

TURKEY IS VERY PLIANT

Russia's Course in Forcing a Truce Has a Marked Effect.

GERMAN INFLUENCE WANES

A Statement from the Turkish Foreign Office.

It Is Admitted That the Porte May Modify Its Demands as Regards Indemnity and the Cession of Thessaly—Its Position Regarding the Abolition of the Capitulations Declared to Be Unshakable—An Armistice in Force at Lania.

Constantinople, May 19.—The telegram of the czar appealing to the Sultan to cease hostilities against Greece, which was couched in the most friendly terms, is regarded as being very significant, as showing the practical importance of the truce which it is so publicly admitted is in the direction of checking German influence at the Yildiz Kiosk, which influence has considerably increased since the outbreak of the war with Greece.

An official of the Turkish foreign office, in an interview here, after divulging upon the executive attitude of Greece and the earnest offers made by Turkey to prevent war, said: "During the month's war Turkey has suffered serious loss in life and money, and the reasons for this cannot be regarded as wholly justified."

"In regard to the abolition of the capitulations, it is impossible for the government in the interests of the country, to make any modifications. Even Servia and Roumania, in every sense the supporters of Greece, have not these privileges and, therefore, Greece cannot be allowed to retain exceptional rights which she has so scandalously abused."

"It is confidently hoped therefore that Europe will have sufficient sense of justice to prevent any further action upon this point. It is determined not to yield, and should Europe attempt to impose such a sacrifice by force of arms the situation created would be most detrimental to general peace."

AN ARMISTICE IN FORCE.

Hostilities Suspended—Germany Joins in the Demand.

Athens, May 19.—A dispatch received here from Lania, dated 10 o'clock this morning, announces that the white flag has been hoisted at Lania, and that Greece and Turkey and that Crown Prince Constantine has been authorized to suspend hostilities with the view of concluding arrangements for an armistice.

A panic prevailed at Lania owing to the report that the criminals will be released from the jails, while the arrival of the troops during the night increased the general feeling of terror.

The army of the Crown Prince has reformed on the Otrary Mountains and will be reinforced by General Smolenski's brigade and the troops dispatched to the front from Athens yesterday.

The communication delivered from the Turkish to the Greek commander at Arta, which followed the raising of the flag of truce by the former, was in Turkish and ran as follows: "On condition that no Greek soldier belonging to any army of the service remains on territory of the Ottoman empire, we have orders that an armistice shall be concluded on sea and land, with a view of arriving at an understanding."

"Chief of Staff." The Greek commander wired here for instructions and the government replied: "We authorize you to suspend hostilities in order to discuss the conditions of an armistice."

The government, in notifying the envoys of the powers to this proposal, said that as Greece had intruded her interests to the powers, it was for them to negotiate the conditions of an understanding.

After hoisting the flag of truce at Arta yesterday afternoon a deputation of Turkish officers appeared on the frontier, at the bridge over the River Arta (Arachthos), to negotiate with Colonel Manos for an armistice.

100 United States certificates not negotiable except through banks.

King started for the clearing house at 10:15 o'clock this morning to settle the balance existing there against the bank, and on the way, according to instructions, transacted other business, involving something like $45,000. He did not return to the bank by 1 o'clock the officials grew anxious and made a search for the messenger, beside notifying the police, but up to the present hour, they have been unable to ascertain his whereabouts.

COMMERCIAL CONFERENCE.

Preparations for the Entertainment of Visitors at Philadelphia June 1.

Philadelphia, May 19.—The official programme for conducting the business of the big international commercial conference and the entertainment of the visiting delegates to be held in this city, commencing June 1, was decided upon today by the directors of the Commercial Museum. It provides for the business meetings and the entertainment of the various international delegations which will come up for discussion, in addition to which a plan has been outlined to show the foreigners various points of interest within the city.

FIRE IN JERSEY CITY.

Sixty Families Made Homeless—Property Worth $100,000 Laid in Ashes.

