TORONTO'S HOODOO.

Is Undiscovered and the Canucks Lose Their Ninth Game--- A Battle of the Pitchers.

The Toronto hoodoo remains undiscovered. The Canadians yesterday lost to Scranton their ninth game out of ten played, but the hoodoo had nothing to do with it. It was a pitchers' argument and a game of errors in which the two clubs split on even terms as far as the pitching was concerned, Scranton getting a shade the better of the field work and so winning by the score of 6 to 4.

for the Miners and Williams pitched six runs. Sco for the Canucks, Gillon was getting far and away the best of the pitching up to the eighth inning. Up to the only two hits had been made off hin and the home team felt safe with the score 5 to 1. But in the Eighth wit one out and a runner on first by a hi a single was scratched through Gil lon's interference with the ball and h permitted the bases to fill by a mis play which cost three runs. The base were full again before the Canuck were retired with the score only 5 against them. In only that inning wa there any cause for criticising the Miners' playing.

SOME GOOD PLAYS.

About a thousand spectators were o the grounds. They had little or no caus to get nervous after the second and u to the eighth when the visitors misse their chance to win out and Masse closed that inning with a hair-raising catch of a high foul near the bleacher fence. A running catch each by Eugan and O'Brien and a fast one-hand pickup and assist by Maguire were among the star individual plays. Bonner and Beard had fourteen chances between them with only one error by Bonner and which did not prove costly.

Manager Griffin for the second time this season sent his men first into the field. For two innings only one player on each side reached first. Lush on a base on balls and Massey on Wagner's bad throw to first.

In the third inning with Boyd out Gillon made the first hit of the game and went to third on McHale's fumble in center of O'Brien's hard drive, the latter reaching second. A passed ball scored Gillon and advanced O'Brien to third. Bonner got a walk and stole second and on the throw to catch him. O'Brien slid home. Daly grounded out to first and Beard flew out. In the Toronto half Taylor was hit by a pitched ball, but was forced by Williams who stole second, Bonner missing Boyd's good throw. Williams advanced to third on an outfield fly. White was hit by a pitched ball and stole second. With two on bases McGann, one of the two best batters on the team, hit a bouncer to Gillon and was retired at

MINERS GET TWO MORE.

Infield assists prevented a Canadian reaching first in the fourth, but Scranton was more fortunate. Eagan hit to left center for two bases and came home on Taylor's miss of Massey's grounder, the latter going to second on the play to catch Peter at the plate and to third on Casey's wild return of the ball to second. Maguire was nipped at first. Massey scored on Boyd's life and Gillon fouled out. Score, 4-0.

The Cannucks fell down in the fifth on a liner to Beard and two infield assizts, one of which was Maguire's lightning pick-up and throw which mpped the runner with only an inch spare In the Scranton half and with two out. Daly singled but Beard's fly retired the side.

The first Toronto run was made in the sixth. With one out White singled and went to third on McGann's twobaser. McHale got a walk and on the fourth bad ball Boyd snapped the ball to Beard at second, where McGann was caught napping off the bag. On McHale's steal, White came home, Beard making a poor return of the ball. Casey was retired at Eagan, Massey and Maguire down one-two-three in Scran-sion, but the miners tallied their fifth run on Boyd's walk, Gillon's sacrifice. McGann's error and Casey's throw, which spoiled O'Brien's steal. Bonner was thrown out at first. Score, 5-1.

TORONTO'S TURN.

Then came a turn in favor of the vistors in the eighth. With the first man MINERS TAKE ONE FROM TORONTO disposed of Lush singled. Whitehit one which Gillon should been let go by him, but he changed its direction with his Stars to Whip the Ponics -- Two cessfully field it. McGann hit one which Gillon stopped, but the latter Games Here This Afternoon and hesitated in fielding it and then threw Scrapton Has a Chance to Gain low to Maguire which permitted the bases to fill. All three runners came in on McHale's double to left-center. The latter reached third on Maguire's bad throw to stop Casey at first. The latter stole second. McHale tried to score on Freeman's force hit. but was tagged out on the line by Beard, Boyd and Maguire. Casey reached third and Freeman second during the play. Wagner hit a high foul and Massey got under it after a long run to the picket fence, and

The Miners scored in the last of the eight a rurgihat was not needed.. With one out Beard reached first on a wild are tied in second place. The former will play two games this afternoon and by winning both of the second of Beard and Second on Eagan's single which was hit too slow for Lush to field. Massey's force hit disposed of Beard and Second on Eagan's throw by Lush and second on Eagan's to second, from where he scored on first place provided two games are not Maguire's single. Boyd flew out Score, 6-4.

