

Three Days' More. Our shoe sale meets with ready appreciation. And no wonder. The Vici Kid Shoes for ladies, at about half price, were bound to find favor. The manufacturer has stood the loss. We stand the expense of selling. That's why 300 shoes are here for $1.69. SCHANK & SPENCER, 410 SPRUCE STREET.

ELECTRIC CITY COUNCIL JR. O. U. A. M. Instituted with Appropriate Ceremonies at Petersburg. HAS THIRTY-TWO CHARTER MEMBERS

Who the Officers of the New Council Are—Installing Officers Were from Dunmore Council No. 1022—After the Installation Ceremonies Refreshments Were Served by Lady Friends of the Members of the New Council.

Electric City council, Junior Order United American Mechanics, was instituted last evening in Petersburg with ceremonies which probably have never been attempted in any similar organization in this city. Nearly 200 men, members of the order from various parts of the valley, participated in a parade in the evening before the installing exercises.

Officers of new council are: William H. Neilson, councilor; Lewis Meyer, vice councilor; Edward F. Wenzel, recording secretary; Oscar J. Henop, assistant recording secretary; Henry Wenzel, financial secretary; William Welner, treasurer; Bernard Leitner, inside sentinel; C. J. Theur, outside sentinel; George J. Press, warden; Arthur Schultz, conductor; Lewis Meyer, C. J. Theur, Bernard Leitner, trustees; Deputy Marvin Tuttle and the officers of Dunmore council, No. 1022.

Delegations were present from the following councils: Taylor council, Lackawanna council, Moses Taylor council, No. 151; Colonel T. D. Lewis council, No. 1635; Blakely council, No. 720, and Westfield council, No. 492. The marshal of the parade was W. H. Powell, and W. T. Jones was officer of the demonstration.

Editor of The Tribune. Sir—The proprietors of the city have arrived at the conclusion that the time has come when they must do something and do it at once, if they intend ever to better their condition. This city is today being something to be deplored. What with the large number of their craft in the city and the deplorable state of the buildings, there are large numbers of them on the verge of starvation, and those who are working are only making living wages, having virtually received a reduction in their wages of from 25 to 30 cents per day during the last eight months.

Table with 2 columns: Item and Price. 150 Masons at $2.75, 300 Laborers at $1.50, 50 Electricians at $2.00, 500 Painters at $1.00, 2,000 Men, wages for one month, $125,000.

Here you will find that it will take $125,000 to pay the men one month's wages. Now deduct the cost of the material from the $125,000 dollars quoted in the building inspector's report and you will find you have from $12,000 to $15,000 left, and these figures with the above total and you can form your own opinion as to the state of the building trade in Scranton.

Can any one tell me why, under these circumstances, the men employed in the building trade should be other than dissatisfied? This state of affairs does not entitle the men employed on it because they are not doing it for the sake of the money, but because they know it to be about as good as they can make it.

Mrs. George W. Shanley and Mrs. Chester M. Butts are the applicants. Grounds for the Proceedings. If all, or even a good part, of what his wife says is true, George W. Shanley is a very capable, energetic and successful business man, and a very capable, energetic and successful business man.

MEMORIAL DAY ORDER ISSUED

Commander A. B. Stevens Speaks to His Comrades About the Day. THE WAY IT WILL BE OBSERVED. He Calls Particular Attention to the Fact That It is Memorial and Not Decoration Day That is Observed.

The following order with reference to Memorial Day has been issued by A. B. Stevens, commander of Lieutenant Ezra S. Griffin post, Grand Army of the Republic.

Comrades: Approaching Memorial Day reminds us of our duties to our beloved dead. Let us as is most fitting unite in making the solemn services of Memorial Day as impressive as possible by appropriate exercises, and we invite to our assistance in this patriotic work that noble band of workers, the Women's Relief Corps, who have so much to do toward the success of our great organization; and also the Sons of Veterans, who must soon take up the work which we have left behind us.

Comrades, as we grow older, let us be more particular in the observance of this day which we did not only properly hold of games and frivolous amusements thereon by thoughtful people in every possible way.
