Miss Kate Johnson, of South Main

The property located at 223 South

Main avenue, has passed into the possession of B. G. Morgan. Mr. Mergan, who recently retired from the pharmacy business, intends to move the old dwelling to the rear and erect a new and substantial dwelling house in its place. The erection of this new residence, though destroying another landmark, will add to the appearance of South Main avenue. The property was formerly owned by Mr. Slocum, of

The Sunday morning service of the Plymouth Congregational church will have a charming addition. The little children from the Sherman Avenue

Mission school will sing the chorus "As You Go," They will be costumed in white, as they were on the occasion of their recent victory at the Robert Morris lodge elsteddfod, having won the chief prize in competition upon this same chorus. They will be in charge of their leader, Willie Jones,

and accompanied by their instructor,

First Welsh Congregational church will hold a strawberry festival and social in the church parlors this evening. The

The West Side Choral society will

neet at the Jackson Street Baptist church Friday evening at 8 p. m. sharp.

ent as important business will be

West Side Business Directory.

NOTARY PUBLIC.

3. G. MORGAN & SON, NOTARIES
Public, Real Estate, Foreign Exchange
and Ocean Ticket Agents, Rents collected. Prompt monthly settlements.
Office 1104 Jackson street, over Musgrave's drug store.

HARRIET J. DAVIS, FLORIST.—Cut flowers and funeral designs a specialty; 104 South Main avenue; two doors from Jackson street.

SECOND HAND FURNITURE-Cash for anything you have to sell. Furniture, Stoves, Tools, etc. Call and see the stock of J.C. King, 701 to 709 West Lack-awanna avenue, PROVIDENCE.

Mrs. Mary Gallagher and Mrs. Mary

lilbride were arraigned last evening

efore Alderman Fidler, both charged with being common scolds by Mrs.

Mary Moran. The three parties interested in the case live near each other and trouble is brewing at all times between the families. This is only one of the many law suits as a result of their frequent quarrels. After hearing the evidence the alderman compelled the defendants to furnish bail in the sum of $300 for their appearance at

Miss Mary Williams left yesterday

Miss Anna Jenkins, of Putnam

John Jervis, of Wayne avenue, spen:

street, who has been seriously ill for the past week, is rapidly recovering.

for Nanticoke where she will perma-

All members are requested to be pres-

public are invited to attend.

Young People's society of the avenue, is able to be about after a

during this week.

Cedar avenue...

Richard Phillips.

transacted.

long illness of pleurisy.

West Side and City Suburban

EVENING'S SOCIAL EVENTS.

Number of Them Held in This Part of the City Last Night.

The "Birthday party" given in the Hampton Street Methodist church last evening was a success, socially and financially. The affair was in charge of the Ladies' Aid and was held for the purpose of obtaining funds for the benefit of the church. The sum of $35 was netted in consequence. After the programme refreshments, consisting of coffee and cake, were served.

Bible class of the Washburn Street Presbyterian church held a very interesting entertainment in the church parlors last evening. The class was essisted by the X, Y, Z circle in entertaining. There was a large attendance and the exercises were thoroughly enjoyed by all. The Ladies' Ald of the Simpson Methodist church whose initials are X, Y, Z, etc., gave an "initial supper" in the per was followed by a short entertainment which was enjoyed by the large number present. This supper concludes the series of "initial suppers" which are conducted throughout the winter months by the Ladies' Aid.

The occasion of the social and musicale given by St. Mark's Lutheran league at the home of Miss Emma Krager, of North Hyde Park avenue, last night, was an exceedingly pleasant one. The returns, both socially and financially, were far beyond expectations. The older people present enjoyed themselves in pleasant conversation while the younger folks passed the time with games, singing, etc. A programme of exercises was carried out in the fore part of the evening followed by the serving of refreshments. The exercises opened with an address of welcome by the Rev. R. L. Ramer, pastor of St. Mark's church.

