ROSE IS A GOOD ONE. Made an Excellent Showing Against One of Philadelphia'a Crack Fighters at Last Night's Tournament.

The South Side Athletic club's first public boxing tournament was given last night in Germania hall and H proved to the four hundred people who attended that the club can purvey some excellent entertainment in this line, and also that one of its members is a fighter that no club need feel ashamed to pin its laurels to.

This member is Chris Rose, who met Fred Stricker, one of the best men of the famed Caledonian Athletic club of Philadelphia, and gave him as hasd a He is the Phenomenal Fielder of the battle as he possibly ever had. It was Rose's first appearance in the ring, and he lacked generalship, but in the mat-

The above opinion by work is of interest; but we are brave enough to differ slightly, and advocate leading where he has been receiving some the club queen followed by the trump track education from J. D. Heard, to his king. If the club should not hold good thority is a valuable bit of discussion The covered track at Jewettville is now like the proverbial deserted village. Over forty trotters and paeers have been worked through the winter season, and of a common situation and we heartily concur in every word;

We have preached many a whist sermon on the text "Don't open new suits," and as an example of our doctrine, we give a appointed J. L. Hall paddlock and patrol judge for the meetings of the Westchester Racing association and the Brocklyn and leal recently played in a progressive game which exemplifies our ideas. The dealer held the following hand:

Spades (trump)-Ace, Queen, Ten, 8, 4, 3 Tearts-Queen, 8, 7, Clubs-Ace, 2

The original lead was the Queen of clubs the partner played the Eight, the third hand the Five, and the dealer won with the Ace.

The Question is, What should the dealer lead Trick 2? At most tables the trump was opened, but at one the club was re-turned. This we consider the only sound play in the hang. There is absolutely no reason for open-ing trumps in the dealer's hand, and if it is done it must be on the gamble that the partner has a great suit. In view of the double trump tennes in the dealer's hand and the chance for a call, this possibility hardly seems to justify the play. If the club is returned the orignal leader is tempted to make two mistakes viz. a tempted to make two mistakes, viz .: (a) Finess

Even if he does not fall into either of these traps, he must either open a new suit (which is always disadvantageous) or continue the club, in which case the dealer is almost sure to get a discard. There is just one more chance, though rather re-Take it all in all, the club seems clearly the gained two tricks.

FOR WOMEN CYCLISTS.

Mrs. J. A. Lacher, of Maysboro, Minu. in the eyes of a good many women, is both a heroine and a martyr. The village in which she lives is rather limited in size. The bicycle population of the place is lim Ited to three-Mrs. Lacher, her husbana and her son. As a result the other people in the village regard the Lachers as in dulging in a luxury bordering on extraya gance. Mrs. Lacher was recently seen rid gance. Mrs. Lacher was recently seen rid-ing through the village wearing bloomers, which created considerable excitement. Several wardens of the church saw her and were shocked. The morals of the place had been corrupted in their opinion, and they quickly got together and hell a meeting. After much secret discussion, by and with the advice of the pastor, they annulied the church membership of Mrs. Lacher. The matter was annumeed from the whether matter was announced from the pulpit and created an even greater sensation than did the victim in question when she appeared on the highways in the rationa costume.
