A RELIGIOUS PEOPLE.

That is what Rev. De Pugh Griffiths, of Binghamton, said of the Welsh in his address.

The audience which greeted Rev. De Pugh Griffiths, of Binghamton, N. Y., in the Tabernacle Congregational church last night, was an exceedingly large one. A short synopsis of his address is given below. The address was delivered in the Welsh language. He said in part:

"Every nation has its own peculiar characteristics. One of the distinct traits in the Welsh character is emotion, and this has made them famous for great religious upheavals, and as a consequence has given to the world some of the most fiery and eloquent preachers. Like the Jewish nation, we are pre-eminently religious, and wherever you find a Welsh community you will find a church, for it is the first thought of the Welshman, wherever he goes to prepare for himself and family a place where they may worship God.

"Today some of the leading ministers in England and America are either Welsh or of Welsh descent. The ambition of the average Welsh pastor is to be a preacher. He shines more as a preacher than as a pastor. The history of Wales for the last two hundred years is a religious history. How gladly we recall the old services in the little chapels of our native land, where the uneducated fathers with their simple ways and untutored art praised God. These are the hallowed memories of other days.

"The hymns of William Williams have done much to awaken the religious life in Wales. We remember the time before the hymn books were introduced, and with what earnestness and power did our fathers strike the deepest harmonies of the heart. The hymn book, while very helpful in many ways, has done much to destroy the simple meaning of God's promises. The tendency of Wales, like every other country, is toward external formalities, and the sober thinking and substantial religious life of fifty years ago is unknown to a degree today."

Discovery Made in the Abington Road Condemnation Case.
D. J. Campbell, W. S. Meeks, B. G. Morgan, O. B. Wright and T. J. Jennings, viewers and assessors, met yesterday at the Providence and Abington turnpike, met yesterday in the arbitration room to begin their labors. As soon as they had organized Messrs. Watson and Kemmerer, of Watson, Hill, Briel and Kemmerer and L. H. Burns, who appeared for the company, protested against any further proceedings, alleging that a similar case was brought before the courts seven years ago and had never been finally disposed of.
Horace E. Hand, the master in the case, declined to pass upon the objection as it was decided to adjourn until May 25, and have court decide in the meantime as to what course shall be pursued.

DUNMORE.

The damage done by the fire yesterday morning was not as great as it was at first thought to be, the loss being in the neighborhood of $4,000. The Flynn estate is the heaviest sufferer, the loss being fixed at $2,000. Insured against with C. G. Boland for $1,400. There were seven vehicles in the barn, all of them being destroyed. The building occupied by Mrs. Ellen Mahady was damaged to the extent of $300. The property was owned by Thomas Dersheimer and is fully insured. Mr. Harrington could give no fair estimate of his loss but he thinks it will reach about $200. The upper portion is badly gutted, but more damage was done by the water than by the fire. Dr. Hopkins' loss will amount to $100; the barn was owned by James

Mattie and is partially insured. The loss to the Clave estate is not great. The barn, which is an old one, is not worth more than $100. The various out-houses, shanties, coal houses, etc., will amount to considerable. T. P. Letchworth, the Flynn estate and Chas. Weber all suffer slight losses.
Owing to the non-appearance of Street Car Conductor Daniels the case against him has been postponed until Thursday evening.

The funeral of James Mooney occurred yesterday morning. A solemn high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Mary's church at 10:30 o'clock. Rev. M. B. Doonan was chairman. Rev. J. E. Dunne, pastor, and Rev. M. J. Millan, sub-deacon. Interment was made in the old Catholic cemetery. The pallbearers were: P. J. Moran, J. J. Healey, Thomas Cawley, M. J. Moran, Patrick Gill and John McAndrews.

John Padden, of Carbondale, spent yesterday with Minooka friends.
P. C. Connolly and Dr. J. W. Houser were fishing at Painter's creek yesterday. The day was an ideal one and both returned well laden—thirty-five pounds.

MINOOKA.

School Controller Foley left yesterday for New York to attend the national convention of the Ancient Order of Hibernians, Board of Erin. Mr. Foley will represent Division No. 4, of this place.

John Padden, of Carbondale, spent yesterday with Minooka friends.
P. C. Connolly and Dr. J. W. Houser were fishing at Painter's creek yesterday. The day was an ideal one and both returned well laden—thirty-five pounds.

The Independents will conduct a social at Weber's rink, Taylor, tonight. The rumor that the Minooka depot was broken into and ransacked again Sunday night was erroneous. For the past year robberies at this place were almost weekly occurrences and despite the vigilance of the police and the vigilance of the citizens the thieves remain at liberty. The consensus of opinion is that it is the work of a notorious gang of tramps who infect the shanties in that locality.

THE DUNMORE CONTEST.

