PUNISHMENT FOR TOLL-GATE RUNNERS

Senate Bill Looking to This End Passes Third Reading.

NORTHAMPTON ELECTION CONTEST

Adam Shiffer Is Declared to Be Entitled to the Seat Occupied by William H. Leh—All Democrats and Many Republicans Vote Against the Committee's Report on the Matter.

Harrisburg, June 8.—The morning session of the house to-day was almost entirely given up to discussing the Northampton county election contest. The report of the elections committee was called up by Chairman French. He said the case had been carefully considered and that a majority of the returns committee had found that Adam Shiffer of Easton was entitled to the seat of William H. Leh, of South Easton. Shiffer is a Republican and Leh a Democrat. Leh was elected on the face of the returns but the committee deducted from his vote 151 ballots cast for him as the nominee of the Jeffersonian party and thus vice Shiffer a majority of 56.

The Democrats voted solidly against the report. The vote on the unseating of Leh was 119 to 32. Many Republicans refrained from voting in the hope that Shiffer would not receive 102 votes, which were necessary to seat him. Seven Republicans voted against unseating Leh. They were Messrs. Crothers, of Philadelphia; Bell, Gruber, of Milton; Ellis, of Lebanon; Lloyd, of Philadelphia; Moore, of Chester; Nesbitt, of Northumberland and Wilson, of Lycoming. The recommendations of the committee that Shiffer and Leh be allowed reasonable expenses for the contest, their salary and counsel fees were adopted.

BILLS DISPOSED OF.

The house settled down to work on the calendar and disposed of several important bills. The bill to repeal the act of May 2, 1885, relative to the admission and instruction of children of soldiers of the late war in the common schools of districts outside of those in which their parents, guardians, or others entitled to their custody, were defeated.

LEONARD WAS ABSENT.

An Important Witness in Insurance Investigation Fails to Appear. Harrisburg, June 8.—This afternoon the joint legislative committee charged with the investigation of the $50,000 insurance scandal resumed its probing. The name of Frank H. Leonard, the New York witness who is wanted to tell what he knows about an alleged proposition made to the Metropolitan Life insurance company of New York, to kill the infant insurance bill was called, but there was no response. Sergeant-at-Arms Wyatt stated that he had been in New York but could not find Leonard. Chairman Wilson said he had been informed that Leonard would be here at the next meeting.

Samuel Dickson, of Philadelphia, counsel for the insurance officials, suggested that inasmuch as Leonard was not present it would be better to postpone the hearing of the testimony of Woodward and Yoshell, officers of the company who were present until Leonard has been heard, in view of the fact that the proposition was made to them. He further stated that in the event of Leonard failing to appear, Woodward and Yoshell desired to be heard at a further meeting. Representative Kunkel, the chief inquisitor of the committee assured Mr. Dickson that they would be heard.

Danne, of Hanne, of St. Louis, whose body was found along Cobbs creek, near the Philadelphia city line, on the morning of Feb. 7, 1883.

Marshall was taken back to Governor's island this afternoon, he having been brought here immediately after confessing to a cell mate that he had murdered Danne. The authorities believe that Marshall concocted the story in order to be released from confinement at Governor's Island.

Men's Suits...

Prices Almost Cut in Two. $6.98, $8.97, $9.98.

Thus far this season has been one of backwardness. The cool weather has affected the clothing trade all over the country, and Summer Suits that should have long since found their way to wearers, are still on the counters. However, we can't complain, for we have suffered less than many others.

But we have too much stock—and there is too little time left to risk selling at a profit.

This is the result: We have taken some eight or nine hundred Suits—the very cream of the stock—the newest, nobbiest patterns, and cut off every cent of profit, and now hand them to you at the same prices the manufacturers charged us.

You will find them on the two front tables, divided into three lots at these low prices: $6.98, $8.97, $9.98.

A Glance at the window facing Lackawanna avenue will bring before you more forcibly the magnitude of the values that we are offering.

There is no other time—no other place—like now—at Samter's, to buy high cost, ready-to-wear clothing, at a mere shadow of the customary cost.
