

Totals. *Batted for Sotley in the ninth.

Toronto000020020-4 Earned runs-Rochester, 1. Two-bas hits-Shannon, Lynch, Dooley, McHale, First base on balls-Off McFarland, 1, Stolen bases-Lynch, Lush, White, Freeman, First base on errors-Rochester, 2; Tor-onto, 4. Hit by pitched ball-By McFaronto, 4. Iand, I. Struck out-By McFarland, 3; , 1. Double play-Freeman to by Setley, 1.

tley, p.

Baker*

Stakes of the present season is being | W. Naughton, the veteran sporting riter and one of the most ardent be-

"Corbett is down. Fitzsimmons does not retire until he has given the Callfornian a wallop in the law, while the atter's glove is touching the floor. "It does not seem to do much harm. It knocks the Californian's head to one side about two feet. "Then Fitzsimmons apparently realzes what he has done. He steps away to the required distance, and the fight comes to an end. "The foul is palpable. It is

Picture Is a Lie and That Corbett Deliberately Quit.

record for 300-yard hurdles was broken twice in the trial heats at the military and athletic carnival at the Colseum. P. O'Dea, Chicago A. A., ran the distance in 38 2-5 seconds, and Kraenzlein, Chicago A. A., made it in 7 2-5 seconds, the formed record being 38 4-5 seconds.

Both men are students at the University of Wisconsin, though carrying C. A. A. colors in the carnival. The

A lot more wheels from $5.00 to $35.00. Now is your

$40.00

Cash Only

auspices of the Maryland Century Cyc ling club. The figures will be submitted to the Century Cycling club of America for verification.

WILL BE WORTH $50,000.

For the Big Futurity Stakes There Are Now 348 Entries.

A list of eligible nominations to the Concy Island Jockey club's Futurity compiled for publication in the next above depicted is sure to create a great deal of discussion, as it apparently shows a "foul." It was administered just after Corbett fell from the effects of the blow over the solar plexis .-- [New York Journal.]

was not landed, however, until after Fitz had delivered the terrific punch on Corbett's stemach and which caused the pompadour's star to set. The accompanying cut is from the veriscope picture. Following is an article published yesterday in the New York Journal and evidently written by W.

relative merits of the two men.

2 hours, Umpire-Tim Keefe

NATIONAL LEAGUE.

Only four games were played in the National league yesterday. Baltimore and St. Louis were not scheduled. Rain prevented the Brooklyn-Chicago game, The Phillies gain second position, and pull the Colonels down to third by the former's victory over the latter Boston passes New York and Cleve-Innd.

	alts.
747	New York Cleveland Pittsburg	3
	3747	3 Louisville

Percentage Record.

	Р.	w.	I.,.
Baltimore	16	13	3
Iniladelphia	18	12	6
Louisville	14	.9	5
Pittshiftg	15	- 19	-6
Cincinnati	17	10	7
13081011	16	8	- 8
Cleveland in	17	.8	18
New York	13	6	7
Brooklyn	16	6	10
Washington	15	5	10
Chicago	17	- 51	12
St. Louis	16	4	12

Today's Games.

New York at Cincinnati. Baston at Cloveland, Fhilladelohia at Louisvillo, Washington at Pittsburg. Baltimore at St. Louis, Louisville-Philadelphia.

Louisville, Ky., May 13.-The Phillies and Colonels played a great game today, the former team winning out in the tweifth honing on three singles and Billy Nash being hit by a pitched ball, which forced the winning run across the plate. Jimmy Stafford made his first appearance in a Louisville uniform and played good ball. Attendance, 2,300. Score: R.H.E

Philadelphia ..001000610001-340 2 Loutsville00000200000-212 4 Batteries-Taylor and Clements; Hill and Wilson, Umpire-Sheridan, Cleveland-Boston.

Cleveland, O., May 13.-Nichols was very effective in today's game and only four hits were made off his delivery, two of them by Sockalexis. Score: R.H.E. Batteries-Young and Zimmer; Nichola and Bergen, Umpire-Hurst, Cincinnati-New York. Cincinnati. May 13 .- The Reds defeated the Giants easily in an uninteresting game today. Score: R.H.E. Batteries-Damman and Peitz: Deheny and Wilson, Umpires-Emslie and O'Day, Pittsburg-Washington.

Pittsburg, Pa., May 13.-The Washing-tons hit Killen as they pleased, while Pittsburg failed to connect with McJames when they should, Score: R.H.E. Batteries-Killen and Sugden; McJames and McGuire. Umpire-Lynch.

ATLANTIC LEAGUE.

Rain prevented the four games scheduled for Lancaster at Philadelphia with the Athletics, Reading at Hartford, Paterson at Richmond, and Newark at Norfolk.

of the Racing Calendar. Of the original 789 entries to this take 162 are vold, and 280 have been leclared out at a cost of $20 each, leavjust before the fight:

ing 348 eligible to date. There is an-other declaration due in July. It is estimated by the club that the Futurity will set the entire fistle world by the Stakes of 1897 will be worth $50,000.