Four More Votes Were Declared Illegal Yesterday.
The work of examining the Democratic votes of Dunmore, which have been attacked was resumed yesterday morning before Commissioners R. H. Holgate and D. W. Reedy. Twenty-one were examined and of these it was found that the votes of four were unquestionably bad, while two others were doubtful. The names of the illegal votes were Nicola Joudola, of the Fifth ward, who was never naturalized; John Gerrity, of the Second district, of the First ward, who had not paid taxes; and Patrick McBurn and Gombattiste Larossa, both of the Second ward, who were disqualified for the same reason. There is a doubt about the taxes of Martin Langan, of the Second ward, and Martin Gallagher, of the Fourth ward, did not make it altogether clear to the commissioners that he had a right to vote on age.

The others examined were Patrick Dewey, Jr., Michael Barrett, Richard O'Hara, Patrick McCormack, Frank Chippriano, John Maloney, Michael McHale, Patrick Walsh, Martin Flannelly, Thomas Egan, Michael Boland, Thomas Ruane, Patrick Tierney, Antonio Pace. Another meeting of the commission will be held today.

The company's attorneys say that they are ready with records to prove that the former case has never been finally disposed of. The decision of the viewers they allege was not final. The company. Exceptions were filed by the petitioners but they were not pushed to an issue and as a consequence the first case is still hanging fire.
Vesburg & Dawson, attorneys for the company, claim they are ready to go when the time comes to show that the claim of the company is poorly grounded. At all events, if the present proceedings are quashed, final disposition will be made of the old case and a new procedure instituted.

Shepard Boon Badly Injured at Nicholson Last Evening.
Shepard Boon, aged 44 years, was admitted to the Moses Taylor hospital last evening, suffering from injuries the result of a peculiar accident on the Delaware, Lackawanna and Western tracks at Nicholson last evening.
Boon was employed with a number of others in painting the railroad bridge at Nicholson. At 6 p. m. after work had been discontinued Boon went into a box car where the paint, etc., is kept. In coming out again he jumped upon the opposite track and a hand car, propelled by several section hands, speeding along just at that time struck him. The wheels passed over his chest and back and the car was thrown from the track by the human obstruction.
The section hands, uninjured, picked themselves up and went back a few feet to where Boon lay. The hand-car was again placed on the track and Boon, suffering terribly, was taken to the Nicholson station. He was afterwards brought to Scranton on a special car, arriving here at 7 o'clock. At the hospital it was discovered that Boon's body is badly lacerated and there is a bad contusion on his neck. It is probable that he has severe internal injuries which may result in his death.
Boon is an unmarried man and his home is at Espy, this state.

WILL HAVE TO WAIT.

Council's new auditing committee had its first meeting last night. There were present Messrs. Chittenden, H. W. Durr and Thomas, select council, and Messrs. Noone, Zeldner, Gilroy, Wirth, Gordon, Flanagan, Sweeney, Moir and Sheridan, of common council. As Mr. Lansing, by virtue of his position as chairman of the select council judiciary committee, is, according to precedent chairman of the auditing committee, it was decided on account of his absence, not to effect permanent organization. Mr. Manly was chosen temporary chairman.

All the bills that have accumulated since the last meeting of the auditing committee of 1896 were passed upon and without exception approved.

RETIRES FROM BUSINESS.
Cambrian Mutual Company Will Wind Up Its Affairs.
The Cambrian Mutual Fire Insurance company, of the West Side, composed of some of the wealthiest Welshmen of the city, closed its doors yesterday for business. The company was organized and incorporated in 1870. The reason for this abrupt termination of the company has not been made known.

The stockholders considered it an excellent paying investment and were highly pleased with the management. The company, during its long and prosperous career sustained but few wrecks was the first secretary and general manager and was succeeded by the late Robert J. James. The latter was succeeded by the present incumbent, B. E. Evans, who has been a faithful and efficient official.

Benjamin Hughes was president of the company which is sufficient assurance that the affairs of the company were honestly performed.

WANTED IN VERMONT.
One Dr. Crawford Arrested in This City on the Charge of Arson.
On the strength of a telegram from Burlington, Vt., the police yesterday arrested a Dr. Crawford who is wanted there for arson.

He was taken into custody on Linden street in front of the board of trade building.

Police headquarters gave out that it knew nothing of the details of Crawford's crime. He was locked up in the women's ward and was not allowed to be seen by reporters.

Information of his capture was wired to Burlington and an answer was received stating that an officer would be sent on with requisition papers.

ANOTHER POSSIBILITY.
Common Council May Concur in the Amendments.
A special meeting of common council has been called for tonight to consider the appropriation ordinance. It is likely that the common council will concur in the amendments made by the upper branch and send the measure to a conference committee.

There was talk about city hall yesterday of the common council approving the ordinance as it stands and have Mayor Bailey exercise his power to strike off the objectionable amendments. It would require a two-thirds vote to overcome his action and it is not likely that such opposition can be mustered by the Republicans.