The friends of Mrs. M. H. Reinhardt, of Wright's court, gathered at her home last evening and treated her to a very pleasant surprise. The evening passed quickly in the enjoyment of games, dancing and all usual forms of party entertainment. At a seagonable hour refreshments were served while Dan Clements entertained with choice selections on the plons. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Reinhardt, Mr. and Mrs. Henry S. Jacobs, Mr. and Mrs. Zeigler, Mrs. Firestine, Mrs. John Moyle, Mrs. Angus, the Misses Griffiths, Dora Jacobs, Emma Mosher, Mamie Riedenbach, Susie Winebrake, Margaret Mervine, Milly Dean, Lulu Evans, Jennie Miller, James Rourke, Josiah Preacher, Jacob Kuhlman, Chas. Brenneman, Archie Corwin, Merritt and George Biddleman, Jacob Fetherman, George Kern and William New-

UNION MEETING TONIGHT.

A union meeting of the West Side churches will be held in the Washburn al on such occasions, Street Presbyterian church at 7.30 [o'clock tonight. This meeting is one of Scranton people and interest them | Miss Lizzie Jenkins, of South Main price of yesterday.

CORDONETS

IMAGINATION

Only one case. White grounds with the very newest floral and coral ef-and Corded Swiss Mulls; white or fects. Yesterday's price, 8c.

CROISETTE ZEPHYRS

a fairy tale from Dreamland.

TID-BITS IN WASH GOODS AT CLEARING PRICES.

of the world in this generation." Rev. J. P. Moffat will preside. The choir will be present and render music, having with them Edwin Bowen, formerly leading tenor of the same.

A NEW DEPARTURE.

The Delaware, Lackawanna and Western company are selling their company houses together with a small plot of land to their workmen. The district in which this is being done is that lying between the old city line on the north and Bloom avenue on the south, bounded on the east by the main tracks of the Bloomsburg division and west by Dodge avenue. It is in extent about three blocks wide and four blocks The option asked varies from long. $500 to $200 depending on the size of the lots and whether a building is situated upon it or not. Many of the employes are taking advantage of this opportunity to acquire their own homes church parlors last evening. The sup- at a reasonable price and in a convenient manner.

LITTLE BOY INJURED.

The little 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. John B. John, of 113 South Filmore avenue, met with a serious accident yesterday. The little fellow was playing with a tricycle and fell from it and in striking his arm suffered a compound fracture of his right elbok. A physician was called in and he made the little fellow as comfortable as pos-

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Fred Post and daughter, Belle, of Jackson street, have returned home from a visit at Moscow, Miss Stevens, of Towarda, is the guest of Miss Jennie Howell, of Scranton street. Miss Nellie Evans, of Hyde Park enue, is visiting friends at Pittston. Mrs. Fred Davis, of North Main avenue, is entertaining Mrs. William Morgan, of Peckville.

Miss Margaret Ward, of Towanda, is West Side visitor, Miss Amelia Fuhren, of Jeffersonville

Sullivan county, has returned home after an extended visit with Mrs. Henry Kruenberg, of 312 North Everett ave Mrs. P. F. Struppler, of South Main venue, is entertaining her mother, Mrs. Cartwright, of Germantown. Ensign Edward Wiseman, of the Salvation Army, is again confined to his home on North Hyde Park avenue by an attack of illness. Cadet Wiseman, of Brookville, Canada, is in charge of his brother's duties. Margaret, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William J. Jenkins, of South Main avenue, has so far recovered from a severe attack of measles as to be about.

Several friends of Miss Elizabeth Jenkins gathered at her home on Twelfth street last evening and spent the time in the pleasant diversions usu-

The Baptist Young People's union of the First Welsh Baptist church will be of a series of four meetings to be ad-dressed by Luther D. Wishard and Misses Emily Evans, Sarah Meredith Robert R. Gailey, who will be present and Messrs. Luther Lewis, Frank Bevat the Washburn Street church on the an, D. J. Jones, The delegates will night mentioned. The aim of these leave for Mahanoy City today. The gentlemen is to bring before the minds | convention will last until Monday, 24th.

