Queen Victoria Attends Accompanied by Her Children and Grand Children--Her Majesty Sat in a Chair of State Near the Temporary Place of Interment of the Prince Consort. The Sermon Omitted, but Special Prayers Are Offered Instead.

London, June 20.—Queen Victoria began the celebration of her jubilee today, as was befitting her entire career, before the altar of her faith. Throughout London, in every Kingdom and the Empire, in every Cathedral, church or chapel of English and Scotch, were held services similar to those at St. George's chapel, Windsor, where her majesty paid her devotions and offered solemn thanksgiving.

The announcement that the services at St. George's chapel would be private and for the members of the royal family prevented the gathering of a large crowd. The scene was most impressive and the service very simple. Her majesty sat in the chair of state immediately in front of the communion rail and just beside the brass plate which inscription designates the spot which was the temporary place of interment of the prince consort.

The ladies and gentlemen who are the special officers of the queen's household, entered first, followed by the military knights of Windsor in the full costume of cocked hats and scarlet coats. The duke of Devonshire and Lord Rosebery occupied their stalls as knights of the garter. The rest of the choir was empty. The queen and the royal family, being near the queen's

The dean of Windsor, wearing the insignia of chaplain of the order of the garter, officiated, assisted by the lord bishop of Barry and several canons.

Punctually at 11 o'clock amid the soft strains of the organ, the queen arrived from the cloisters at the entrance. Assisted by her Indian attendant, she walked slowly to the chair of state, the congregation standing. She looked like a simple family of worshippers. Among them were the Duchess of Connaught, Prince and Princess Henry, of Prussia; Prince and Princess Christian, with their children; Prince Henry, of Battenberg; the grand Duke Sergius, and the grand duchess.

Ordinary morning prayers began with a short exhortation from first Timothy. After the first collect, a special collect was read, and instead of the usual prayer for the queen and royal family, two special prayers were instituted.

A special prayer for unity was said and there were special psalms and gospels used instead of those for the day, the gospel being the sixteenth verse of the twenty-second chapter of St. Matthew.

SPECIAL MUSIC BY SULLIVAN.

There was no sermon, but a special hymn written by the Rt. Rev. William Walsham, lord bishop of Wakefield, with music by Sir Arthur Sullivan, was sung at her majesty's request.

Before the benediction a special thanksgiving was offered.

The choir of St. George's chapel rendered the musical portion of the service. Sir Walter Barrett presiding in silent prayer. Then followed a touching scene which will ever linger in the memory of those who witnessed it. Summoning Empress Frederick who bowed low at her side, the queen kissed both her cheeks. The Duke of Connaught and the other members of the family followed, and receiving on bent knee a similar token of affection. In many cases the recipient was kissed several times.

The queen was profoundly moved and tears rolled down her cheeks. At last, and evidently with great reluctance, she beckoned her Indian attendant and leaning on his arm, passed slowly out of the chapel, the entire congregation standing. The soft light falling through the multi-colored windows and the exquisite strains of the organ rising and swelling beneath the gothic bannister roof. It was a scene never to be forgotten, and thrilled all present with strong emotions.

SERVICES AT ST. PAUL'S.

There were two services at St. Paul's cathedral at 11 a. m. and at 3 p. m.

Immense crowds filled all the approaches to the cathedral at the morning service anxious to catch a glimpse of the royalties and distinguished persons who were announced to be present, including all the Protestant members. Among those present were Chang Ying Huan, the Chinese envoy, in the gorgeous celestial garments, and the envoys of the United States, Russia, the Netherlands, Sweden, Brazil and Hawaii. Whitelaw Reid, with Ambassador Hay and Mrs. Hay, General Nelson A. Miles, Ogden Mills, Crighton Webb, Captain Maus and Captain Maudslayi came in royal carriages. Among the members of the royal family who attended the services were the Prince and Princess of Wales, the Duke and Duchess of York, the Duke of Cambridge, the Duke and Duchess of Saxe-Gotha, Prince Charles of Denmark, and Princess Charles, Prince Albert of Prussia, Grand Duke and Duchess of Hesse, Grand Duke Cyril of Russia, Prince Waldemar of Denmark, Prince Eugene of Sweden, the Grand Duke of Luxembourg, and the Prince and Princess Frederick Charles of Hesse. The form of service was the same as at St. George's chapel. The sermon was preached by the lord bishop of London, who touched upon many of the events in the reign of Victoria, and eloquently extolled her piety, charity and motherly love for her people. A special dispatches from Paris, Berlin, Vienna, St. Petersburg and nearly every large city in Europe show that thanksgiving services were held in the local English churches, numerous attended. The newspapers in many cities, especially Vienna and St. Petersburg publish long eulogistic articles upon the Victorian reign.

