EASTERN LEAGUE BASE BALL GAMES

Was Another Bad Day for the Visiting Clubs.

MINERS LOSE AT ROCHESTER

Was the First Game on the Trip in Which They Met a Deserved Defeat. Providence Was the Only Visiting Club to Win--Keenan Pitched a Good Game for the Barons But Maiarkey Did Better.

The champion Grays were the only team of the four weary and footsore southern clubs to bag a game yesterday. The rain rested long enough to permit the playing of all the games scheduled, but no double bills were There is no change in the standing of the clubs.

BUNCHED THEIR HITS.

Brownies Landed on Wellner in Two Innings, and That's How They Won the Game.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Rochester, June 10 .- Sandy Griffin's ex-Rochesters and those other players who compose the present excellent Scranton team were beaten at Riverside park this afternoon through better bunching hits in the second and fourth innings and because Rochester landed on the ball in those innings principally for two baggers, a hit, with a home run and a three bagger, and a few singles as the exceptions.

The Scranton team was warmly welcomed here because of its ex-Brownies who are playing as good games today evidently as they did when they rep-resented the only real city in the circuit. Franky Boyd behind the bat and Ollie Beard at short looked out of place in Scranton uniforms at these points, while Jack O'Brien in center field has been away long enough to look at home in the Miner's garb.

Boyd caught in fine style and made it such a dangerous task to steal bases that none of the Brownies succeeded in passing through the ordeal which Frank Shannon tried but found hesitating before throwing. He made an excellent throw when he did send the ball out, but O'Brien got between the sphere and Frank Shannon.

Frary was as strong as Boyd ever was behind the bat yesterday and was good for a two-bagger. Frary played an exceptionally good game and is fast getting fit.

MINERS' HITS SCATTERED. Ollie Beard was fast and sure at when he dropped a ball Bonner sen him to head off Daley. O'Brien signalized his first time at bat by makin a two-bagger but was unable to fin McFarlan after that. The Rocheste pitcher kept the hits well scattered Rochester did no hitting except in th second and fourth, but in those in nings dealt mainly in two baggers and that is how Scranton came to be beat

The visitors scored in the opening inning on O'Brien's two bagger and Meaney's single, and in the third of Wellner's single, one by Eagan O'Brien's sacrifice and Beard's single Wellner and Eagan scoring. In th fourth Bonner doubled, but would no have scored had not Dooley thrown wild to third to complete a double.

In the fifth O'Brien got first, stole second, went to third on a very excusable error of Mulvey's on Beard's hit, and Meaney's single scored Jack. In the seventh Meaney singled and was followed up by one by Massey and scored on one by Maguire.

The grounds were rather muddy and slow on ground balls especially, but Mulvey played a sensational third base, his stops being electrifying, and his error was decidedly excusable. Frankie Shannon at short was in fine fettle and the outfielders swife and sure.

Maguire was the weakest point of the Scranton team and the outfield was fast, Keefe's umpiring was satisfac-

Rochester, N. Y., June 10.-The home team bunched hits in the second and fourth innings of today's game and the runs scored then gave them a lead which Scranton could not overcome. Scranton hit the ball often enough, but could not bunch hits. Score ROCHESTER.

DIAMOND DUST.

Is Billy Goeckel being knocked? Here's what the Wilkes-Barre Times says about it: "There are rumors in base ball circles hereabout. The atmosphere is thick with them. One is specially interesting. It is to the effect that several players have taken a dislike to the genial Billy Goeckel. No one can tell why Billy is unpopular with the other members of the team, but such seems to be the fact. At least rumor says so. They're knocking him as the saying goes-which is understandable English means that they are taking every opportunity to unrow aim down' in the eyes of Powell and the managing directors. Some say it's because Billy refuses to be tough; don't like to sit in midnight pinochle games and games that are not quite so innocent and harmless and in which the 'chips that pass in the night' cut a somewhat observable figure; and that he never irrigates to such an extent as to awake in the morning with a very nauseating dark brown taste in his mouth. In other words they are making faces at Billy because he is playing the game for all there is in it. and when his work is done he gets into good society and participates in pleasures that are ennobling; music and conversation and all that which elevates rather than degrades, Billy is a college boy and can hold his own in the best of society. He believes he can be a ball player and at the same time live as men should who desire to associate with the better classes. Others don't believe that way. This difference of opinion has caused the friction spoken of. And some one, or two, or three, maybe more, are putting Billy through a course of sprouts-some would call it discipline. Will they whip him into line? Not much! He's too level-headed, and will be in the game and earning a good salary when those who are trying to 'knock him are walking ties and scanning the horizon for something to do. The others better fall in.

