ICE HOUSE TWICE AFIRE. Firemen Called Back to Finish Their Work. S. L. Gallen's ice house and wood shed on Kressler court in the rear of his Adams avenue residence, was ablaze twice last evening, once at 5:45 o'clock and again at 8:20. The structure took fire in some unaccountable manner, but before the flames had gained much headway the central-city firemen, summoned by an alarm from box 25, were on the scene and subdued them. Some sparks which had escaped the attention of the firemen lodged in the sawdust packed between the roof and ceiling and after smouldering for three hours broke out into a blaze. The companies were summoned and once more they extinguished the blaze. To make sure that they would not be called out a third time Chief Hickey had his men tear off the entire roof and remove the sawdust.

MR. GRIER ENTERS A PROTEST

He Gives Mr. Dunning to Understand That When One of the Constituents of the Member of the Third Wants a Job He'll Have to Get It--A Councilman Who Says That a Reform is Not Possible--Reveals His Advantages for the Sentiment.

As predicted in The Tribune yesterday the letter of Street Commissioner Dunning is causing a very lively howl among the city fathers. Several of them called on Mr. Dunning yesterday and pointedly told him what they thought about his purpose to assume entire charge of the workings of his department.

One of the first to enter his protest was James Grier, ex-president of the common council and the Third ward's present representative in that body. Mr. Grier wanted to know what was the use of being a councilman anyway if a man can't take care of his constituents. When he wants one in any of the streets of the city he will ward that man will be taken care of and the street commissioner might just as well know that first as last, was what Mr. Grier said.

Mr. Dunning assured Mr. Grier that it was not his intention to invite a war with the councilmen, but he wants to live up to the law and to that end had asked the support and co-operation of the councilmen. He will, of course, consult councilmen about the men employed on the streets of the city, but not wholly satisfactory to Mr. Grier, but he departed in a somewhat pleasanter frame than he arrived in. Other councilmen called who had a story similar to that of Mr. Grier to tell.

MAYOR SAW IT. Mayor Baley, when seen by a Tribune reporter yesterday afternoon, said that Mr. Dunning submitted the letter to him before copies were addressed to the councilmen. He thought it was a step in the right direction and told Mr. Dunning that he does not anticipate much opposition from the councilmen for he believes they will see the necessity of some such system as Mr. Dunning suggests.

A councilman with whom a Tribune reporter talked yesterday does not echo the opinion of the mayor and he furthermore said that in his opinion the present street commissioner will not be able to work any reforms in the matter of expending ward appropriations.

"The office of street commissioner," he said, "is a political office and the man who fills it must stand by his friends and do a number of things that he probably would not consider for a moment if he was otherwise situated. It will be unwise and indiscreet for Mr. Dunning to get at loggerheads with the councilmen and I don't believe he will do it. If he does they will simply get back at him by tying his hands and making it impossible for him to do anything in their wards without being guided by them absolutely."

QUOTES THE ORDINANCE. "The section of the ordinance which Mr. Dunning quotes contains the following: 'Provided, that no foremen, laborers, or assistants shall be employed and no contracts made, materials purchased, or work done, in any ward of the city, except by and with the advice and consent of the select and common councilmen of the ward in which the material is to be used or the work performed.'"

"You will observe that this provision makes the street commissioner dependent upon the councilmen and if they insist on a strict compliance with the letter of this ordinance they can make a good deal of unpleasantness for Mr. Dunning and can greatly hamper him in his work."

"I have devoted some time to a thoughtful consideration of this matter of expending ward appropriations and I don't believe that it can be remedied a great deal. If the money could be expended so that the city would receive value for each dollar it knows that there would be a great improvement in our streets but I really fear that an honest return will never be obtained and for the very good reason that no one expects to do much work if they are employed by the city."

"Although the city pays higher wages to laborers than any contractor the minute a man finds himself on the city's pay roll he thinks it is his duty to kill as much time as possible. The men employed by councilmen in the various wards do quite as honest a day's work as the regular employees of the street department and nothing would be gained by having these men do the work."

IS NOT DISMAYED. Street Commissioner Dunning does not seem to be at all dismayed by the unpleasant reception his letter received in some quarters.

VERDICT AGAINST BONTA COMPANY. Squire J. B. Lesh Will Have to Pay Full Amount of Claim.

The case of S. J. Hinds against the Bonta Glass company which was put on trial in common pleas court before Judge Gunter Monday, was given to the jury at noon yesterday. In the afternoon a verdict for the plaintiff in the sum of $254.85 was given. Mr. Hinds claimed that sum as wages. A number of other cases similar to that of Mr. Hinds have been brought against the Bonta company.

An action wherein Bixler & Correll, of Easton, were plaintiffs, and Squire J. B. Lesh, of Newton, defendant, was called for trial after the Hinds case went to the jury. Major Everett Warren appeared for the plaintiffs and Attorney A. A. Vosburg for the defendants. Squire Lesh bought, over $200 worth of goods from the plaintiffs and they pay for them. He first gave a judgment note for $250 as collateral security and afterwards several promissory notes, which were not paid. The jury, after a few minutes' deliberation, returned a verdict in favor of Bixler & Correll for $223.81, the full amount of their claim with interest. When court adjourned the case of J. W. Guernsey, of this city, against John Kennedy, of Alden, Luzerne county, was on trial before Judge Gunter. The ownership of a piano is in dispute. Only one witness had been examined when court adjourned for the day. C. S. Woodruff is counsel for the plaintiff

MINE CAVES HAVE AFFECTED GRADE

OFFICIALS MAKE AN INSPECTION

City Has Appropriated $250 for the Regrading of the Street--Scranton Railway Company Will Give Some Assistance and Part of the Ward Appropriations Will Be Added to the Sum Given by the City for the Work.

City Engineer Joseph P. Phillips, Street Commissioner A. B. Dunning, Jr., General Manager Frank Hillman, Jr., of the Scranton Railway company, Select Councilman H. T. Fellows and Common Councilman Joseph Oliver, of the Fifteenth ward, and Select Councilman R. H. Williams, of the Fifth ward, yesterday afternoon made an examination of Luzerne street from Main avenue west and South Main avenue from Luzerne street to No. 32 school.

It was found that the grade of Luzerne street has been seriously affected by numerous small mine caves in that vicinity and in consequence it is not possible to avoid large mud holes on the street. The trouble can not be entirely remedied until a sewer drains the thoroughfare, but the situation is now a great deal worse than it was a few years ago after the street was graded at considerable expense to the property owners and the city.

Dispute Concerning a Mortgage Given to the F. D. Collins Estate. Last November M. J. O'Boyle became indebted to the F. D. Collins estate in the sum of $750 and gave a five-year mortgage on a lot in Dunmore as security. By the provisions of the mortgage, one-fourth of the amount was to be paid to F. D. Boyle, guardian of the minor children, and three-fourths to Mrs. Mary A. Garvey, of Dunmore, administratrix, and at that time it was paid at any time within the five years that the mortgage might elect.

Mrs. O'Boyle recently made an attempt to satisfy the mortgage, but Mr. Boyle refused to accept a one-fourth share, saying that one-half belonged to the interests he represented. Yesterday, through Attorney T. J. Dugan, Mrs. O'Boyle secured from Judge Gunster a rule on Mr. Boyle to show cause why the mortgage should not be left to pay the debt into court. By agreement of counsel the rule was made absolute forthwith and court directs the recorder of deeds to satisfy the mortgage upon Mr. O'Boyle paying into court $777, being the full amount of the mortgage with interest and costs to date.