STREETS IN LONDON CROWDED.

All day the streets of London have been crowded and there has been incessant traffic of country people in all sorts of conveyances along the procession route. The decorators are busy on the stands where they will work all night. This evening the streets along which the procession will go are impassable and the crowds are very large.

WAR DECLARED ON BUTTERINE.

The National Dairy Union Going Into Politics.

Chicago, June 20.—A dispatch to the Times-Herald from Fort Atkinson, Wis., says: "Butterine must be legislated out of politics to do it. Right now the dictum of the National Dairy Union. The successful fight for the new anti-butterine law in Illinois has inspired the dairymen of the west to crush the butter substitute industry. They are going into politics to do it. Right now the creamery proprietors, the butter dealers and the dairy farmers of the big butter-producing states, Wisconsin, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Minnesota, Nebraska, Kansas, Michigan and the Dakotas, are being drawn into a compact fighting organization of not less than five hundred thousand and may be more than one million voters and vote-controllers. They are being plied in writing to work unceasingly for legislation that will prevent the coloring of butter substitutes, and to 'fight the men in high places who are unfriendly to the interests of the dairymen.' If necessary, a fighting capital of $1,000,000 can be raised, it is believed, before the legislatures of these dairy states meet again. This fund will be used to drive the butterine manufacturers from their strongholds, and if the industry finds loopholes in state legislation the organization will move on Washington.

"W. D. Hirst, of this city, formerly governor of Wisconsin, and president of the National Dairy union, is giving the movement all the benefit of his organizing ability and political acumen. Charles Y. Knight, of Chicago, secretary of the National Dairy union, and manager of the anti-butterine fight in the Illinois legislature, is secretary and treasurer of the new movement."

SHE HOLDS THE THEATER.

Mrs. Mary Hawes Refuses to Give Up Property Sold by Court.

Bridgeport, Conn., June 20.—Miss Mary Hawes, one of the owners of the Park City theater, which was recently sold to Frank Miller by Trustee Staples of the Hawes estate, is in possession of the theater and refuses to give it up. She says that the illegal sale of the property to Mr. Miller owned and managed the theater. About a year ago Miss Hawes assumed the management of the theater. She was not successful as a manager, and last November she and her sister, Sarah Hawes, made an assignment to Banker Frank Staples.

The opera house property was appraised at over $150,000, but two weeks ago, at an auction sale, held by order of the probate court, the property was bid in by Frank Miller for $57,000. The Misses Hawes said that the sale was illegal, as the consent of other heirs, who had not assigned, had not been secured. Since that time she had remained at the theater, refusing to leave it except when it was in charge of friends. Yesterday Miss Hawes refused to vacate, and appealed to the police for protection. The police could not interfere, it being a purely court matter. Miss Hawes says she will not leave.

The earthquake was general throughout the state.

MR. KENNEY REPLIES.

One of the Signers of the Hawaiian Treaty Answers the Protest of Queen Liliuokalani.

Washington, June 20.—The signing of the Hawaiian annexation treaty has given currency, as might, indeed, have been expected, to a number of absurd stories in connection with the opposition which the treaty was bound to arouse in certain quarters; but among these there is none quite so absurd as that which makes the Japanese government, in the person of its representative here, and ex-Queen Liliuokalani partners in a scheme to defeat the ratification of the treaty in the senate and to place the Hawaiian Islands under a Japanese protectorate. The story of course, is denied in toto by the Japanese Legation, whose counselor, Durham W. Stevens, declares that he has not seen the ex-queen since her arrival at Washington, and has had no communication with her, directly or indirectly, for years, and who asserts, furthermore, that it is doubtful whether the minister or any member of his staff is known to the ex-queen by sight even, much less in person or in that degree of intimacy which would warrant any one to suspect the existence of a conspiracy.

DROWNED IN THE CANAL.

Three Persons Fall from a Towpath and Perish.

Rome, N. Y., June 20.—Philip Orth, residing near Rome Swamp, five miles west of this city, his wife and his sister, Libbie, were drowned in the Erie canal tonight. They were driving along the tow path, the horse and carriage and its occupants went into the canal and all three were drowned.

How the accident occurred no one can tell as there were no witnesses. Mr. Orth was a farmer aged about 48. His wife was a few years younger and his sister about 40. The bodies were recovered.

MEXICO IS WATCHING HER.

The Girl Prophet Will Not Be Permitted to Join the Yaquis.

Hermosillo, Mex., June 20.—Santa Teresa Urrea, the so-called inspired Mexican girl prophet, has been found. She is near San Bernardino, this state, near the Arizona border.

