THE SCRANTON TRIBUNE-TUURSDAY MORNING, JUNE 17, 1897.

Mr. Parschall, of Warren. beards. called for final passage on postponed bill to prevent corrupt practices at elections and limiting the expenses of political candidates. The house wasted no time in killing the proposition, the vote being 79 yeas to 45 nays.

Bills amending the act of July 7, 1885, to authorize decrees of sales of purports in partition on refusal to take and relating to appeals from justices of the peace passed finally. A bill repealing the law allowing county commissioners traveling expenses was in line, defeated. Two other bills were post-This was the extent of the poned. work of the evening session.