Globe Warehouse

There isn't a yard of last season's goods in the lots submitted below. They represent the cream of reguto the store and looked the stock over previously,

the goods to be worth is the exact regular selling plays by far too large a part in the figures of so-called sales, and we wish it distinctly understood that when we use the word "worth" it represents a fact and not yesterday visiting nelatives in Oly-Dr. E. Z. Bower and wife left yes terday for an extended sojourn through the south.

nently reside.

Y., is being entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Charles Berry at their home on Mrs. William Marshall, of Oak street, Mrs. Henry Hatton left yesterday for Binghamton, N. Y., to spend a few weeks with her parents.

Mrs. Michael Reap, of West Market street, was so critically ill last evening that her life was despaired of by the attending physician.

Miss Bigelow, of Mount Pleasant, is spending a few days with the family of Mrs. T. O. Lewis, of North Main Joseph Sharar is quite ill at his home on North Main avenue,

GREEN RIDGE.

Mrs. P. W. Brown, of Capouse avenue, has recovered from a very serious illness and is once more able to be lar stock for the summer of 1897, and if you've been about.

SOUTH SIDE.

you'll at once recognize the fact that what we claim Misses Mary Reynolds and Mary Alrecht are the guests of Mrs. Edward Conley at her home on Cedar avenue Announcement is made of the coming marriage of Miss Nellie Ruane and George Heuston, both very popular people of the South Side.

The funeral of Anna daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Haen, took peace yesterday afternoon from the home of her bereaved barints, of Pittston avenue, and was very largely attended. Inerment was made in the German Catholic cemetery, James E. Boyle, of Tunkhannock, spent yesterday with South Side friends. Misses Katie and Esther Callery are DUNMORE.

visiting friends in Nanticoke

A most delightful social will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Weber, of Drinker street, this evening. It is to be given under the auspices of the Colonial Council, No. 27, Daughters of America, and gives every promise of being a most pleasant affair. person upon entering will be furnished with a ticket, the ladies to be of one kind and the gentlemen's of another The persons holding tickets having the same numbers will be partners for the evening. An excellent entertainment will be served during the evening. Everybody is heartfly welcomed to at-The "male congregation of the Adams Avenue Presbyterian church invite the public in general to a registration social to be held in the church parlors this evening. A big surprise vill be given those who attend.

has been arranged, and refreshments

Patrick Lennon is erecting a new building on Blakely street. The following were entertained by Thomas Hughes, of Blakely street, last evening: The Misses Edith Branning. f Wilkes-Barre; Hattie McCracken, Mabel Bouldry, Pheobe Englert, Bessie Sheppard, Diana Capewell, Esther Thomas, Anna Branning, Mida Eng-lert, Fannie Smith, Ella Branning and It is well known that the works of Shakespeare, as was inevitable in the case of a comparatively unlearned man, abound Mezsrs. Fred Larner, Duncan Hall. in errors of this sort. He introduces clocks into ancient Rome, and in the production of his plays dressed Caesar and Coriola-David Sears, Samuel McCracken, Alexander Thompson, William Lewis, Arch Brown, William Hall, Lawrence C. Brink and Harry Francis. The evening was spent with much enjoyment, for the charge of anachronism, though and fun and frolic reigned supreme when the guests, after partaking of a delicate repast, wended their several ways homeward.

cured with ANIMAL EXTRACTS. Free book tells how, Washington The Loyal Temperance Legion will Chemical Co., Washington, D. C.

he wrote in the age and in the country of meet in Boyle's hall this evening. The "the document," was Victor Hugo. He in-troduced into a drama of the time of Charlemagne a priest of the Sorbonne-the famous theological school of Parismeeting night has been changed from MINOOKA.

at the meeting of State Mine Investigating committee at Scranton yester-

P. F. Coyne has commenced the erec-

Monday, May 24, is the date set for

IMMENSE GRANITE MONUMENT.

