AMENDMENTS WERE NOT APPROVED

Common Council Decided that Telephone Ordinance Was Good Enough.

WERE FEARFUL OF ANY DELAY

That Was the Argument Advanced for Voting Against the Amendments Offered by Mr. Keller and Mr. Oliver—Bicycle Ordinance Again Before Council—Claim of Muldoon & Howie—Ordinances Passed on Second Reading.

Luther Keller and Joseph Oliver at last night's meeting of the common council made an unsuccessful attempt to amend the ordinance giving the Central Pennsylvania Telephone and Supply company permission to construct underground conduits or overhead appliances for carrying their wires. Mr. Keller proposed to attach an amendment to the effect that "as soon as practicable, after the conduits are constructed, the overhead wires on the thoroughfares traveled by such conduits shall be put under ground. Mr. Oliver's amendment was to follow the clause providing that 2,000 feet of conduit should be constructed within one year after the company accepted the franchise, and it further stipulated that 600 feet of conduit be constructed each succeeding year thereafter and all wires placed therein until all overhead wires within the city are underground." These attempts at amendment were defeated. The vote was:

For the amendments—Messrs. Reese, Walker, Moir, Wenzel, Jackson, Oliver and Keller—7. Against the amendments—Messrs. Gordon, Thomas, Rogan, Gilroy, Flanagan, Wirth, Sweeney, Neala, Zeldier, Noone, Sheridan, Norton—13. The ordinance came over from select council, through which it had squeezed after a hard battle, and on motion of Mr. Noone was referred to the judicial committee "with instructions to report forthwith." Messrs. Reese, Moir, Jackson, Oliver and Keller opposed the "forthwith" part of the resolution, but as everybody else favored it the motion passed. The committee retired for a few minutes and then came out with a favorable report. The ordinance was then passed on first and second readings by the vote above noted.

REMARKS OF MEMBERS.

After the futile attempts at amendment on second reading, Mr. Oliver arose and said: "If this company was to construct a man who says, its supporters would not oppose these mild resolutions asked for the benefit of the public. I do not think they are sincere; but simply want a double franchise." Mr. Moir said: "As the ordinance now stands the company is not required to place a single foot of wire underground. It seems to me they merely want this new franchise to keep out competition. If the company was acting in good faith and its ordinance betokened that it was, its agent would not have to come around to see me or Mr. Keller or Mr. Somebody else." Mr. Keller—"I am heartily in favor of putting all wires underground. Let that be understood. If the company intends to put its wires underground, I can't see how I can be readily object to these amendments. It looks to me as if there was a nigger on the fence somewhere."

Mr. Gilroy—"The amendments are merely for the purpose of obstruction." Mr. Keller—"You are mistaken, sir! You are talking fool's talk." Mr. Gilroy—"I'm right. Delay is the only purpose they have in mind. If the ordinance is amended with these unnecessary and superfluous additions it will be delayed six or eight weeks. There are thousands of men out of employment and they would be all the longer kept out of the opportunity for work which the building of the conduits will give them." Mr. Oliver—"This argument is very frail. When the company's agent came to me and I spoke of amendments such as were presented tonight he also said they were superfluous. It is better, as I told him, to have an ordinance that would be superfluous in some of its conditions than to have one that would be ineffective."

HAD NOT BEEN SEEN.

This mention of the visit of an "agent" brought Mr. Grier to his feet with a denial of his having been seen by any agent and an expression of belief that the agent had been to see any of the councilmen. Mr. Oliver reiterated that an agent had not been seen. As to whether or not he had been to see other councilmen he was not prepared to say. Mr. Keller and Captain Moir admitted that an agent had been to see them, "well that doesn't go to show that he has been to see all of us" said Mr. Grier. "When no one pursues," was all that reached the reporter's table of the cogitations of some member down in the rear of the room, who was thinking out loud. The old Lansing bicycle ordinance was reintroduced by Mr. Wenzel and referred to committee. The only difference in the old and new ordinances is that the new one limits the speed of wheels to 10 miles an hour, while the old one placed the limit at eight miles.

