

ACCIDENT TO TALLY-HO A Train Strikes a Coach and Five Persons Are Instantly Killed.

FIFTEEN BADLY WOUNDED Some of the Dead Were Frightfully Mangled.

The Body of Lester W. Roberts Ground to Pieces—Almost Without Warning the Crash Came and the Tally-ho Passengers Had No Time to Escape—The Coach Carried for Some Distance on the Engine.

New York, May 31.—Five young people were killed and a number of others injured in an accident which occurred this afternoon at Valley Stream, Long Island. A tally-ho with a party of twenty-one excursionists from the Greene Avenue Baptist church, Brooklyn, which started out for a day's outing through Long Island was struck by a train on the Long Island railroad at the Merrick Boulevard crossing, and these were instantly killed:

- THE DEAD. GEORGE F. FARSHLEY, JR. WILLIAM GILCHRIST, JR. WINSLOW LEWIS. LESTER W. ROBERTS. MISS DORA BUTCH, all of Brooklyn, N. Y. THE INJURED. The injured were: EMMA BRIDGE. CLARA STUART. MISS ANNA ANDREWS. LAWRENCE BARNES, JR. WALTER WALLBROOK. JOHN LEWIS. EDWARD MCORMICK. EARL BARNES. MISS FARSHLEY. TILLIE HORN. EDNA FULMER. RICHARD BATES. BESSIE GILSON. MISS DE BETHE. MISS RAY STILLMAN.

Some of the dead were frightfully mangled. The body of Lester W. Roberts was ground to pieces. The body of Miss Burch was so badly mangled, Winslow Lewis had his neck broken, both legs were broken and his head was badly lashed and he was severely cut about the body.

The crash came almost without warning, and the occupants of the coach had no time to make any effort to escape. Before the first of them knew of the impending danger, the train was upon them and the coach was upset and the engine pushing it along the rails, the dead and injured being cut and mangled beneath it.

The train which struck the tally-ho was bound east from Mineola. It was not running fast when the accident happened, and accounts differ as to whether the whistle was blown. The double track of the tally-ho had crossed the track and had the front wheels of the coach upon the rails when the pilot of the engine was seen by the driver. He gave the horses a cut with the whip, but it was too late, and a moment later the crash came.

The heavy engine, driven forward by the momentum, raised the coach and a mass of persons from the ground and hurled it forward. As the engine came into sight, the women of the party uttered screams which were ended by the crash, and then followed by screams of agony. When the engine struck the coach the occupants were in all positions as they endeavored to jump to their feet upon realizing their danger. Some had gained their feet, while others had made an effort to reach the side steps. Others were too frightened to move, had clutched the seats or the side rail and waited for the crash.

FOR RELIEF OF ELIZUR SAGE.

Boston Woman Starts a Fund to Aid Uncle Russell's Starving Nephew. Joliet, Ill., May 31.—Five dollars was received here today by a prominent city official as the starter of a fund for the relief of Elizur Sage, nephew of Russell Sage, the New York Croesus. Ignorant of the fact that by dint of saving himself and family and sending a sick son to the poorhouse to die, Elizur had paid off the $50 mortgage on his humble home in Channahon, given to secure a loan of that sum from his millionaire uncle, the money was sent by a philanthropic Boston woman.

Miss Williams' Slip of a Key a Benefit to New Jersey. Trenton, N. J., May 31.—The very excusable error which Miss Margaret Williams made in transcribing the election bill and which necessitated the calling of an extra session of the legislature, proves to have been a blessing in disguise, for the state is saved about $40,000. The error was a very simple one, Miss Williams' nimble and graceful fingers were too quick and she clicked off the word "provided" instead of prohibited, that was all. Unfortunately, somebody was careless