It Marks the Winton Family Plot in Forest Hill Cemetery.

cemetery. It is massive but plain

There is an entire absence of ornamental carving, and the single word

The monument is the work of Edwin S. Whitney, of Delaware street,

Green Ridge, and is of light Barre

granite from the quarry of the Capital Granite company, at Barre, Vt.

PARTETONS

and even with the green sward that covers Pine Hill, rests the lower block of the monument. It is an immense and eight inches in thickness. Resting on this is a smaller block of granite, eight feet and four inches by five feet and four inches. This is one foot and three inches in thickness.

tion of the monument a block of granite seven feet and two inches long, four feet and two inches thick. The weight of the monument is thirty-five tons. The corners of the plot are de-ignated by four granite posts of the

some color as the monument, and there are six markers of the same material which point out the location of as many graves. On these markers are the following inscriptions: "W, W. Winton, 1815-1894;" "Catherine Winton, OBITUARY.

Burritt Burns, one of the ploneer residents of Forest City, passed away at his home on West Center street at 3 o'clock Wednesday afternoon. His age was nearly 61 years. The ailment that resulted in his death was cancer of the stomach. The funeral services will be held in the Presbyterian church, Rev.

P. B. Kennedy officiating, at 10 o'clock this morning, and interment will be at Elkdale, Susquehanna county. Deceas-ed leaves two children, William and Lillie Burns, of this borough, and a brother, Sanford Burns, of Herrick

Miss Maggie Langan, the 12-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Lanafternoon at 3 o'clock from typhoid

An infant child of Mr. and Mrs.

Thomas O'Rourke, of 2009 Price street, died yesterday of membraneous croup. No funeral arrangements have yet been

RIVAL BLOCKED THE DEAL.

How General Clarkson Missed Securing a Real Good Thing.

General Clarkson was the representaive of a syndicate of capitalists who wanted to control the street railway system of the City of Mexico, says

the San Francisco Wave. Dealing with Mexican officials is purely a game of patience, and as a rival syndicate entertained similar designs, the degree of forbearance exercised may be imagined. The opponent was a Spaniard and he had relations with the government which made him dangerous

However, the general dealt with the president, and finally they agreed to $11,000,000 as the price of the property To ratify the transaction the consen-

of a certain high official had to be obtained. He succumbed to pressure and agreed to sign his name next day This document was before him, the pen in his hand, when a messenger arrived from Diaz, commanding him to desist. The rival had seen Clarkson ascending the treasury stairs, and real izing by the triumphant expression of his face that the game was won, rushed off to the president and told him the general was the advance guard of an American invasion; that the United States government having decided to annex Mexico, had delegated him as its representative to obtain the car

system, and form an army of em

Lint to a Mexican of Gringo designs and there is no story too incredible for their gullibility. So positive was the effect of the story on Diaz, that all negotiations were at once dropped and won nothing, for the property has remained since in the hands of the government, until bonded recently by

CONSPICUOUS ANACHRONISMS.

A writer at this critical day must b belong to the epoch of which he is writing, Such an error, which is called an ana-chronism, subjects him to ridicule.

nus in the uniform of a British officer. One modern author who cared very little

NERVOUS TROUBLES all kinds

ory carrful not to get anything or any-

Surmounting these is the main por-ece of granite 10x7 feet, and one foot

Resting on a solid stone foundation.

'Winton" is the only lettering on It.

acy on Coyne's ground May 23.

tion of a house on Main street.

the McKay

Mathew hall.

though the Sorbonne was not founded un-though the Sorbonne was not founded un-til 400 years after Charlemagre.