Expect 1000 Riders,

Chicago, 111., May 12. Today was the st day for riders to enter the Chleaga oud race, and the promoters say when the roster is closed 1,000 names will be on the starters' list. days.

DIAMOND DUST.

Lewce has taken Tom Delchanty's place it short on the Milwaukee team. Lutenberg is playing first for the Quincy club. He was released by Toronto because ject was dropped.

he objected to playing with that club Louisville on Tuesday exchanged Out-ielder Holmes for Stafford, of New York. .813 .643 Stafford will be played at short by Louis-

.600 .558 Morris Poster, an amateur pitcher of this city city, is to be given a trial by the Bicomsburg club of the Central State :500 Isague 375

Springfield is to have Sunday hall. Mayor-elect Good, who triumphed in the recent municipal election, is one of the dub moguls-vice-president,-Rochester club mogula-vice-president,-Rochester Post-Express, Sweeney, the Scranton shortstop of 1895, has signed to play that position this year for "Allentown" Smith, of Pawtucket, R. I. He may be placed in charge of the team as captain. Keenan etwas the succiden of being care thing to be said. will admit this. It was the solar-plexus foul rap on the jaw. Keenan gives the suspicion of being en-this year .- Wilkes-Barre Leader. He will prove to be, as he was hast year, one of the best pitchers in the league, Suspi-cions don't count at this stage of the ame Manager Hanlon, says an exchange, has made a prophecy which should be put in a rel frame. He says that by September next New York and Haltimore will be fighting at the top, with all others agthe damage it occasioned.

"Who do you want me to get for you as a catcher for Rusie?" asked Mr. Freed-man of Scrappy Joyce Thursday, "No one but Jack O'Connor," said Scrappy, Before the reader under his heart tells the story plainer than words. It was the stomach blow, apparently, that Corbett was trying to the Indians went away on the present trip Pat Tebeau was asked for whom he would trade O'Connor. "No one but Amos Ruste," replied Pat. alleviate.

On May 10 last year Scranton occupied sixth position with a percentage of only 200. Providence was first, Roonester sec-ond, Syracuse third, Springfield fourth, Toronto fifth, Buffalo seventh and Wilkes-Date Lot. Barre last.-Scranton Tribune, Yep! But we beat you out in the wind-up by a neck, --Wilken-Barre Record, Well, that was nothing for the Wilkes-Barre club to be ahamed of, The board of directors of the Providence IT WAS A LEFT HAND HOOK. Club met last evening to consider ar-rangements for Sunday games, Manager Boyden, of Crescent park, is competing with Manager Harrington, of Rocky Point, for these games. He contemplates "Fitzsimmons has stated that the a right hand feint and a 'lefi shift.' With all due respect to Mr. Fitzsimmons, it may be stated that he is misutting in a new ground north of the taken. The pictures are as clean cut resent location of the chutes in what was n oat field last year.-Providence Journal. as so many cameras, and they speak louder than words. "When the knock-out came Corbett

An out field inst year.—Providence Journal. Probably the reason for Louisville's good showing is the fact that the follow-ing prizes have been offered by the man-scement for the club's standing: Teath place, $500; ninth place, $1,000; clubth place, $2,001; seventh place, $5,000; fourth place, $2,000; third place, $2,000, mer prizes $2,000; penant winners, $20,000, The prizes mons, who was sliding forward in a knock-kneed sort of shuffle. He had grown strong since the sixth round and was on the aggressive. "Suddenly, as the bald-headed man will be distributed equally among the regular players. Wonder if the Springfield Union man his left. Then there is trouble. Fitzsimmons ducks to the right. In the can't scratch out some other expression to substitute as a relief for "Wouldn't do a thing to it,"-Wilkes-Barre Leader, "The pictures you can see Corbett's left arm line a bolt of iron over Fitzaimmons' "The left shoulder. Springfield Union Man" generally manag-es to use such language and grammar as "Here is where the solar plexus punch comes in. The left lead has left Cor-bett's stomach comparatively unguardantisfies a large scissors constituency. If base ball writers generally were as clear and honest as "Cy" there would be much tess misunderstanding about the game and all that goes with it.

lievers in Fitzsimmons' superiority tend it. Neverthelers those who bet on among the newspaper men at Carson Corbett will find a great deal to kick shout when the pictures are shown in the Academy of Music Saturday night.' "Within the next few days there will arise a clamor in pugilistic circles that FITZSIMMONS EXPLAINS.

