sky, Is all that barren Age retains Of costly Youth's superb domains, Mute in its bosoms, cold and lone, A dial watches, on a stone; The vines are sere, the haggard boughs In dusky torpor dream and drowse; The raths are deep with yellow leaves, In which the wind of evening grieves; And up and down, and to and fre One pale gray shadow wanders slow,

When now the fading sunset gleams Across a glim'ring waste of dreams When now the shadows eastward fall, And twilight hears the curlew's call; When blighted now the lily shows, And no more bloom is on the rose; What phantom of the dying day Shall gild the wanderer's sombre way-What new illusion of delight— What magic, ushering in the night? For, deep beneath the proudest will, The heart must have its solace still,

HI. Ah, many a hope too sweet to last Is in that garden of the Past, And many a flower that once was fair Lies cold and dead and wither'd there;

Fame's laurel, Love's enraptured kiss, Heauty and strength—the spirit's wings. And the glad sense of natural things, And times that smile, and times that weepAll shrouded in the cells of sleep;

MUSICAL NOTES.

Monday evening at the Frothingham the Fannie Mendelssohn ladies' choir, as sisted by the renowned harpist, Maude Morgan, and the fascinating prima donna, Mile. Alice Veriet, will appear in grand concert. Miss Morgan is the leading lady harpist of the world, and is well known to our people, having appeared here on prevous occasions. She is a charming wedding trip was signalized by a re-ception given in their honor Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Fowler Morgan, organist of the Brooklyn Taberat their home on Cherry street, Dun-more. The rooms were prettily dec-orated with flowers. Music was furn-as to which was the greater attraction, ished by Bauer. Over a hundred the eloquent divine or the incomparable rganist. Miss Verlet is one of the charming singers. The timbre of her voice ic said to be full of charm, warm, Higgins and Miss Ella Lloyd presided at the tables, and were assisted by Misses Marie Bronson, Edith Knight, attractions we predict a crowded house.

Tuesday, at the Frothingham, the Robert Morris lodge will hold their annual eis-teddfod. The competitions in the principal selections will be of a higher standard Rev. F. W. Davis at the home of the and much more exacting than on former bride's mother, Mrs. Eleanor raillips, occasions. Better material constitute the various choirs and more time and care have been given to training. The famous quariette in the principal selection, "Teyrnasced y Duaear," will be one of the finest efforts of the contest, which will be participated in by some of the best commarriage of Miss Grace E. Simpson and Richard L. Davis at the home of the cisteddfed. Llew Herbert, John Jones, Philip Warren, bassos; Edwin Bowen, John Johns, David Stephens, tenors; Mrs. Brundage, Mrs. Lewis and Mrs. Beck, Mrs. Boston-Williams, and Miss Maggie Jones, who are noted for melodi-Lutheran church, officiated. The bridesmaid was Miss Isabelle Davis, the groom's sister, and William Richards attended the groom.

**Brundage and Mrs. Lewis and Miss Irene Kahren will contest for honors on the soprano solo. From an artistic standpoint, the Robert Morris lodge eisteddfod will surpass all former efforts. Thursday night at the Frothingham the Symphony concert will be the attraction. The fine concerts that have already been given by the society is assurance enough that this one will be of the same-high Wex ome at all services.

Mr. Willis Howe Warmly Endorses Paine's Celery Compound.

in the world, and is one of the great institutions of Chicago.

Mr. Willis Howe, the well-known superintendent of the Palmer House, writes the following letter: Wells, Richardson & Co., Burlington Vt.-Gentlemen: It is with a feeling of sincere gratitude that I write you this letter. I was seriously sick with fever, and after passing the dangerous stage began taking Paine's celery compound. At this writing I am in excellent health, and in fact never felt better. I attribute this to the use of Paine's celery compound. Hoping others will find that Paine's celery compound will tired, wornout men, weary women and make them as well as it did me, I am to sickly children. For those diseases mest gratefully yours,

Chicago, Jan. 14, 1897. Willis Howe, Repeated and astonishing success in making people well has lifted Paine's celery compound to the admiration of the world as the surest and wisest means of invigorating a "rundown,"

The Palmer House, Chicago, needs no | selves reasonably well teformed in the introduction to readers in America or world's progress, retuse to be martyrs Europe. It is one of the largest hotels to such well understood troubles as sleeplessness, rheumatism, neuralgia or kidney diseases. Paine's celery com-pound is used with perfect assurance in those households where only an intelligent, authentic remedy can get any consideration. As a spring remedy nothing compares with it.

As physicians are all the time saving: The pain over the kidneys, headaches and the misery of nervous debility should be met by Paine's celery compound. Its invigorating action is at once felt by the irritated, worn-out nerves and brain. It makes new blood, It brings fresh strength and vigor to which are the result of weakened nerves, such as dyspepsia, headaches, neuralgia and heart disease, Paine's celery compound is the only logical, permanent cure. It feeds the wasted nerve tissues and regulates their action. It tones up the entire digestive tract and encourages the body to take on Since the discovery of this great rem- flesh and to increase the volume of pure blood in the arteries and veins

Brooklyn never had such a successful teacher. He has three large classes at the Twenty-third Street Young Men's Christian association, New York, besides many private classes. He is the director of music at the Washington Square Methodist Episcopal church, where he has a fine chorus of forty voices. He is the con-ductor of Walter Damrosch's Ocean Grove Festival chorus; conductor of the New York Gounod Choral society, Mr. DR. J. S. BEHM, he is engaged at Ocean Grove getting ready the oratorios for the summer featival. Berlioz's "The Trojans at Carthage" was recently given for the first time in England by the Liverpool Philharmonic ociety, but it did not awaken great enthu-
