UNION SERVICES HELD.

Addresses by Luther D. Wishard and Robert R. Gailey.

A large and interested audience greeted Luther D, Wishard and Robert Galley at the Washburn Street Presbyterian church last evening. It was the occasion of the second of four similar meetings, known as "union services," at which the above named gen-tlemen will speak in this city. The use of the word "union" signifies the absence of denomination, or rather the merging of the separate denominational movements into one general movement for the purposes of evangelization

Rev. J. B. Moffatt, pastor of the church, presided, and introduced Mr. Galley as the first speaker. In the course of his remarks, Mr. Galley outlined the intention of this new movement, its progress, and means of sup-Each denomination has joined port. with the Young Men's Christian assoclations all over the world to further evangelical movements upon undenom-inational lines. The colleges and universities of the world will be entered by chosen men for the purpose of spreading this movement, and already great progress has been made in Germany, France, China, Japan and elsewhere.

Mr. Wishard then spoke in the same strain. He cited several instances where the movement had been recently tried and had proved successful in each instance. The remarks of both gentlemen proved very entertaining. and threw much new light upon the carrying of the Gospel throughout the world. The choir of the church, assisted by Edwin Bowen, tenor, sang several selections. The session was concluded with a prayer by Rev. S. F. John McFadden, of Chestnut street. Matthews.

ROYAL ARCANUM ENTERTAIN.

Lackawanna council, No. 1112, Royal Arcanum held an exceedingly interesting session at the Robert Morris lodge rooms last evening. E. Thayer and Thomas Roderick were candidates for initiation and the degree of initiation | was conferred by the degree team from Electric City council, 1541, South Side, The degree team consisted of the following: Past Regent Edward Goddard, Regent Ambrose Herz, Vice Regent John H. Brooks, Orator F. J. Dickert, Chaplain A. J. Hewitt, Guide Frank Warnick, Collector Oscar Gram-There was a large attendance, numbering about 100, all members of the order. Among them were several visitors from Electric City council, being: Peter F. Yoos, H. J. Spruks, G. S. Pellett, Frank Fuhr, Frank Wenigar, George Hausroth and H. report of the executive committee in reference to the celebration of Royal Arcanum day at Harvey's lake on June 23. Flattering progress was reported and the fifteen councils who are to participate are very enthusiastic. A. Colborn, jr., has been chosen orator the day. Joseph A. Langfitt and S. Trent, both of Pittsburg, will also heard. An advance sheet of the Royal Arcanum day souvenir was submitted for approval by A. E. Vorhis, chairman of the press and advertising committee. It proved a delightful surprise and was unanimously endorsed by those present. The souvenir will contain printed matter of moment in onnection with the order and beautiful half tones of the prominent participators in the day's exercises. Much credit is due to the efforts of the chairman for this handsome souvenir.

SEMI-ANNUAL "CYMANFA." Yesterday afternoon a private preminary session of those ministers, who arrived in the city, was held in the Welsh Calvinistic Methodist church on South Main avenue. The session was of the nature of a consultation day's business sessions, was mapped out. The whole "Cymanfa" will be conducted in the Welsh tongue. Rev. John O. Jones, of Wilkes-Barre, will be moderator, and Rev. John Evans, cretary. In the evening Rev. John O. Jones, Wilkes-Barre, preached upon he purpose and aims of the "Cyman-This morning, at 9 o'clock, the first regular business session will be held and will last throughout the day. Tomorrow the regular Sabbath vices will be conducted and each Welsh church will have its pulpit filled at the evening service by a visiting minister.

JOHN M'FADDEN BURIED.

A high mass of requiem was celebrated in St. Patrick's church yesterday Rev. Father J. E. Whelan was celebrant, and he was assisted by Fathers Dunne and McNally, Rev. Father Whelan preached an eloquent funeral sermon. The service was attended by a large number of the deceased's friends. Following the mass the remains were borne to the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery, where they were laid in final rest. The following acted as pallbearers: Frank L., Joseph, Thomas, and M. J. McLain, George Weber and John Mullen. Anthony Mc-Hugh and Michael Reap acted as flower-bearers.