"When the big crowd gathers at the He Says That the Foul Knock-Out Academy of Music on Saturday night to witness the Corbett-Fitzsimmons fight on canvas they will see many things that are surprising, and many things over which they will gossip for Baltimore, May 12 .- Champion Bob "Some time ago W. A. Brady, Corlizzimmons, who is in Baltimore with bett's manager, told the newspapers of his show, talked freely tonight cona foul blow by Fitzsimmons, which he had discovered in the veriscope films. erning the alleged fact that the veracope pictures of his fight with Cor-The public was sceptical and the subbett show that the ex-champion received a foul blow at the end of the ON CORBETT'S JAW. final round. In connection with a dental of his allegation Fitz makes the startling assertion that Corbett was "The foul blow is pictured in the veriscope, nevertheless Nobody who has seen the films can gainsay it. When not knocked out, but that he deliberately quit. Corbett's friends see the fight on can-"The picture is a lie," said he, "there vas they will be up in arms. They will could be no such picture in the vera-cope. They could not doctor up one ee Fitzsimmons land on Corbett's jaw then the Californian is down. if they tried. 1 know every move "A foul? There is not the shadow of doubt of it. But as to its effect on the made and every one Corbett made in that last round. This picture shows result of the fight there is only one me behind Corbett delivering a blow with Corbett down on one hand and "Corbett would have been knocked one knee. I say right now that it lies out anyway. The Californian himself was never behind him; I was in front Prizza. punch that did the business, not the "After the body blow I used the left shift' which is a change of the Nevertheless the blow was a foul, right foot to the front, the right hand out, while the hook blow is delivered technically, and when seen on the big canvas sheet at the Academy of Music with the left hand. The position of my on Saturday night the crowd will judge body naturally changed as ,I shifted. I was about to deliver a second blow for themselves as to its foul intent and on Corbett's jaw, but I noticed his knee was on the floor and stopped the "Corbett is shown in the pleture apparently reeling from the impact of the blow when it was fully four inches foul blow. He was already reeling, from his face. however, from the blow in the stomach. "I will stick to the truth and will no His left hand clenched spasmodically onger keep under cover what I am positive is a fact. Corbett quit in that fight if ever a man did guit and h knows it, I was confident that h wanted to quit earlier in the game. I "The pictures are beautifully clear, do not claim the credit of knocking him and even the far away mountains are plainly visible. The spectators who see out. I did not do it. 1 would have done it had the fight gone on a little longer the show on Saturday night will be and he knew it. He was hurt, but not hampered somewhat by the prominence of the side post of the ring during the mough to make a real man quit. Why, he was strong enough to nurse his last rush of the fighters, but they will solar plexis with one hand and to hold see enough to set them gossiping and up his big hulk with the other hand quarrelling among themselves as to the resting on the stage. No one could tell me that a man could not get up and fight who was strong enough to hold himself up with one hand as steadily as he did. He wanted to quit, and he did mach punch was accomplished with quit, and that is all there is about it

cality.

Had I been in Corbett's position and he in mine I would have justly been called quitter."

With a smile he added:

"That body punch would have been foul if we had allowed Corbett to fight in the belt he wore into the ring. It was a corker. It had three big was on a slow retreat before Fitzsimmackles, and they reached two-thirds of the way to his chin. If he had been allowed to wear it I could not have hit him other than a foul blow unless I hit es forward, Corbett lunges out with him on the neck or head. I do not know what they will spring next. They may even go so far as to deny that Corbett quit, but he did quit, and with fighting power left in him.

Yale-Harvard Games Officers. New Haven, Conn., May 13 .- The official list of officers for the Yale-Hared. Fitzsimmons' steps quickly for-ward, sliding Corbett's arm over his shoulder to the elbow. Then he hooks being the more important: Referee, W.

for 300 yards was 37 3-5 seconds, made calcable that Fitzsimmons did not in 18, 1887 .- Sporting Ed.

Twenty-two horses belonging to Village Farm were sent up from Selma, Ala., last week, to be given a lot-up. This leaves twenty head which Geers will have for the ampaign.

accord hurdle record chance to get a good wheel cheap. Why buy a cast iron by A. F. Copland at New York June wheel, even if it is new, and you can get it for $29.00, when you can get the best for a little more? Call at FLOREY'S and get a good wheel.

222 WYOMING AVENUE.

BUY "BARKER" BICYCLE. MADE BY SCRANTON WORKMEN AND GUARANTEED BY A SCRANTON FIRM. S. G. BARKER & SON, Scranton, Pa. SALESROOM : Board of Trade Building, Linden Street, Court House Square. Bittenbender & Co., 126 and 128 Franklin Avenue OUR LINE INCLUDES THE FOLLOWING: We have the most com-

COLUMBIAS,

SYRACUSE,

VICTORS, SPALDINGS,

KEATINGS.

plete stock of bicycles herea-Barnes,.....$100 Demorest, $75,$65, bouts. A glance at our line $50 and $40. will surely convince you that we are the leaders in this lo-Stearns...... 100 League...... 60 Repair Work Fenton 100 Richmond 75 and Nickel-Plating Also a Fine Line of Juvenile Dayton 100 Bicycles. Specialty.

Bittenbender & Co., 126 and 128 Franklin Avenue

PATRONIZE HOME INDUSTRY

We are manufacturing-not merely assembling-four grades of Bicycles, which are excelled by none at the same prices, in any way whatever. They are the

Lacka	wanna,			$100
Black	Diamond,	$75,	$60,	$50
			-

Why buy a Bicycle made elsewhere when you can get a "Home-Made" Wheel, second to none?

THE LACKAWANNA WHEEL CO.,

being the more important: Referee, W. FACTORY: 1216 AND 1218 N. WASHINGTON AVE.

SALESROOMS. 410 LACKAWANNA AVE.