MINER KING KILLED.

He Thought a Charge of Powder He Touched Off Was Not Going to Explode, but It Did.

Martin M. King, jr., of 121 Merrifield avenue, was so severely injured yes-terday morning in the Briggs shaft died shortly after being brought to the surface. He was the victim of a sibw blast. The fuse had been lighted for a blast, but did not fire within the expected time, and Mr. King, after waiting, went back to 'pull" it. As he neared the fuse the charge exploded, and the coal was hurled against him, cutting his face, neck and chest. Death was due to hemorrhages.

King was a young man, unmarried, resides with his mother, Mrs. Martin M. King, and two sisters. He was the only support of the family. One of his sisters is at present in Binghamton and she was immediately sent for. No arrangements have been made for the funeral.

FELL FROM A TROLLEY CAR.

Michael E. Hughes Received Very Severe Injuries.

Michael E. Hughes, of 130 South Filmore avenue, was badly injured last evening about 9.40 by falling from a moving street car. The accident happened on North Main avenue, just opposite Dr. F. C. Hall's, and was due to Hughes' standing on the rear platform

He had been drinking and the motion of the car may have caused him to lose his balance, thus throwing him to the pavement. He was removed to the West Side hospital and Dr. W. A. Paine examined him.

It was found that Hughes has a broken collar bone on the right side and a badly cut face near the left Hughes was afterwards removed to his home, his wounds having been bandaged.

BELLEVUE PEOPLE AT LAW.

Two families, residing in Bellevue, have become so far estranged as to go to law, Two brothers, John S. and Thomas J. Jones, quarreled this week and last evening John S. had Thomas J. arrested and brought before Alderman Moses for threatening to "disembowel" him at the first opportunity. It seems that a dividing fence between the two properties of the men is the source of the trouble. John S. Jones resides on Archbald street, corner of J. resides in the rear of John on Storr's Thomas J. Jones built the disagreement. Thomas was held in $300 bail for his appearance in court, John T. Jones, of South Main avenue, became his bondsman. John R. Jones, son of Thomas J. Jones, was also brought before the alderman for threatening to show how a "trigger could be pulled" and that if William, son of John S. Jones should attempt to remove the fence that he (John R.) would make it a "funeral and hanging affair" of it. John R. Jones was held in $200 bail to answer at court. Another case which grew out of the original trouble will be the charge of as-sault and battery against Mrs. Lucy wife of Thomas J. Jones and Mrs. Mary Jane Richards, daughter of said Thomas. John S. Jones charges these women with hurling stones at him to the intury of his head, face, back and arms. Mr. Jones fears serious bodily injury and takes this step as a means of personal safety. Mrs. Jones is very ill and was unable to appear for a hearing last evening.

OBITUARY.

Anthony Battle, an ex-mayor, and ormerly a prominent citizen of Carondale, died Thursday afternoon at Danville. She left immediately for Danville and reached there a short time before Mr. Battle passed away. Mr. Battle had been an inmate of the asylum over nine years. The cause of his trouble was due to a fright which he received in December, 1883, when three masked men broke into his house which was connected with his store, and after beating Mr. Battle and obliging him to open the safe, tied Mr. and Mrs. Battle to the stove and left, carrying with them over $2,000. MULBERRY STREET PAVE.

Work Will Be Commenced the Latter

Part of Next Week. Quinlan, manager of the Columbia Construction company of Syracuse, with the company's foreman, George W. Lamson, was in the city vesterday arranging the preliminaries for the work of paving Mulberry He stated that his company expects to begin its contract the latter part of next week. Yesterday was spent in completing negotiations for stone, sand and cement and in the hiring of help. He also visited two or three places which have been offered as available sites for their plant. He had not made up his mind which he would select, but will do so early in the week. It is the purpose of the company to erect a permanent plant here, as it expects to do the biggest share of the asphalting that will be done in this locality hereafter. The laying of the asphalt proper cannot be done until ten days after the concrete is down, so it can be seen there will need be no delay because of the plant not being ready. The company has a portable plant, but as there is plenty of time to erect one here, and it is desirous of establishing here a permanent plant, the portable one will not be brought into

The manner of carrying on the work will be left to the discretion of City Engineer Phillips. It is likely, Mr. Quinlan says, that work will be begun at both ends of the street simultaneously. The company is willing to put on as many hands as can be worked advantageously.

FAKIR COMES TO GRIEF.

Not Quite as Sharp as His Stock in Trade, Chenp Razers.

Patrolman Martin Gurrell yesterday licked up a dapper youth who was going about the West Side offering razors at surprisingly low prices. The razors bore the brand of a well known Sheffield firm, whose razors are listed at $3 and $4 apiece. This fellow was offering them for 50 cents.

His scheme was to go into a saloon and after telling a hard luck story about being a barber on his uppers produce a razor and ask for a bid on If he could not get anybody to make an offer he would make a figure himself, sometimes putting the pric down as low as 50 cents.

When examined at he central police station thirteen razors, all new, were found on his person. He said he was not guilty of stealing but admitted that the razors were not what they eemed to be and that 50 cents was al and more than they were worth. He was held on the charge of selling without a license, that a further investigation of his case might be made.
