ANDREWS APPROPRIATION DISCUSSED

The Bill Providing for $66,000 to Pay Expenses of Investigation Causes a Warm Debate -- The Grady Resolution Calling for Committee to Inquire Into the Insurance Busi- yeas 18, nays 134. ness of the State Also Provokes Eloquence.

Harrisburg, Pa., May 25.-In the senate this morning Mr. Vaughan introduced a bill to abolish the restriction as to rate of interest to be paid for temporary loans in building and loan associations.

When the bill providing for an appropriation of some $66,000 to pay the expenses of the Andrews Senatorial Investigating committee came up for final passage a warm discussion was precipitated.

On final passage the bill passed by a vote of 28 to 11,

The senate passed on second reading the act relating to criminal libel. The senate adjourned until tomorrow.

The resolutions adopted at a meeting of citizens of Philadelphia yesterday were presented to the house by Mr. Smith, of Philadelphia. The resolutions protest against the passage of the "Ripper" bill, the Rodgers classification bill, the Spatz bill and the

The house started in today to hold three sessions with bills on third reading as the order of business. Speaker Boyer is detained at his home by illness and Mr. Boiles, of Philadelphia, presided. During the morning session eleven bills were considered on second reading or special orders. Those of most general interest are the three reform bills, endorsed by the state Republican convention. They are the non-political interference, non-assessment and poll tax bills, and were tak en up in the order named. They will be considered tomorrow on special orders on third reading and final pas-

Mr. Stewart, of Philadelphia, was opposed to the resolution but he believed if the committee was appointed it would be used to threaten the insurance companies connected with the scandal with adverse legislation if they submitted the evidence which they claimed to have against certain senat-

Mr. Voorhecs said he would go as far as his colleague (Mr. Stewart) to unearth the insurance scandal. This resolution has no connection with that investigation and it was unfair to try to couple the two.

The main question was finally put and a roll call was taken on the resolution, the house refusing to concur by

BASE BALL UNIFORM CONTEST.

The Tribune's amateur base ball contest has excited an interest that was not expected when it was started several weeks ago. About 60,000 votes have been received and more than that number will be collected by the con-testing clubs before June 26, when a decision will be reached. There are to be second and third prizes as well as a first. The first prize is a set of ten uniforms, the second a catcher's mask, mit and protector, and the third a half-dozen regulation balls and three Louis-

Neckwear. The man of many neckties is not necessarily an extravagant man. There's a good many kinds of neckties. There's the 50c, tie that looks like a 25c. tie. There's the 25c. tie that shows plainly it's a 25c. tie. Then there's a 25c. tie that looks like a 5oc. tie. That's the kind we are showing in our corner window. They cost more per dozen than most merchants will pay for a 25c. tie. But we give it gladly. Here they are in every conceivable shape

and color. Ready tied and the kind you tie yourself. Choice
