EASTERN LEAGUE BASE BALL GAMES

The Bisons and the Canucks Each Won a Game.

SCRANTON IS IN SECOND PLACE

Gave the Wilkes-Barre Barons a Double Dose and Profit by Only One Win Each for the Ponies and Stars--Only One Game Was Preceded by Rain--Miners, Stars and Ponies Are in a Bunch.

Second place! Scranton was the only club to win both its games yesterday, and in consequence the Miners are in second place. The Stars, third, and Ponies fourth, but with such a slight difference in their percentages that today may see them all changed about.

Morning Results. Scranton 5, Wilkes-Barre 1; Buffalo 1, Springfield 7; Syracuse 8, Rochester 7.

Afternoon Results. Scranton 9, Wilkes-Barre 4; Rochester 3, Syracuse 4 (Ten Innings); Toronto 9, Buffalo 6; Springfield at Providence, rain.

Today's Games. SCRANTON AT WILKES-BARRE. TORONTO AT BUFFALO. ROCHESTER AT SYRACUSE. PROVIDENCE AT SPRINGFIELD.

EASY FOR THE MINERS. Won Both Games, Though the Barons Were a Little Obstinate in the First at Wilkes-Barre.

A base on balls, a wild pitch, and a single was what gave Wilkes-Barre its only run in the afternoon game. Four singles and a three-baser was all that fell to the portion of the Barons of Harper's pitching and that very largely explains why they were shut out in all but one inning. While Sheehan was hit for eleven singles he kept them distributed so that when the contest ended, the Miners had won by only the close margin of 3 to 1.

It was circus day in Wilkes-Barre and that attracted to the town with its street parade thronged the Allegheny city streets in the morning but there were only 1,594 paid admissions at the game. Of these, possibly two hundred came with their sympathies with the Miner team, at least that appeared to be the right figure judging from the volume of their rooting.

HITS WERE SCATTERED. At no time before the game ended did the Miners have it safe, for Sheehan was stingy in parceling out his hits, with or without men on base. Wilkes-Barre was first at bat. It was the third inning when the Miners made their first two runs on Gunson's single, Harper's life, Meany's single, which scored Gunson, Meany's steal, O'Brien's life and Beards' single.

MINERS FIELDING. It was Gunson's first game for over three weeks, since his thumb was sprained by a foul tip in one of the games with Providence. He backed well for Harper and flagged Odwell, the first runner who tried to purloin second, so neatly in the second inning that no further attempts were made in that direction. The Miners' three errors cost nothing. Beards' was on a muffed fly in short left-center, Massey fumbled a slow grounder and O'Brien muffed a fly after he had made a hard run for it toward second. Nearly all the infield work fell on Beards who accepted nine of his ten chances.

Great Is "Pop" Morse.

"Come, boys, here we go into second place," said Manager Sandy. The "boys" came, and into second place they went. It was just as the second game opened and 1,058 pairs of eyes were watching to see what would happen. They saw fifteen hits made off Coakley in one hour and forty minutes and saw "Pop" Morse hold the Barons down while his confederate did the surprising.

For seven innings only two hits were made off Morse, and then Umpire Keefe went lame and rendered a bad decision at second, which gave the Barons their only two runs, and proved very near being shut out, put an error on Bonner in the midst of his phenomenal fielding, and kept the Miners from having a clean error column.

It was not a holiday crowd for Scranton had its Decoration and circus ring on Saturday, but the fans couldn't let pass unnoticed the Miners' three wins from Wilkes-Barre out of four games played, and they came out in goodly numbers for a wash day. Two hundred of the unterrified came up from Wilkes-Barre, a flattering testimonial to their base ball representatives who are hopefully in the seven-hole.

AND BONNER, TOO. Bonner was as fleet and snappy in his field work as a National star, and accepted 13 out of 14 chances. His record would have been clean but for Keefe's decision that Coakley was safe at second on a force hit. Bonner had dropped the ball on Morse's assist, but scrambled for it and lay on his stomach with one hand on the sack, and the other on the ball when Coakley reached the base. Keefe couldn't see it that way, and so Bonner's performance was spoiled, but through no fault of his own. He hit at a 600 gait.

FOUR SCRANTON SINGLES. Bonner's single, Diggin's had thrown to catch him off first. Maguire's outfield fly and singles by Gunson, Meany and O'Brien earned the runs. Two more were manufactured in the ninth on Boyd's walk, Bonner's single, Maguire's outfield fly and Gunson's single.

WILKES-BARRE. Wilkes-Barre's modest portion up to the eighth had been only two hits, and three bases on balls. The nearest they came to tallying up to that time was following Sharrott's three-baser with one out in the third, when he was forced at the plate.