A paragraph is contained in the Wilkes-Barre Leader, President Bogert's paper, which sets at rest the rumor that the Wilkes-Barre franchise was to be sold to Hamilton, Ont. "The rumor originated in the imagination of some Buffalo newspaperman," says the Leader. "A possible transfer of the Wilkes-Barre team and franchise to Hamilton, Ont., has never even been consider by the Wilkes-Barre management, and is not now under considera-tion. The only thing that could have set such a rumor affoat is the fact that the patronage here this year has been light and it has been stated that unless the attendance should improve the team might have to be dispensed

Concerning "Dick" Brown, the ex-Baltimore farmer who was for two years with Scranton but who has been sold to Cincinnati, the Post of that city comments on his first game as fol-"Dickey" Brown's debut delows: serves to be rated as a full-jewbut deserves to be rated as a full-jeweled, stem-winding success, despite the fact that it was attended by the Reds first goose-egg rolling of the season With anything like proper support and an even break at the judicial end the Phillies would also have all been prancing around with Red-trimmed horse collars on when the game ended, instead of gloating over the possession of

of the Scranton hits. Morse will pitch today. If two games are played Harper will pitch the second.

The Wilkes-Barre shake-up didn't bear any print yesterday-but it began to bloss

In two years the St. Louis Browns won four games from the Baltimore Orioles. Three of the four victories were won on the Baltimore grounds. "What college are you from, Fisher?" asked a Minneapolis fan of the

One victory out of six games on the trip. If the Miners should win two to-are run, or rather walked, on the catch-as-catch can basis, and are utterly bereft of consistent team work. In this regard Pat's contemporary, Hanlon, is of the same mind.

Wellner has pitched two winning games out of five played. Morse leads with seven out of ten. Gillon has won four and lost three, and Harper has won but three out of nine. Keep your eye on the latter just the same,

George Smith, of Brooklyn, who laid off last week on account of a pain in his back, was not aware that one of his ribs was broken until a doctor examined him on Sunday. He will not be able to play for ten days.

Moss, who was so weak a hitter with Scranton and Syracuse in the Eastern League that his place in the batting order was at the foot, below even the pitchers, has a showing on paper of a batting average of .370 with the Pawtucket club.

Jim Fields is discouraged with his lot in Buffalo over the way the boys roast the home team and particularly himself at times. It is said he wants his release. That's the usual way on a winning team. Many victories spoil the cranks who are severe on the players if they lose two games running.

Clymer, the center fielder of the Buffalo team in the Eastern league, is tipped as a future member of top lof-tical baseball society by Elton Chamberlain. Elt says the major League club that lands Clymer will make one of the finds for next season. Chamberlain prefers Clymer to the muchtouted Gray .- Washington Star.

Scottish Chieftain, the Favorite, Didn't Get a Place.

New York, June 10.-There was heavy track at Gravesend today and the showers which came occasionally did not improve the going. The attendance was fairly good, but not as heavy as might have been looked for on Derby day.

JOHN L. AFTER FITZ.

He Met the Kangaroo in Bulfalo, and Produced $1,000 for a Forfeit.

Buffalo, N. Y., June 10 .- John L. Sullivan arrived in Buffalo this evening in company with his backer, Frank B. Dunn, of Boston, and immediately started on a bunt for Champion Bob Fitzsimmons. The rival pugilists came together at the Lyceum theater. Sullivan wanted to talk fight right away, but was prevailed on to wait until the conclusion of the performance.

At 11 o'clock Sullivan, Fitzsimmons Dunn, Martin Julian and a host of local sports met at the Tifft house. Sullivan issued a formal challenge to Fitzsimmons to fight for a finish for the world's championship and a side bet of $5,000. Dunn produced $1,000 to bind the match.

Fitzsimmons at first declared that he thought he had earned a rest, and did not intend to fight again for at least a year, but on Sullivan urging him strongly to arrange a match the champion promized to take the matter into consideration and give Sullivan a definite answer shortly. The meeting between the two fighters was quite friendly. NEVER TOO OLD TO RIDE.

Wheeling Benefits Elderly Women Well as the Young.

Many women who have turned the corner of thirty years conclude, unthinkingly, that they are too old to learn to ride a bicycle. This idea is without any foundation in fact, of course. A woman who has learned to properly ride a wheel-that is, who has been taught to avoid some of the de fects referred to above-never looks better than when spinning along flushed with the exhilaration of delightful exercise. At such times she generally looks ten years younger than her real age.

Many a man, and woman, too, has been astonished on coming close to skirted rider to find her elderly, or even oid, when at a short distance she appeared in her early twenties. The other evening a young man came out of a residence on one of the avenues, bringing with him a tandem. He was followed by a well-preserved woman of something over fifty, white haired, but bright of complexion and clear of eye, He addressed her as mother, and in a moment or two they were whirling down the avenue, the admired of all who noticed them.

When the two came back in an hour or so the elderly woman dismounted with a sign of pleasurable fatigue. The color in her cheeks was as pink in tone as that of the girl who came down the steps to meet her, and no one would have for a moment imagined them to be other than sisters instead of mother and daughter, but for the fact that the hair of one was white, while the other's was rich dark brown. If more women would go out and ride bicycles, and try to act younger, they would feel younger, and look younger.
