

The Scranton Tribune
Daily and Weekly, No Sunday Edition.
By The Tribune Publishing Company.
WILLIAM CONNELL, President.

Subscription Price:
Daily... 10 cents a month.
Weekly... $1.00 a year.

TEN PAGES.
SCRANTON, JUNE 18, 1897.

The suspicion is growing that the real crisis at Harrisburg has to do less with public than with private revenues.

All That Cuba Wants.
A correspondent of the New York Sun, writing from Manzanillo, Cuba, sends two important statements from generals high in the Cuban cause.

Intervention by the United States in Cuba in any way which would mean material help to us, or would give a pretext to Spain for declaring war on the American nation, is, in my opinion, unnecessary.

And here is the increase in population in the same periods in the New England and Middle States, which until recently absorbed almost the entire anthracite tonnage:

governing Canadians the desire for a more beneficial one, and then will come annexation.
Opponents of Hawaiian annexation are reminding Secretary Sherman that in his "Recollections," published two years ago, he pledged himself to "do nothing to extend his country's limits."

A Favorite Fuel.
Once in a while some pessimistic writer about the coal trade attempts to prove that anthracite is being driven out of the market, or in other words that people are ceasing to burn as much of it as formerly.

It is an interesting fact that while the Pennsylvania legislature was haggling over and squeezing the essence out of a just measure of liberal reform, the Massachusetts assembly was engaged in passing a similar measure.

It is proposed at Harrisburg to put the question of civil service reform to a popular vote. This would afford instructive election returns. No count of noses has ever been made on this single issue so far as our recollection goes.

The next congress of the Universal Postal union will meet in Rome in February, 1903, at which time the assembled delegates will doubtless begin to make Rome howl.

Queen Victoria's alleged blindness appears to be all in the eye of a reckless London correspondent.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.
Washington, June 17.
According to Walter Wellman, international considerations of the highest importance induced the president to send the Hawaiian treaty to congress long before it had been expected.

There will follow some talk about Cuba. There are many people who would be glad to see Cuba speedily follow Hawaii into the Union.

A SENSIBLE POLICY.
From the Wilkes-Barre Record.
The city of Scranton, through its board of trade and enterprising citizens, has for years made every possible effort to induce a trustworthy manufacturer to locate there.

IT SEEMS SO.
From the New York Sun.
True Americanism now dominates the white house.

AN EASTERN LEGEND.
There's a tender Eastern legend,
In a volume old and rare,
Of the Christ-child in his garden
Walking with the children there.

BEAUTIFUL GIFT BOOKS
For Commencement, Wedding Day, Birthday.
Beidelman, The Bookman

THE CLEMONS, FERBER O'MALLEY CO.,
422 Lackawanna Ave.

ly follow have been fertilized and put in the way of cultivation in time to come. Even here ignorance may have been bliss.

Two-thirds of our coal imports come from Canada—the bulk from Nova Scotia. True, we sell Canada three tons of coal for each ton bought by her.

It is an interesting fact that while the Pennsylvania legislature was haggling over and squeezing the essence out of a just measure of liberal reform, the Massachusetts assembly was engaged in passing a similar measure.

It is proposed at Harrisburg to put the question of civil service reform to a popular vote. This would afford instructive election returns. No count of noses has ever been made on this single issue so far as our recollection goes.

The next congress of the Universal Postal union will meet in Rome in February, 1903, at which time the assembled delegates will doubtless begin to make Rome howl.

Queen Victoria's alleged blindness appears to be all in the eye of a reckless London correspondent.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.
Washington, June 17.
According to Walter Wellman, international considerations of the highest importance induced the president to send the Hawaiian treaty to congress long before it had been expected.

There will follow some talk about Cuba. There are many people who would be glad to see Cuba speedily follow Hawaii into the Union.

A SENSIBLE POLICY.
From the Wilkes-Barre Record.
The city of Scranton, through its board of trade and enterprising citizens, has for years made every possible effort to induce a trustworthy manufacturer to locate there.

IT SEEMS SO.
From the New York Sun.
True Americanism now dominates the white house.

AN EASTERN LEGEND.
There's a tender Eastern legend,
In a volume old and rare,
Of the Christ-child in his garden
Walking with the children there.

BEAUTIFUL GIFT BOOKS
For Commencement, Wedding Day, Birthday.
Beidelman, The Bookman

THE CLEMONS, FERBER O'MALLEY CO.,
422 Lackawanna Ave.

the result of a presidential election might turn upon a belated return from distant Hawaii is a contingency, remote though it may be, which ought to be considered in dealing with the subject of annexation.