This was well enough in Shakespeare's day, but when a living novelist introduced The employes of the Greenwood Nos, and 2 colleries will be paid Saturday The Minooka team and the strong typewriter into a scene which was sup-posed to have occurred at a time not more Lackawannas will battle for supremthan five years before typewriters came into common use, he was ridiculed unner-William J. Burke and Supervisor Frank Toole represented this section

But perhaps the mistake which is en-titled to be called the "champion an-achronism" of all Herature is one which s to be found in Hugo's admirable poem, "Gonz Sleeping," which deals with the story of Ruth. The poet speaks of the earth at this period as "still wet and soft from the Deluge."

According to the most commonly acceptconcert at the Father ed chronology, the flood occurred in the year 2348 B. C. By the same chronology. Ruth was married to Boaz in the year 1226 B. C. By this calculation, upward of eleven hundred years must have elapsed Justice of the Peace P. F. O'Hara has removed to Taylor borough. This will leave a vacancy in a township office and the scramble for appointbetween the two periods—which would seem to have afforded ample time, with ordinary weather, for the earth to get ment will no doubt be interesting.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE.

[Under this heading short letters of in-One of the most imposing monuments terest will be published when accompa-nied, for publication, by the writer's name. The Tribune will not be held re-sponsible for opinions here expressed. in Forest Hill cemetery is that recently erected, which marks the Winton family plot on Pine Hill, in that

Editor of The Tribune. Sir: We, the undersigned Afro-American citizens of Scranton, have formed ourselves into the Lincoln Memorial as-sociation, the purpose of which is to erect a monument sacred to the memory of the myrtyred president in this city. Charity to all, malace to none, inspire us to this effort no less than gratitude and appreciation for the inestimable blessing of liberty he vouchsafed the colored race, and their prosperity and the restoration of an undivided Union.

Two grand juries of Lackawanna county having favorably endorsed the proposition to erect a monument to commen orate the "soldiers and sailors of the late war," this city can rest with a degree of absolute assurance that the hon-orable commissioners will in no distant future creditably fulfill this lofty mis-

While justice forbids our abating one lot that admiration to which the diers and saliors" are entitled, yet the highest instincts of gratitude compel us to respectfully suggest, as a tribute that Abraham Lincoln shall also in either marble or metal take his place if not at the head, certainly along side of those who were under his great command. We ask it for a race, which, during the last war, was without a traitor, and which was neither drafted into the milltary nor the naval forces of the federal government. A class of people whose only flag was that of the stars and stripes, thus showing the sublimest allegiance to this republic, and not the slightest consideration for the departed glories of Africa. A people who today obey the constitution of the United States, who speak the same language, discharge the same obligations to our country, practically unanimous in conceding the largest liberty to all, whether religious or civil, and beyond all, Instead of Infidels, we are unflinching believers, not only in the Bible, but in a matchless and ever-living God as well.

'Tis well to state just here that in 1865 a colored washer woman of Virginia gave the first sum, which was five dollars, toward the first monument in mem-ory of Abraham Lincoln, and that mon-1818-1895;" "A. H. Winton, 1838-1896;"
"A. J. Winton, 1829-1876;" "Daniel S. Winton, 1869-1875;" "Thomas Livey, ument stands today in Washington, D. C., the entire money being raised by the olored race.

The first on our programme will be a ecture by T. Thomas Fortane, editor of the New York Age, on "Abraham Lin-coln," at Penn Avenue Baptist church, Friday evening, May 21, 1897. At which time Madame George C. Overton, of Wilkes-Barre, a very versatile and tal-ented vocalist in her discriptive solos, will entertain. J. A. Gloster, of Toronto, Canada. Is at elocutionist of rare tainments, and will undoubtedly give the greatest satisfaction. Admission 25 cents.

Respectfully. Alamanza Porter. Horace H. Hall, George W. Brown, S. J. Porter.

