An article in the Scranton Tribune of last week so misrepresented the facts in the Finn Pond case that we feel it is our duty to correct them. It is a fact that J. W. Tiffany confessed judment after a paper had been signed by Baylor and Tiffany, that the titles of each should not be prejudiced by the settlement, and that Baylor should pay two-thirds, and Tiffany one-third of the costs. As the case was brought against several parties, and as Baylor claimed known miner living on Nafus street, that Tiffany fished on part of waters and his laborer, a Russian named Wilthat there was no dispute as to Baylor's title, it was thought best by those defending Tiffany that the offer made by Baylor be accepted. There is no doubt as to Tiffany's being able to hold his title to the part of the pond he claims.-Nicholson Examiner, June they consisted of Illies of the valley, ferns, laurels and orange blossoms. As the time for the ceremony approached the auditorium was nearly filled. The ladies' costumes were very elaborate and the scene as one looked from vestibule to altar, was attractive. At 8 o'clock William Beaney touched the keys of the organ and the notes of Mendelssohn's wedding march pealed forth as the bridal party appeared. First came the groom and best man. William Spear. The ushers, James Lewis, George Daily, Richard Rapson and John Robinson were followed by the bridesmaid, Miss Mary Riedy, sister of the bride, and then the bride leaning on the arm of her father. The costume of the bridesmaid was taffeta with velvet and chiffon trimmings, and she carried a bouquet of bridal roses. The costume of the bride was white brocaded silk with pearl ornaments and chiffon trinumings, and she carried a whit kid prayer book. While Mr. Beaney played "O Promise Me" Rev. Wilson Treible, pastor of the M. E. church, performed the beautiful ceremony. At the home of the bride's parents an Monument street a reception was given to about 100 invited association will meet in this place on guests. Pittston, June 17 .- One of the most brutal assaults and daring highway robberies that have ever been committed in this city took place at the Junction at about 12.30 o'clock this morning, were confined principally to the altar, Auschlaug, a German, whose home is which presented a beautiful scene, and in Scranton. He had been in town on business for the past few days and was stopping at the Junction. It was while he was on his way to his boarding house that he was attacked and robbed by the outlaws. Auschlaug was passing directly in front of the depot when one of two thugs, whom he had just passed, walked up behind him, and without any warning, dealt him a blow on the head with some deadly weapon. The man had just time to cry out for help, when a second blow felled him unconscious to the pavement. Auschlaug's cry of alarm had not been heard, for although the affair took place on Main street, no one responded to the call, and before the crime was July discovered the would-be murderers had robbed their victim and made off.

The fellows even went so far as to take the stud out of Auschlaug's shirt and take off the unconscious man's shoes and stockings in order to see if anything of value could be discovered. The fellows secured a small sum of money and a few other articles of value.

Auschlaug was in one of the hotels during the early part of the evening, and it is said made the remark that he had plenty of money. It is believed that the remark was overheard by his assailants, with the result that they

ACROSS THE CONTINENT.

He Is Walking It on a Wager of One Thousand Dollars.

Susquehanna, June 17 .- Harry Chester, who left New York Nov. 28, '96, for a pedestrian trip to New Orleans, Chicago and return to New York, arrived in Susquehanna Tuesday night. The distance, 4,000 miles, is to be completed in seven months, and should he be successful in accomplishing the journey, he will receive a purse of $1,000 raised by subscription, and held at the office of the New York Illustrated News. Up to the time of reaching this place he had worn out six pairs of shoes in the trip.

Chester is a professional pedestrian having been tramping in different parts of the country for the last ten years. His initial journey was from Chicago to St. Paul. Minn., 420 miles. which he covered in ten days and six hours. He averages about 30 miles per day. Harry dresses in walking costume, wearing a pair of leather leggings and carries a grip and an ordinary stick. Chester continued his journey to the metropolis yesterday, leaving the Erie station at 10 o'clock. He follows the railroad, and has ample time, until June 28, in which to win the wager.

VERY REMARKABLE ESCAPE.

A Heavy Delivery Wagon Runs Over

a Little Girl's Neck. Wilkes-Barre, June 17.-While playing about the street yesterday after-noon with a number of other children, Theresa, the 2-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Lyons, of Hemlock street, Georgetown, was run over by a grocery wagon, the wheel passing directly over her neck, but strange to relate the child escaped uninjured. It was at first thought she was dead.

She was carried to the house and Dr. E. J. Butler summoned. The child soon revived and showed little or no effects of the accident, Dr. Butler says it is the most remarkable escape he has ever known. The marks of the wheel were plainly visible on Theresa's neck and it is a wonder that she was not instantly killed. The wagon with its load weighed about 1,200 pounds.

THE MARKETS.

Wall Street Review.

New York, June 17,-The strong upward tendency of prices was resumed on the stock exchange today after the reactionary tendency of the last two days. Some of the specialties enjoyed the benefit of special influences, and this also added to the strength of the market. St. Paul was the leader of the market in volume of transactions with over thirty thousand shares. Chicago Gas, Burlington and Sugar coming next in the order named. Des Molnes and Fort Dodge preferred jumped 8 per cent, to 65 bid on the announcement of the dividend of six per cent., Susquehanna and Western preferred advanced 34, and Cotton Oil preferred 21/2. Delaware and Hudson moved over a range of 2% and closed % lower on the day. The net gains, which were general throughout the list, reached a point or over in Sugar, Chicago Gas, Tobacco, Rock Island, Burlington, Northwest, New Jersey Central and Manhattan. As stated when we opened the High Grade Smyrna Rug Sale, we were afraid that we would find it hard to move these expensive goods, even at half price. We confess to making a mistake, for we've never had livelier selling in any department than has been the case with these rugs at just fifty cents on the dollar. True, they are an unprecedented bargain-bargains that could not be duplicated, were it not that Kerr. Son & Co.'s stock was bought at Sheriff's Sale at less than half price. The same remarks, of course, apply to our high grade Carpet stock, from which we can sell you the best Body Brussels Carpet made as low as 50 cents per yard, but it's Smyrna Rugs we're talking today, and if you're interested, pardon us for saying that it will be to your advantage to call, for

HALF PRICE OPPORTUNITIES

Don't come often in that line, and the full range of sizes won't held out much longer. Three illustrations in values will suffice: They represent the first quality of Smyrna Rugs made: Size 18x36 in., that usually brings $1.75, sells for 87 cents. Size 30x60 in., listed at $4.25, sells for $2.12. Size 6 ft. x 9 ft., for small rooms, that sold for $23. goes at $11.50. There's lower grades if you want them, sizes 30x60 inches, at $1.50 and $1.75 each.