Other new measures introduced and favorably considered were: An ordinance providing for the payment of the claim of Muldoon & Howie for extra work on the Linden street and Roaring Brook bridges; an ordinance providing for the erection and maintenance of gates at the crossing of the Erie and Wyoming Valley railroad on Beech street; a resolution permitting James Donahoe to use city fire hydrants to fill his sprinkling cart, with which he proposes to ally the Just on West Market street; an ordinance providing for repairing the hose wagon of Excelsior company, No. 8, and ordinance providing for laying sidewalks on Washburn street from Main avenue to Tenth street; an ordinance for paving Dix court with vitrified brick between Linden street and the city property.

PURCHASE OF HOSE.

The resolution providing for the purchase of $1,900 worth of fire hose and $100 worth of garden hose for the fire department was favorably reported from committee. Mr. Flanagan, of the special committee appointed to investigate and report upon the master of the Lusere street sewer, reported that a meeting had been held but as only one councilman from the interested wards was present, nothing was done. He recommended that the matter be referred to the joint sewers and drains committee.

MR. CRITTENTON AT THE ARMORY

First of a Number of Meetings in the Central City.

YOUNG PEOPLE'S SERVICE TO-NIGHT

Armory Has Been Well Lighted and Excellently Arranged for the Meetings—"Consecration" the Subject Tomorrow Night—Florence Mission Rescue Work to Be Explained in Elm Park Church Sunday Evening. Other Sunday Meetings.

The first of the Crittenton revival meetings in the Adam avenue armory was held last night and was attended by about 500 persons. The big drill floor had been splendidly arranged for the meetings which will last until at least the middle of next week. Canvas seated benches which will accommodate at least 1,000 persons were about half occupied last night. A large platform for choir and speakers has been erected at the east end of the hall and six arc lights erected. A large corps of ushers directed by J. W. Browning will find seats for the large crowds that will attend the evening meetings. The ushers are A. L. Collins, Homer Pace, Harry Morris, P. Carpenter, J. L. Halldeman, James Lawson, C. F. Hess and others.

The singing is led by a choir of twenty-five voices gathered by Professor J. M. Chance, organist of the Second Presbyterian church, and assisted by members of the choir and music leader who accompanies Mr. Crittenton. The instrumental music is by Charles Doersam, pianist and William Stanton, cornetist. LAST NIGHT'S SERVICE. Last night's service was of the revival order and was conducted by Mr. Crittenton from the beginning as will be all the future meetings. At 7:45 o'clock the services opened with the congregational singing of a number of hymns and a prayer by Rev. Dr. C. M. Giffen, of Elm Park church. That the majority of those in the large audience were of the Christian and church-going class was attested in their ready and continued response to Mr. Crittenton's request for testimonials by means of quotations from the Scriptures. For ten minutes one, two or three were constantly on their feet repeating the more familiar passages of the bible. There was another hymn sung by the audience and then Mr. Crittenton announced the time and nature of future meetings, namely: This afternoon at 7 o'clock there will be a bible reading on the subject "Abiding" in the Young Men's Christian association building. In urging a large attendance Mr. Crittenton remarked that a man whose business was so extensive that he couldn't devote an hour a day to the Lord had a larger business than the Almighty intended he should have.

FOR YOUNG PEOPLE.

Tonight's armory meeting is to be especially for young people. It will begin at 7:30 o'clock and a general request for attendance has been made upon the many young people's church societies. Tomorrow afternoon a children's service will begin at 3 o'clock and in the evening there will be the regular service when "Consecration" will be the topic of Mr. Crittenton's address. The subject will be divided into three parts, "The Command, the Possibility, the How." In the course of this address Mr. Crittenton will relate for the first and only time during his stay here the story of his own consecration to religious work. Sunday's meetings will be as follows: Morning, Jackson street Baptist church; afternoon, Providence armory; evening, Elm Park church. In Elm Park church the Florence mission rescue work will be described. The discourse will be in the nature of a popular lecture.