Two-thirds of our coal imports come from Canada—the bulk from Nova Scotia. True, we sell Canada three tons of coal for each ton bought by her.

It is an interesting fact that while the Pennsylvania legislature was haggling over and squeezing the essence out of a just measure of liberal reform, the Massachusetts assembly was engaged in passing a similar measure.

It is proposed at Harrisburg to put the question of civil service reform to a popular vote. This would afford instructive election returns. No count of noses has ever been made on this single issue so far as our recollection goes.

The next congress of the Universal Postal union will meet in Rome in February, 1903, at which time the assembled delegates will doubtless begin to make Rome howl.

Queen Victoria's alleged blindness appears to be all in the eye of a reckless London correspondent.

Special Correspondence of The Tribune.
Washington, June 17.
According to Walter Wellman, international considerations of the highest importance induced the president to send the Hawaiian treaty to congress long before it had been expected.

There will follow some talk about Cuba. There are many people who would be glad to see Cuba speedily follow Hawaii into the Union.

A SENSIBLE POLICY.
From the Wilkes-Barre Record.
The city of Scranton, through its board of trade and enterprising citizens, has for years made every possible effort to induce a trustworthy manufacturer to locate there.

IT SEEMS SO.
From the New York Sun.
True Americanism now dominates the white house.

AN EASTERN LEGEND.
There's a tender Eastern legend,
In a volume old and rare,
Of the Christ-child in his garden
Walking with the children there.

BEAUTIFUL GIFT BOOKS
For Commencement, Wedding Day, Birthday.
Beidelman, The Bookman

THE CLEMONS, FERBER O'MALLEY CO.,
422 Lackawanna Ave.

GOLDSMITH'S G.B. BAZAAR.
Great Wash Goods Sale.

Our New York buyer, during the past few days has taken the pick of the best things in the market at his own price, and has just shipped us 20 cases of stuff that will take our customers by surprise.

- At 5 Cents--100 styles of printed Batistes.
At 7 Cents--A Complete line of the popular Red Ground Lawns and Dimities, with dots and figures.
At 8 Cents--25 different styles of Printed Wash Fabrics, well worth double.
At 10 Cents--A large variety of Piques, Lawns, Dimities and Batistes.
At 12 1-2 Cents--An immense range of Longcloths, Organdies and Batistes.
At 15 Cents--Beautiful and exquisite French Organdies.

We are making preparation for the greatest June Sale of Fine Muslin Underwear ever known in this city, which will begin Thursday, June 24th. Such excellent garments, generously made and beautifully trimmed, at such low prices, we know will be the talk of the town.

FINLEY'S No Matter What the Price

We cut to fit all Clothing just as your tailor does. No misfit goes out of our store. Your tailor can't do more, Our Price just Half

BOYLE & MUCKLOW, 416 LACKAWANNA AVENUE.

Lewis, Reilly & Davies. HENRY BELIN, JR., General Agent for the Wyoming District for

DUPONT'S POWDER
Mining, Blasting, Sporting, Smokless and the Repano Chemical Company's HIGH EXPLOSIVES.

Have You Seen Them
IF NOT, SEE THEM BY ALL MEANS BEFORE YOU BUY ANY OTHER, AND WHEN YOU HAVE SEEN THEM YOUR TROUBLE WILL ALL BE AT AN END.

LEWIS, REILLY & DAVIES
114 AND 116 WYOMING AVE. Telephone 2152.

WEDDING INVITATIONS, WEDDING ANNOUNCEMENTS.

GET A WATER FILTER
Printed and engraved promptly at reasonable prices. The stock we use is the very best we can buy.

Reynolds Bros
Hotel Jermyn Bldg., Wyoming Ave., Scranton, Pa.

MT. PLEASANT COAL AT RETAIL.
Coal of the best quality for domestic use and of all sizes, including Buckwheat and Birdseye, delivered in any part of the city at the lowest price.

WM. T. SMITH
Orders received at the Office, first floor, Commonwealth building, room No. 61 telephone No. 57. Will be promptly attended to. Dealers supplied at the mine.

BEAUTIFUL GIFT BOOKS
For Commencement, Wedding Day, Birthday.
Beidelman, The Bookman

THE CLEMONS, FERBER O'MALLEY CO.,
422 Lackawanna Ave.

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."

General Garcia writes in a similar strain. "To recognize us as belligerents," says he, "is neither to declare war upon Spain nor to give Spain any cause to declare war upon the United States, nor to make any material sacrifice for Cuba. It is only to do justice. I have always believed that the Cubans alone can win this war if we have only fair play."