How They Say It. Talking about pronunciation, to return o our mutton, let us take this sentence ind see how it is spoken in various parts In New York-The difference between gan, of Maple street, died Tuesday ther North and Sowth carries with it fever. She had been ill only a short something abowt which we can't tork while traveling on the cars. In Boston—The dif-fee-rens between ther Sawarth and Sauth kerries with it somehing abowt which we carn't talk while travel-ing on the cars. In Virginia-The diffuns 'tween th' Nawth an' Sowth ca'ies with it supmn abut which we can't talk while travlin' or n' kyars. In South Carolina and Southern Georgia -Th' differns between th' Nawth Suth ke'les with it sumthin abut w'lch we carn't tawk whirl trevelin' on th' cars, Away Down East-Thee diffunce 'tween th' Nor-r-rth an' Saouth kayes with it sump-thin abaout which we caln't tark while travelin' on the cars.-New York An Inopportune Moment. "We have had a dispute," said the boarding house keeper, as Strapley took his seat at the breakfast table. "Indeed," said Strapley, corraling the "Yes; I said you were six weeks behind in your board, and Mr. Bean says you're ahead. Will you settle it?" "Not this morning," replied Strapley,-Yonkers Statesman.

MR. CHAS. LAW, OF PITTSTON, PA and well known all over the State, says: "I have been completely cured of catarrh of 40 years' standing by using Dr. Moore's Catarrh Clarkson retired, However, the rival Cure, and have recommended it to many people with the same beneficial results.

> FOR SALE BY GEO. P. PARTON, PHARMACIST Penn Ave. 25c. and 50c. a Box.

> > CO. C. 13th REGIMENT, N. G. P. DAY and EVENING

EXCURSION To Lake Ariel, Saturday, May 29

Baloon ascension and daring parachute de-scending on a trapeze by Prof. Baker. Horizontal bar performance by Profs. Arm-strong and LaMar. Trains teave for the lake every hour. Last train for Scranton leaves at 12 o'clock. Tickets-Adults 75c, Children 50c

THE FASHION,

308--Lackawanna Avenue. -- 308

A Shirt Waist Treat For Scranton.

We open up today a manufacturer's surplus stock of Ladies' Shirt Waists. They must be sold by the end of the week. You know our rule: "Small prices, small profits, a quick turnover."

BUT SUCH PRICES AS THESE SPEAK FOR THEMSELVES.

50 dozen of Waists in an elegant assortment, sizes 32 to 44, made in best of style, well worth from 60c, to 75c. This sale. 25 dozen of Waists made of Percales, Lawns, Lappet Mulls, and in all sizes, displayed elsewhere for 98c. This sale.

16 dozen of Walsts with gilt and sliver stripe, guaranteed not to fade, sizes 32 to 40, sold for $1,49 elsewhere. This sale......

White Lawn Waists, a beautiful line. Prices, 50c., 75c., $1, $1.25, $1.50, $2 MILLINERY SPECIAL REDUCTION THIS WEEK.

THE FROTHINGHAM, Philadelphia Lawn Mowers,

Wagner & Reis, Managers, John L. Kerr, Acting Manager. The Greatest Popular Priced Performance ever offered in Scranton. This afternoon at 2.30. This evening at 8.15. and every afternoon and evening this week, Last Performances Tomorrow.

ELROY'S BIG STOCK COMPANY

Supporting the young romantic actor, J. Harvey Cook, and the brilliant com-edienne, Miss Lottle Church, in a repedicine, Miss Lottle Church, in a representation of great plays.

Matince Today "PARADISE ALLEY"
This Evening "SEA OF ICE" Don't miss the daily dime matinee.

Seats now on sale for the entire engagement.

THE MURRAY HILL MURRAY HILL PARK, THOUSAND ISLANDS.

The best located and best furnished hotel on the St. Lawrence river. Accommodations for 300 guests.

Opens June 25th, 1897. F. R. WHITE, Prop.

Best in the Market.

