TEN PAGES. SCRANTON, JUNE 2, 1907.

Commissioner Calhoun denies that he talked with Hahn for purposes of American publication. So be it; Spain is bound to be troublesome just the same, and denials are wasted.

A Veto to the Point. Governor Hastings' message accompanying his veto of the bill increasing the yearly pay of the sheriff's deputies in Philadelphia from $1,000 to $2,500.

An Equitable Test. An explanation has at last been vouchsafed of the curious attitude of the Democratic and Populist elements in the senate membership toward the pending tariff bill.

The Rule of the Road. Within a week after the ruling by Judge Wilson of Philadelphia that a bicycle rider should yield the right of way to a heavy vehicle another Philadelphia jurist, Judge McMichael, in an exhaustive opinion, takes seemingly the opposite view.

Repugnant. With reference to the suggestion that stamp duties be reimposed in this country as a means of providing revenue, the Chicago Times-Herald estimates that a tax of 2 cents on bank or commercial paper—the tax which is contemplated by the present advocates of this method of collecting federal income—would yield in the neighborhood of $18,000,000.

Charges Which Must Be S. Into the inner history back of Judge James Gay Gordon's unsparing attack upon the recent and present management of the Eastern penitentiary we have no insight.

OUR READINESS FOR DEFENCE. We see no reason for supposing that war with Spain will result from anything now proposed in congress. Certainly the recognition of Cuban belligerency would not be a cause bell, under international law; and nobody thought of so constructive a recognition of Confederate belligerency by European powers, although the Confederate cause did not finally succeed.

THE FUTURE OF STEEL. The day is not far distant when "puddled iron" will become a rarity. Samples will be preserved in the cabinets of technological institutions, just as the specimens of copper and iron implements taken from the ruins of Pompeii are carefully preserved today.

HER OBJECT. There was one visitor at the white house yesterday who succeeded in seeing the president without any one to introduce her. She was a very pretty girl, stylishly dressed, and as she came tripping up the stairs everybody in the corridor outside the president's door made way for her.

THE USED-TO-BE. Beyond the purple, hazy tress of summer's utmost boundaries; Beyond the sands—beyond the seas— Beyond the range of eyes like these, and only in the reach of the enraptured gaze of Memory.

OUR ALTERATION SALE IS STILL GOING ON. We are offering great bargains in Lamps, Dinner Sets, Toilet Sets and Fancy Brica-brac.

man who arraigns them is easily their peer. A judge on one of the most important benches of the commonwealth has brought these charges and they must be sifted to the uttermost limit. The committee before which testimony has lately been taken relative to the management of the Eastern penitentiary is a general committee with a roving commission to inquire into the broad subject of the state's care of the insane. It seems to us that such a tribunal is hardly the place before which to try officials accused of perjury and murder. Judge Gordon will doubtless at the proper time be prepared to take steps to secure a trial of his sensational accusations in a place where there will be ample facility for the thorough and unparrying application of the judicial probe.

The Philadelphia Record rounds out the twentieth year of its publication in the enjoyment of a larger circulation and a more generous business patronage than ever before. The Record is a most carefully conducted journal in every department, and the success which has come to its distinguished proprietor and directing head, Mr. Singery, through its publication, has been richly deserved.

But this is far from being true. Slowly but surely the Bessemer method is being understood by our better systems. The most formidable competitor of the Bessemer process is the open hearth process, and some far-seeing metallurgists are now beginning to predict that the latter method is destined to supplant the former, just as the Bessemer supplanted the puddler, owing to the superiority of the product. It is a curious fact not generally known that a piece of steel made by the open hearth process is not only heavier, but also more brittle than a piece of steel made by the Bessemer process, and that the latter method is destined to supplant the former, just as the Bessemer supplanted the puddler, owing to the superiority of the product.

is perfected beyond what is publicly known. As to our ships, the navy is far stronger today than it has been for many years. To say nothing of a dozen old single-turret monitors, which might be of use in defending smaller ports, we have the big battleships Iowa, Indiana, Massachusetts, and Oregon; the second-class but powerful battleships Maine and Texas; six double-turret monitors, the Puritan, the Monterey, the Manitoah, the Monadnock, the Amphitrite, and the Terror; and finally the fine armored cruisers Brooklyn and New York. These and the ram Katabdin represent our armored fleet alone. In unarmored cruisers and gunboats, several of them very fast and some of them heavily armed, we are also strong, while the torpedo boats are beginning to come forward in numbers that make them a genuine source of reliance for harbor defence.

THE GREAT ENCAMPMENT. From the Buffalo News. Preparations are steadily going forward for the thirty-first National Encampment of the Grand Army of the Republic, which will be held in Buffalo, N. Y., from June 23 to 28.