MANY FINE TABLEAUX.

Seen Last Night at the Home of Mr. and Mrs. James Archbald. An entertainment of unusual excellence for a home affair was given last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Archbald on Jefferson avenue by the Women's Home Missionary society of the First Presbyterian church. The dining room and library were arranged to seat nearly 200 persons and a platform was erected on which a series of twenty-four tableaux were given. The tableaux were interspersed with a duet by Miss Thomas and Miss Joseph, a song by Eugene Hill, a trio by Miss Thomas, Miss Flora Matthews and Miss Joseph and a solo by Miss Thiele. Following was the tableaux programme: "The Summer Girl," Miss Flora Matthews; "The Hunting Girl," Miss Richardson; "The College Girl," Miss Hunt; "The Golf Girl," Miss Anderson; "The City Girl," Miss Williams; "The Bicycle Girl," Miss Archbald; "The Practical Girl," Miss Welles; "The New Woman," Edgar Connell; "The Ideal Girl," Miss Elizabeth Jernyn; "Charlotte Corday in Prison," Mrs. C. R. Parke; "Rosemary," Miss Hattie Burkett; "When Women Preach," Miss Vickery; "A German Peasant," Miss Florence Serbell; "The Little Madia of Long Ago," Ruth Archbald, Lella Stecke, Eleanor Moffat; "Fratella," Miss Alice Matthews; "Is Bicycling Bad for the Heart?" Miss Anna McLeod, Mr. Decker; "Queen Louise of Prussia," Mrs. E. B. Jernyn; "A Daughter of Greece," Miss Romaine Seybold; "The Countess Spencer," Miss Welles; "Madame Chrysanthemus," Miss Archbald; "Symplicity," Ben Watson; "Nymphs," Mrs. Willis Kemmerer; "The Chocolate Girl," Mrs. A. H. Storrs; "Dante and Beatrice," Miss Lavinia Dimmick, L. B. Fuller.

DISPUTE OF GILMORE & DUFFY.

The Latter Brings an Equity Suit Against the Former. The dispute between A. F. Duffy and A. G. Gilmore over the winding up of the affairs of the late firm of Gilmore & Duffy culminated in the filing of an equity suit brought by Mr. Duffy's attorneys, I. H. Burns and Hon. M. E. McDonald, to restrain Mr. Gilmore from continuing to collect the debts due to the firm on disposing of any of its property to compel him to pay over money already collected, and also to have the firm's accounts placed in the hands of a receiver. In his affidavit Mr. Duffy alleges that Mr. Gilmore by mutual agreement was to collect the money owing the firm, pay its indebtedness and then the collections and then divide the balance remaining. Mr. Gilmore, he says, has collected more than sufficient to pay all the liabilities, but has converted the money to his own use, thereby leaving them in danger of having their creditors enter judgment against them. In this event, Mr. Duffy alleges, he would be the only sufferer, as Mr. Gilmore, he alleges, is not financially responsible.

QUEEN VICTORIA'S DIAMOND JUBILEE

Great Time Expected at Fairview June 22. The British-American societies of Lackawanna and Wyoming valleys have associated for the purpose of celebrating the diamond jubilee of Queen Victoria, by an excursion and picnic at Fairview on June 22. In this undertaking twenty-five societies are confederated, and excursion tickets will be sold at lower rates than ever before. It is estimated the gathering will be the largest ever held at Fairview. Games, music, dancing and speeches will be the feature of the day. Valuable prizes will be given for bicycle races, tug-of-war, etc., etc. The proceeds of the picnic will be entirely expended for charitable purposes.

AN OPEN-AIR CONCERT.

