TWO MARRIAGE CEREMONIES.

United for Life Four Well-Known Young People.

Miss Caroline A. daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Flood, of Eleventh street, was wedded to Thomas A. James last evening. The wedding occurred in the Scranton Street Baptist church and was performed by Rev. S. F. Matthews, pastor of the church.

The church altar was tastefully decorated with palms and flowering plants. The bride was attired in a costume of green wedding cloth trimmed with lace and pearl trimmings and carried a bunch of bride roses. The bridesmaid, Miss Minnie Carpenter, was similarly attired and also carried roses.

A reception and wedding repast was tendered the guests at the home of the bride. Mr. and Mrs. James will go housekeeping at 895 Hampton street in a fully furnished home.

JACOBY-WILLIAMS.

Miss Maria, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Williams, of North Bromley avenue, was united in marriage to George Jacoby at the residence of the bride. The ceremony was performed by Rev. S. F. Matthews and took place in the parlor beneath a canopy of cut flowers and laurel branches. The couple were attended by Miss Anna R. Richards as bridesmaid and Harry Randolph as best man. The bride was tastefully attired in a costume of white organdie over white silk and wore a diamond pendant, a gift of the groom. Miss Richards was attired in a costume of figured organdie over pale yellow silk. Each carried a bunch of flowers. At the close of the ceremony the guests sat down to a wedding repast served by Caterer Handley. The ceremony was witnessed by the immediate friends and relatives only of the contracting parties. Mr. and Mrs. Jacoby left on the 1:40 train for a trip to Philadelphia, Washington and other places of interest. They will be gone about a week and upon their return will be at home to friends at their own home at 229 Lincoln avenue.

LAST NIGHT'S CONCERT.

The Crumps band social and concert held at St. David's hall last evening was a success. There was a large attendance and every one heartily enjoyed the concert. After the exercises the floor was cleared and the votaries of tarpsichore danced to music furnished by Prof. Hayes. Simon Hopkins was promoter. The concert opened with an overture by the band, followed by a bass solo by Horace Johns. David Stephens sang a tenor solo in his usual fine style and effect and was encored. The tennis quartette sang a selection and Edwin Bowen pleased the audience with a tenor solo. A bass instrument quartette composed of the King brothers, Howells and Jenkins rendered a selection and were followed with a violin solo by John Evans. The baritone solo sung by D. Jenkins was followed with a baritone solo by George Crumps and a cornet solo by George King each having a band accompaniment. Miss Lizzie Jenkins sang a soprano solo followed by

PERSONAL MENTION.

John Wilkins, of Aswell court, will leave this evening for New York city. Tomorrow he will sail on the Etruria for Wales, to be gone about eight weeks. Mr. Wilkins has been in poor health for some time and takes this trip upon the advice of his physician.

Ridson Acker, of South Main avenue, has gone to Hawley for a few days of piscatorial pleasure.

A. B. Eynon, of North Hyde Park avenue, attended the graduation exercises of his son Bert from the Dental department of the University of Pennsylvania at Philadelphia yesterday.

Mrs. Myron Garney and daughters, of Kinross, are visiting among West Side friends.

Mrs. Alfred Sherrerd, of Mill City, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. William Bortres, of Price street.

Miss Elizabeth Bunnell, of Price street, will attend the ball given by the junior at Cornell on Saturday evening at Ithaca.

Mrs. Martha Parker, of Milwaukee, Wis., was a West Side visitor during the week.

Mrs. John Farr and daughter Lida, and Mrs. William Osborne and daughter Stella, all of Franklin, Pa., attended the Flody-James wedding last evening.

David Owens, a student of the Bloomsburg state normal school, is undergoing medical treatment at his home on South Lincoln avenue for an injured finger. He met with the injury last week while playing ball with the school team.

Dr. P. F. Struppier, of South Main avenue, attended the whist meet at Easton on Monday.

Mrs. Lizzie Hughes-Brundage, of Eynon street, will soon be able to resume her position as soprano soloist of the Penn avenue Baptist church, having recovered from a recent severe illness.

