THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-TUESDAY MORNING, MAY 11, 1897.

NORTHEASTERN PENNSYLVANIA

Commencement exercises of the Susquehanna public schools will be held on June 25

Mrs. S. W. Shaffer, of Plymouth, fell head foremost down a flight of stairs. and was terribly wrenched and bruised. A Wilkes-Barre railroad man is quoted as saying that since last fall over 1,000 people, principally Foles and Huns, have left these parts. The Daughters of Pocahontas, of Halistend, will realize about $100 from the production of their play, "The Danger Signal." The benefit entertainment given by the Wyoming Valley Commercial Travelers' association for the poor of Wilkes-Barre netted $159.

The Reading Railroad company will hereafter run only perishable freight on Sunday. No coal or other freight will be moved on Sunday.

C. B. Patterson, of Pittston, has been authorized by the trustees of the Susquehanna Presbyterian church to proceed and furnish plans for the new church edifice.

The West Pittston school board has sent circulars to a number of archifects inviting drawings for the new school building to be erected on Excter street. The proposed building is to be a two-story brick.

A change took effect yesterday morn ing in the schedule on the Pittston line of Wilkes-Barre and Wyoming Valley Traction company. One car has been taken off, saving the company the wages of three men. Williams & Son, of Wilkes-Barre. have secured the contract for sinking a glope in No. 4 colliery of the Susquehanna Coal company at Nanticoke. will be 500 feet long from the Baltimore to the Hollenback vein.

St. Leo's Catholic church at Ashley will be dedicated on Sunday, June 6. It will be an important event, as Monsignor Martinelli will in all probability present. This is the church over which Bishop Hoban presides.

James Sullivan, an employe of the Erie shop at Susquehanna was quite hadly injured by failing from his bicycle. He was carried in an unconscious condition to French's drug store where he received medical treatmnt. Henry Upham disappeared from Laporte on April 30, and no trace has since been seen of him. Searching parties are scouring all parts of Sullivan county in quest of the missing man. It is believed that he met with foul play. The Duryea borough project is dead-at least for the present. At a recent meeting of citizens the committee appointed at a previous meeting to investigate public feeling on the subject, reported that in its opinion the township was not yet ready for the change,

The next meeting of the Bradford county teachers' association will be held at Troy, Friday and Saturday, May 14 and 15. Hon, Emerson Collins, of Williamsport, will deliver his famous lecture on Alexander Hamilton before the association Friday evening. The Grace Lutheran church at East Stroudsburg was dedicated Sunday with imposing ceremonies. The Rev. D. F. Apple had charge of the services and was assisted by Rev. W. A. Schaffer, of Philadelphia, Rev. Mr. Heilig and the various pustors of the The Veteran association of Luzerne county will hold a reunion at Houghton Opera house. Luzerne borough, on June 16. The last reunion was held at Shickshinny June 13, when there were 300 present. The president is J. C. Turner, of Luzerne; vice president, George Engle, of Luzerne; secretary, Nathaniel Van Arsdale, there was no malice or other imprope motive in the case, he said he was compelled to concur with the police and set an example that should not be forgotten. He sentenced the accused to pay the borough fine and costs, or serve imprisonment for forty-eight hours.

Recently, says the Towanda Review, as one of the extra trains on the Bernice branch pulled into Saterfield on a wet and chilly night, the conductor was accosted by a laboring man of genteel appearance who was shivering and chattering with the cold. He claimed to hail from Potter county, where he has a wife and family, and was on his way to the lumber woods of Sullivan county in search of work to keep himself and his family from starving Thirty-six hours before he had left his little family at home, having pressed into his wife's hand a $5 bill, the last of his little store of wealth, and with not a cent in his pocket and despite her pleadings that he take at least a dollar of the little fund with him, he started out. For the entire thirty-six hours he had been without food. An investigaiton of his story proved its accuracy. His want was relieved.

A Hazleton dispatch says: Three tramps on Sunday afternoon brutally assaulted Mrs. Frazer, who resides with her father in a lonely section known as the Ice Lake, near White Gay, of Corverton. Haven. All the occupants of the house excepting Mrs. Frazer had gone to White Haven, and when the tramps stole upon the premises the woman was at their mercy. They asked her whether there was any money or other valuables about the house, and when she refused to give any information they struck her to the floor and assaulted in the most outrageous manner The tramps then ransacked the house and in one of the rooms on the upper floor they found a trunk, which they broke open and secured $150, besides other valuables. They then made their escape, leaving their victim lying in a helpless condition on the floor. When Mrs. Frazer's father returned he saw what had occurred and immediately gave the alarm. In a short time i large posse of citizens arrived from White Haven and went in pursuit of the fiends. The posse was well armed and those who could not secure guns carried with them base ball bats and other weapons. After a long and tedious search three tramps were discovered in the woods near-by and they were immediately commanded to sur render, which they did. Several of the citizens then pounced upon the nomads and handled them in a severe manner after which they were taken to White Haven and locked up. Mrs. Frazer appeared at the lock-up some time afterward, but as she could not identify any of them as her assailants they were set at liberty. No clue to the perpetrators of the deed has thus far been obtained. The East Stroudsburg Chautauqua will open early in July. There is every promise of a large attendance. Dr. N C. Schaeffer, who has recently been reappointed superintendent of public instruction in this state, has announced his intention of attending. Dr. Emerson E. White, of Columbus, O., whose work as an author, lecturer and in-structor is world-wide, will attend durthe first, second and third weeks and Dr. A. Apgar, who is the author of "Geographical Charts," "Geographical Handbook," "Geographical Drawing-book," "Geography of New Jersey," "Plant Analysis," "Molusks of the Atthe Northern