Catcher Baker was sent to bat in place of Williams after Taylor had fanned in the ninth. He got a walk, sixth place and pulls Providence down but a fly to O'Brien and another to

CORBETT MAY MEET JOE CHOYNSKI

Arranging to Fight Before the National Club at 'Frisco.

PARSON DAVIES IS THE PROMOTER

To Make the Match Was the Secret of His Trip East .- To Be a Twenty-Round Go for $10,000 -- The Parson Is Another Claimant That Corbett Was Fouled in the Fight at Carson.

San Francisco, May 11.-Information has reached here which points to the probability of a match between Corbett and Choynski. The reason for "Parson" Davies' mysterious visit to the East is thus made apparent. He went to arrange a match between Corbett and Choynski, to be fought in this city in the fall. The "Parson" took the trip in the interest of the National Sporting club, and the officers of that organization have received information that leads them to confidently predict that the match will be made.

Davies has urged Fitzsimmons to bring about this result, knowing that if Fitzsimmons announced to Corbett that he would fight him after the exchampion had beaten Choynski, Jim probably would go in for the battle. Fitzsimmons, it is believed, is lending himself to the project. Choynski is perfectly willing to fight Corbett for any amount. The only trouble in bringing about the match has been with the latter. If the bout comes off it will be a twenty-round go for a purse of $10,000. All the National people are jubilant over the outlook.

The California Athletic club announces a programme for the 31st inst. at Woodward's pavilion, the principal attraction being a fifteen-round go between Slavin and Joe Butler, of Philadelphia. It was at first intended to put Slavin up against "Thunderbolt" Smith, but Smith did not seem anxious for the match.

THAT ALLEGED FOUL While chatting with a party of friends the other evening at the Tremont in Chicago Parron Davies excited their interest by the sensational state-

"Corbett was knocked out by a foul although I do not think the blow was intentional. Fitz hit him a terrible blow in the face while Corbett was upon one knee.

In further explanation, Mr. Davies said that he was in a good position to see the finish of the fight, and that following the heart blow, and as Corbett sank to the floor, Fitz landed his right in a swing on the side of the jaw. This statement by the Parson explains the recent assertions of Manager Brady to the effect that a foul was committed, and that the kinetoscope pictures would fully show it. Mr. Davies has no doubt that the blow assisted in Corbett's defeat. "One thing that surprised me while in 'Frisco," continued Mr. Davies, 'was the manner in which Tommy Ryan responded to the efforts of the Olympic club to get on a fight be-tween him and Young Corbett. I think Ryan would make a good fight against Green and was therefore anxious to make the match. "The club offered a purse of $5,000 for a twenty-round contest at 145 pounds, and Ryan has the privilege of cutting the purse to suit himself, be sides the offer of making the decision a draw if both men were on their feet at the end of twenty rounds. what do you think Ryan replied? Why, he wanted $500 additional in expense money and $1,000 and expenses for George Siler as referee. "Was it any wonder that the Olym-

ple fellows replied; 'You have cold

BOXING FOR CHARITY.

While in 'Frisco the Parson was offered the management of two clubs, but he declined to accept, for, while the prospects of a continuation of the boxing game is good, there are so many clubs and contests scheduled that the management can only make small money. To secure the permits an arrangement was made to give 5 per cent, of the receipts to the unemployed. The money derived from boxing exhibitions and other sources has amounted to $40,000, and this is being expended on the Balboa boulevard and speedway.

"Among the contests arranged in San Francisco," said Mr. Davies, "are those between Joe Gans and Mike Leonard, and J. J. Jeffries and Henry Baker, both before the Olympic club Baker will defeat Jeffries, who has adopted the Corbett style of boxing, which fits him as the movements of the leopard would suit the elephant.

It has been quite freely remarked, and with a tinge of disappointment, that the Miners are not hitting well. They are not, that's true, but it is all the more to their credit that without any remarkable hitting they have won six out of nine games played. What will they do when they get their optics in good working order? Based upon last year's percentages, the hitting strength of the team is higher than any team in the league with but one excepteam in the league with but one excep-tion.