New York, May 19.—Fire in Jersey City early this morning destroyed property worth $100,000, and made sixty families homeless. Shortly before 1:30 o'clock flames burst from the burning of a building at Newark, N. J., owned by Frederick Payne. The principal losses are those of Frederick Payne, $30,000, and of the burned out tenants, $40,000.

GOMPERS ON THE SCENE.

President of the American Federation of Labor in New York.

New York, May 19.—Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, reached this city this afternoon from Chicago, for the purpose of taking part in the conference between the striking tailors and the bosses, the contractors and incidentally the manufacturers. He said that strikes in the clothing trade must be necessary recent and will be periodical until the sweat shops are abolished.

CLARKE IN COLORADO.

Missing Bridgeport Bank Cashier Located by a Letter.

Bridgeport, O., May 19.—Harry M. Clarke, the missing cashier of the First National bank, has been located in Colorado Springs by a letter written to a clerk in the bank. It is now practically settled that he was several thousand dollars short, although he covered it by checking out of the bank when he had no funds deposited.

Wants Protection from Witchcraft.

Hagerstown, Md., May 19.—Isaac Simon, a Russian merchant, has applied to Mayor Keedy, of Hagerstown, for protection from the alleged witchcraft of a fellow countryman named Solomon Baltimore. Simon says that every morning early he finds salt on his door and pavement and that some morning he will not be able to open his store on account of the charm. He is also afraid that his wife will be spirited away. She is a good-looking woman.

ANOTHER DEBATE ON CUBAN QUESTION

Hot Shot from Senators Foraker, Cannon and Lindsay.

AN ARRAIGNMENT OF SPAIN

Mr. Vest Wants to Know Why American Consuls at Foreign Posts Have Not Been Protected by Warships—Senator Foraker Makes His First Speech of Importance During the Session.

Washington, May 19.—Another stirring debate on Cuba occurred in the senate today. It was of the size and take order, with sharp parliamentary fencing. The main speeches of the day were made by Senators Foraker, of Ohio; Cannon, Utah; Lindsay, Kentucky, and Hon. of Massachusetts. It was the first speech of any length made by Mr. Foraker since he entered the senate and in addition to this the Ohio

MR. M'KINLEY'S CUBAN POLICY

President's Plan to Secure the Independence of the Island.

AWAITS CALHOUN'S REPORT

He Will Then Suggest the Purchase of Freedom.

THE PRESIDENT WILL ADDRESS A NOTE TO THE SPANISH GOVERNMENT SUGGESTING THAT CUBA BE ALLOWED TO PURCHASE HER INDEPENDENCE—SHOULD SPAIN REFUSE TO RECOGNIZE THIS REQUEST MORE RADICAL STEPS WILL PROBABLY BE TAKEN—PEACE UPON THE ISLAND DESIRED.

Washington, May 19.—The Post today, evidently upon reliable information, prints the following regarding the purpose of the administration on the Cuban affair: "The president's policy in regard to Cuba has been determined upon. As soon as Commissioner Calhoun's report of the condition of affairs on the island is received, which will be in about three weeks, unless he has received orders to delay it until after the tariff bill has been passed, and if it confirms the statements made in the reports of Consul General Lee, the president will address a note to the Spanish government suggesting that Cuba be allowed to purchase her independence. The note will be friendly in its tone, but will be emphatic in expressing the president's opinion of the best solution of the difficulty."

CHICAGO MYSTERY.

The Police Gathering Evidence to Locate Responsibility for an Atrocious Crime—History of Luertger.

Chicago, May 19.—The police now feel certain that Mrs. Luertger met her death in the little sausage room adjoining the office in Luertger's sausage factory. Under a vat adjoining the one in which the gold ring was found, a large piece of wrapping paper cloaked with blood was discovered, as well as several particles of bone and flesh. The most startling find, however, was a bunch of light brown hair, which it is claimed, is of Mrs. Luertger. Upon the door leading to the catch basin in the basement of the factory was found the imprint of a bloody hand, which appears to be fresh.