49c

Drexel Lawn Mowers,

Best cheap mower made. Prices $2.50, $2.75, $3.00 and $3.25.

Baldwin's Dry Air Refrigerators

All sizes. The most perfect refrigerator manufactured.

Professional Directory.

Physicians and Surgeons.

DR. BATESON, 337 N. WASHINGTON avenue, 10 a. m. to 4 p. m. Tumors, Skin, Surgical and Nervous Diseases a Spe-DR. C. L. FREY HAS REMOVED HIS offices to the Jewell Building, 305 Spruce

MARY A. SHEPHERD, M. D., HOME-opathist, No. 228 Adams avenue.

a, m. to 6 p. m. DR. W. E. ALLEN, 512 NORTH WASH-

DR. ANNA LAW, 308 WYOMING AVE. Office hours, 9-11 a, m., 1-3 p, m., 7-8 p, m. DR. L. M. GATES, ROOMS 207 AND 208 Board of Trade building. Office hours, 8 to 9 a. m., 2 to 3 and 7 to 8 p. m. Resi-dence 309 Madison avenue.

DR. C. L. FREAS, SPECIALIST IN Rupture, Truss Fitting and Fat Reduc-tion. Office telephone 1363, Hours; 10 to

DR. S. W. L'AMOREAUX, OFFICE 234 Adams, Residence, 1318 Mulberry, Chron-ic diseases, lungs, heart, kidneys, and genito-urinary organs a specialty, Hours 1 to 4 p. m.

N. G. ROOK, VETERINARY SUR-geon. Horses, Cattle and Dogs treated, Hospital, 124 Linden street, Scranton, Telephone 2672.

EDWARD W. THAYER, ATTORNEY, Rooms 312-13-14 Commonwealth Bidg.

JEFFREYS & RUDDY, ATTORNEYS at-law, Commonwealth Building. WARREN & KNAPP, ATTORNEYS and Counsellors-at-law, Republican building, Washington avenue, Scranton, JESSUP & JESSUP, ATTORNEYS AND Counsellors at law, Commonwealth building, Washington avenue. W. H. JESSUP, W. H. JESSUP, JR, FRANK T. OKELL, ATTORNEY-AT-Law, Room 5, Coal Exchange, Scranton, Pa.

SAMUEL W. EDGAR, ATTORNEY-AT Law, Office, Wyoming ave., Scranton.

C. COMEGYS, 221 SPRUCE STREET. D. B. REPLOGLE, ATTORNEY—LOANS negotiated on real estate security. Mears building, corner Washington ave-nue and Sprace street. B. F. KILLIAM, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW, 129 Wyoming avenue, Scranton, Pa.

JAS. J. H. HAMILTON, ATTORNEY-at-Law, 45 Commonwealth bidg., Scran-ton.

WATSON, DIEHL, HALL & KEMMER-ER-Attorneys and Counsellors-at-Law; Traders' National Bank Building; rooms 6, 7, 8, 9 and 16; third floor.

BARRING & M'SWEENEY, COMMON-wealth building. Interstate Secret Ser-vice Agency.

434 Lackawanna Ave.

Architects

PERCIVAL J. MORRIS, ARCHITECT, Board of Trade Building.

E. I., WALTER, ARCHITECT, OFFICE rear of 696 Washington avenue.

435 Spruce St., cor. Wash, ave., Scranton,

FREDERICK L. BROWN, ARCHITECT, Price building, 126 Washington avenue, Scranton.

T. I. LACEY & SON, ARCHITECTS, Traders' National Bank.

Dentists.

DR. F. L. M'GRAW, 805 SPRUCE

DR. E. Y. HARRISON, 113 S. MAIN AVE.

DR. C. C. LAUBACH, 115 Wyoming ave.

R. M. STRATTON, OFFICE COAL EX-

WELCOME C. SNOVER, 421 LACKA, ave. Hours, 9 to 1 and 2 to 5.

