"Wet Grounds" in Wilkes-Barre Yesterday Was Somewhat of a Faux Summary of the Wilkes-Barre-Scranton Series.

The Miners were flim-flamed into a tie with Syracuse in second place yesterday, thanks to the easy conscience of the Wilkes-Barre management.

At 12:30 o'clock this morning the Scranton and Wilkes-Barre clubs left here in a special sleeping car for the north.

The club goes away with all the players in good condition, excepting Walters who will be left behind, and with no excuses to offer, barring injuries, if they fail to win less than half their games on the trip.

The chief weakness of the club up to a week ago, was its pitchers, than whom there are no four better in any team in the league but who were handicapped by trivial physical complaints.

It is well known that today, will Gilton will probably be selected as he is better acquainted with the weaknesses of the Bison batsmen and can be better coached by Gunson or Boyd.

The penny-wise and pound-foolish idea has been put into play by the Wilkes-Barre management in the release yesterday of Second Baseman Sam Mills and Pitcher Bush and L. Smith.

A dispatch from Wilkes-Barre last night stated that McDade, an amateur pitcher from Philadelphia, had been signed by the Wilkes-Barre club.

The summary of the runs, hits and errors of the five Wilkes-Barre-Scranton games is as follows:

This shows that the Miners averaged about 7 runs, 13 hits and 2 errors per game, and Wilkes-Barre 4 runs, 8 hits and 3 errors.

Neither Abe Lezotte nor Jim Fields got a hit yesterday.

Syracuse has released Sheoran to Rochester and has released Grove unconditionally.

was during the day in a condition which made them also liable to ailing.

"Dad Clarke put up a neat little conundrum at the next morning, Amos, grounds in '95," says Lester German.

Eastern League. About the only consolation Scranton derives from the result of yesterday's game was the defeat of Buffalo by Toronto.