Grand Chief Hunsicker, of Allentown, made an official visit among the local lodges, Knights of the Golden Eagle, during the past week.

Dr. A. E. Falkenburg, of Albany, N. Y., attended the Davis-Jenkins wedding on Wednesday evening. While here the doctor was the guest of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jenkins, of Jackson street.

MINOR NEWS NOTES.

The Industrial school and Missionary band of the Scranton street Baptist church meets tomorrow afternoon for the last time until fall. A reception will be held and friends are invited to be present.

Master Willie Davis, of 129 North Everett avenue, fell on Wednesday afternoon and fractured his right arm. Willie is a newsboy and while waiting for his papers to come from the central office was playing with some companions when he met with the accident.

Another West Side improvement of great benefit has been set on foot. The residents whose property abuts on Decker's court, between Lafayette and PROVIDENCE.

There will be an entertainment and social in the Court street M. E. church Tuesday, June 15, under the management of Mrs. Fowler, who has very successfully conducted a kindergarten here the past season. Mrs. Fowler is a graduate of Miss Voorhees' kindergarten school, of Boston, and has demonstrated her ability as an entertainer heretofore. A delightful programme has been arranged and a cordial invitation is extended to all. Admission free. The Ladies' Aid society will serve cake and cream immediately after in the lecture room.

The funeral of William Haldeman, took place yesterday afternoon from his father's home at 212 West Second street. Rev. J. J. Levey, who conducted the funeral services, preached a very impressive sermon touching briefly on the many good traits of the deceased. A quartette, composed of Miss Martin, Miss Jean Smith, Harry Danyers and Dr. Dawson, rendered appropriate music. There were many floral emblems given by former associates and fellow workmen of the deceased. Interment was made in Forest Hill cemetery.

A slight squeeze occurred yesterday morning in the Clark vein of the Von Storch mine. The squeeze is confined only to one portion of the vein and is of a slight nature. It was however, deemed advisable to call the men out working in the section. It is expected that the men will be able to resume work within a few days.

The entertainment given last evening in the Puritan Congregational church was attended by a large throng, and they were treated with one of the best entertainments given in that section for some time, many of the best vocalists and eleccionists hereabouts taking part.

Miss Kate Henry, of Putnam street, returned yesterday from a visit spent with relative friends in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles B. Reese, of North Main avenue, gave a party on Wednesday in honor of the sixth birthday of their daughter, Lois. About twenty young folks were entertained. Mrs. Reese was not until the evening by Mrs. John La Bar, of Moosic; Mrs. G. S. Decker, Mrs. Marsh, Mrs. Lunney, Miss Winchell and Miss Oro Reese.

DUNMORE.

Mrs. M. A. Meyer, of East Stroudsburg, is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Morris, of Scranton.

Miss Annie Jay, of Webster avenue, was tendered a most enjoyable surprise party last night by the following of her friends: Edith Gamewell, Lucy Heas, Gertha Eden, Tina Gamewell, Berna Cole, Berta Spurgeon, Lida Young, Lizzie Jones, Perry Hall, Holle Eden, Arthur Howell, George Hess, Webb Gamewell, Arthur Setzer, Albert Hall and Myron Jones. The evening was passed in a most enjoyable manner and it was not until the wee hours of this morning that the little ones dispersed for their various homes. Light refreshments were served during the evening.

The marriage of Miss Minnie Richards to John Ellis, which was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents last night, was a most brilliant affair. The bride wore an exquisite gown of laces and tulle trimmed with chiffon. She was attended by Miss Lucy Ellis, who was attired in a costume of white moire. The groom was attended by his brother, George Ellis. The spacious rooms were most beautifully decorated with laurels, a large canopy of them being erected under which the bridal party stood, there to hear the impressive words which made them man and wife. Rev. T. H. Baragwanati, of Yonkers, N. Y., performed the ceremony. After the reception Mr. and Mrs. Ellis left on the midnight express for an extended northern tour. Upon their return they will go to housekeeping in Dunmore.