Dressmaker.

MRS. M. E. DAVIS, 430 Adams avenue,

Wire Screens.

JOS. KUETTEL, REAR 511 LACKA-wanna avenue, Scranton, Pa., manufac-turer of Wire Screens.

Schools.

SCHOOL OF THE LACKAWANNA, Scranton Pa., prepares boys and girls for college or business; thoroughly trains young children, Catalogue at re-

MISS WORCESTER'S KINDERGARTEN and School, 412 Adams avenue, Spring term April 13. Kindergarten $10 per term,

G. R. CLARK & CO., SEEDMEN AND Nurserymen: store 146 Washington ave-nue; green house, 1350 North Main ave-nue; store telephope, 782.

Hotels and Restaurants.

THE ELK CAFE, 125 and 127 FRANK-lin avenue. Rates reasonable.

CRANTON HOUSE, NEAR D., L. & W. passenger depot. Conducted on the European pian. VICTOR KOCH, Prop.

Miscellaneous.

Rates reasonable.
P. ZEIGLER, Proprietor.

REV. THOMAS M. CANN, WALTER H. BUELL,

DR. H. F. REYNOLDS, OPP. P. O.

building, Scranton.

VIS HANCOCK.

DR. A. TRAPOLD, SPECIALIST IN Diseases of Women, corner Wyoming avenue and Spruce street, Scranton. Of-fice hours, Thursday and Saturdays, 9 street.

FRANK E. BOYLE, ATTORNEY AND counsellor-at-law. Burr building, rooms 13 and 14, Washington avenue.

PATTERSON & WILCOX, TRADERS' National Bank Building. ALFRED HAND, WILLIAM J. HAND, Attorneys and Counsellors, Common-wealth building. Rooms 19, 20 and 21.

JAMES W. OAKFORD, ATTORNEY-at-Law. Rooms 514, 515 and 516, Board of Trade Building.

L. A. WATRES, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW 423 Lackawanna ave., Scranton, Pa, C. R. PITCHER, ATTORNEY-AT-LAW

Detectives.

BAUER'S ORCHESTRA-MUSIC FOR balls, picnics, parties, receptions, wed-dings and concert work furnished. For terms address R. J. Bauer, conductor, 117 Wyoming avenue, over Hulbert's MEGARGEE BROTHERS, PRINTERS' supplies, envelopes, paper bags, twine. Warehouse, 120 Washington avenue, Scranton, Pa. FRANK P. BROWN & CO., WHOLE-sale dealers in Woodware, Cordage and Oil Cloth, 720 West Lackawanna ave. HOMAS AUBREY, EXPERT Ac-countant and auditor. Rooms 19 and 20, Williams Building, opposite postoffice. Agent for the Rex Fire Extinguisher.

Printing.

THE TRIBUNE PUBLISHING CO., North Washington Avenue-Linotype Composition of all kinds quickly done. Facilities unsurpassed in this region.

When in doubt what to use for Servous Debility, Loss of Power, mpotency, Atrophy, Varicoccle and ther weaknesses, from any cause,

Globe Warehouse

APPLIQUE COUVERTS

Sale Price 5c Sale Price 10c

black grounds; soft colorings in Persian effects, Yesterday's price,

Sale Price 71/2c

RAYURE FANTASIES ORGANDIES and Mimosas, one of the season's leading novelties. Black or delicately-tinted grounds, with coral or

SALE IS NOW ON.

Lace effect grounds with large floral designs, which have the appearance of being laid on, as is signified in the name. Yesterday's price, 15c.

LAPPET MULLS Simpson & Son's best goods; white or black grounds; floral designs that are equal in effect to the finest imported productions. Yesterday's Sale Price 14c

An assorted lot; white or tinted grounds; elegant floral styles, Yesterday's price for the poorest in spray effects. Yesterday's price, Sale Price 10c Sale Price 121/2c