Programme that Will Be Rendered Tonight by Bauer's Band. Bauer's band will give an open air concert this evening in front of Hulbert's music store, at which the following programme will be rendered: March, "Columbia Phonograph Co." Overture, "Morning, Noon and Night." Supper Selection, "Brian Boru".....Edwards Three Quotations.....Souza A. The King of France. B. I. Too, Was Born in Arcadia. C. In Darkest Africa. Serenade, "Love's Old Sweet Song." Maloy Medley Overture, "A Gay Old Time." Beyer

DR. AND MRS. DIXON RECEIVE.

Began Last Night a Series of June Evening Receptions. The first of a series of evening receptions by Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Joseph K. Dixon, for the members of the Penn Avenue Baptist church, was given last night at their residence, 406 Jefferson avenue. The receptions are for all members of the church congregation and adult department of the Bible school. In order to accommodate the large number of callers only those whose names begin with the letters A, B, C and D were received last night. The deacons and their wives assisted and will do so at future receptions. Next Tuesday evening has been assigned for those whose names begin with E, F, G, H, I, J and K; Tuesday evening, June 22, L, M, N, O, P, Q and R; Tuesday evening, June 29, S, T, U, V, W, X, Y and Z. THOSE DUNMORE VOTERS. Twenty More Examined as to Their Good Standing. Five out of the twenty witnesses examined by the respondents in yesterday's session of the Dunmore contest failed to conclusively prove that they had cast good votes at the spring election, and unless they can bring in proof of their good standing later their names will go on the off-side of the ledger. These five were Ballentine Bernhart, C. H. Warner and Frank Hongo, who had not tax receipts, and George Kersey and Andrew Cranock, who were not naturalized. Another vote, that of Alex Harris, was put in the profit and loss column. Those who proved their votes to have been perfectly legal were: Charles H. Gentry, George H. Ringham, William Ball, Michael Barnat, T. J. Evans, Dagobert Petzer, Robert P. Jones, John Aldie, Richard Mead, Alfred J. Broad and H. D. Jones. Connecting Line. Surveyors from the main office of the Delaware and Hudson at Albany are in the vicinity of Parsons this week surveying a connecting line between the Baltimore collieries and the main line below Parsons depot. It is the intention to build this connection to avoid the use of the Central railroad tracks from Mill Creek and also to dispense with the narrow gauge south of Green Ridge.—Wilkes-Barre Record.

NOTHING BUT DRY DETAILS.

Von Storch Case Void of Its Usual Interesting Incidents.

The testimony in the Von Storch case yesterday was much the same as that of the previous day. Edward Griffin told that in 1885 he hauled fence-posts to the lot in dispute at the defendant's request. The depositions of A. B. Dunning, sr., were read, showing that he rented the property from Ferdinand Von Storch in 1888. Mrs. Jacob R. Bloom's depositions hold her having paid rent for the property to Curriton S. Von Storch in 1864. Leander Von Storch, brother of Curriton, gave testimony which tended to prove, like that of the preceding witnesses, that Ferdinand Von Storch, or his heirs, were in possession of the property at the time the plaintiff's alleged Henry M. Fuller owned and controlled it. The Patch case developed little that was interesting yesterday. It went to the jury just before adjourning time.

SAWYERS

One of the secrets of our large selling is that prices leave off where other dealers commence on new desirable military. Next the great satisfaction we give our patrons. It should be borne in mind there are no middle prices here. It's direct from the manufacturer to the consumer. This week opens with renewed vigor. Prices Cut to the Quick. Trimmed Hats begin at 95c. Untrimmed Hats begin at 25c. Reasons why we please our customers: We have three large stores. We buy direct from the manufacturers. We employ none but experienced help. We guarantee our goods as represented or money refunded.

WE SURPRISE YOU

CARPETS.

With our prices when you trade with us for the first time. You do not think that carpets such as we represent ours to be can be sold for the prices we ask. With experience you realize that we have unusual facilities for carpet buying and that we are satisfied to give our customers the benefit of advantageous trading. Not philanthropy—it brings business and keeps trade.