She has already collected several hundred devoted followers around her, and is believed to be arranging to go into the Yaqui Indian country. She is being closely watched, and will not be allowed to join the Yaquis.

New Orleans, June 20.—At 2 o'clock this morning the Pickwick Hotel cafe and annex, and the building adjoining, occupied by W. H. Moore, fishing tackle, guns, etc., were gutted by fire, as were also the two upper stories of the Pickwick hotel.

There were but few guests in the hotel and all escaped without injury. Total loss estimated at $160,000. Fully insured.

DAY OF EXCITEMENT DOWN IN PITTSBURGH.

Shooting, Stabbing, Robbery and Something for the Gossips.

BULLET WOUND MAY CAUSE DEATH.

Thomas Donahoe Shoots His Neighbor in a South Main Street Saloon. Mysteriously Cutting Affray Near Mill Street--Dr. Truxell Receives Anonymous Letters and Bother Ensues.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Pittsburg, June 20.—This city has had excitement enough crowded into the last twenty-four hours to satisfy it for some time to come. A shooting affray will probably end in a murder, a mysterious stabbing affray, a bold daylight robbery, and a juicy morsel from the West Side for the gossip-mongers, constitute the satiating events.

Friday night, Patrick Mullen and Thomas Donahoe, young men of Sebastopol, who were brought up together and lived in neighboring houses became mixed up in a free fight in a down town saloon. Donahoe was hit on the head with a stone and severely injured. He accused Mullen of having thrown the stone and Saturday evening went out looking for him.

The men met about 7 o'clock in Anthony Coggins' saloon on South Main street. Donahoe laid his hands on Mullen's shoulders and accused him of throwing the stone. Mullen broke away and started to run towards the door. Donahoe whipped out a revolver and fired at him twice. The first ball struck the floor. The second entered Mullen's abdomen on the left side, causing what is thought to be a mortal wound.

Donahoe escaped and was at large for nearly an hour. He was located by Officer Kelly, crouching beneath the counter of E. R. Shepherd's bicycle store which is about one hundred yards from the scene of the shooting. How he had been hiding there or how he got in without being seen, Mr. Shepherd could not tell. Mullen was alive at 11 o'clock to-night, but in a critical condition. Both men are miners. Mullen is twenty-two years of age and married. Donahoe is twenty-four, and single.

JAPAN'S POSITION STATED.

Demands That Her Treaty Rights in Hawaii Be Respected.

Washington, June 20.—The Japanese minister has filed with the secretary of state a formal statement of the position of his government with respect to the proposed annexation of the Hawaiian Islands by the United States. Although it is officially denied that Japan has protested against the annexation treaty, it is admitted that that government has represented in the strongest terms its expectation that its treaty rights in Hawaii shall be fully respected in case of annexation. The letter of the Japanese minister on this subject will be forwarded to the senate for its information in the consideration of the treaty.

An interesting scene was enacted in the diplomatic room of the state department to-day when all the parties to the signing of the annexation treaty were photographed. There were present as principals Secretary Sherman, who signed the treaty on behalf of the United States, and P. M. Hatch, Lorrin A. Thurston and W. A. Kinney, who signed on behalf of the Hawaiian Republic. These present as witnesses to the agreement were Assistant Secretaries Day, Adee and Cridler.

LET THE TRAIN PASS OVER HER.

Woman's Coolness Saves Her Own Life and That of Her Child.

Peoria, Ill., June 20.—A train of cars was pushed into a large crowd of people who were standing on the tracks of the Peoria Terminal railroad watching the men drag the river for the body of Willie Mittendorf, six years old, who was drowned last evening. Nancy Berry, seventeen years old, was run over and horribly mutilated. She will die.

Mrs. Lizzie Kurtz, wife of a carpenter, and her infant were among those pushed down by the cars. With great presence of mind she lay face downward, and another lady her babe between the ties which the train had passed over her. She was rescued from her perilous position in safety just in time, for she was about to drop her babe to the water below.

Both hands of the explorer were frostbitten in the Arctic regions, and the amputation was made worse by the handshaking he has been compelled to endure in every place he visited. A disease of the bones resulted, necessitating today's operation.

TARIFF TALK NEARLY OVER

Republican Senators Feel That the End Is in Sight.

THE PRESENT PERPLEXITIES

Open Opposition to the Bill in the Senate.

It Has Been Found Almost Impossible to Harmonize the Contending Forces Among Republicans on the Tobacco and Wool Schedules. House Provision in Regard to Hawaiian Sugar Will Be Continued Pending Disposition of Annexation.

Washington, June 20.—The Republican senators in charge of the tariff bill begin to feel that the end is almost in sight. They do not hope to conclude the consideration of the bill by the close of the present week, but they expect by that time to be able to say when they can complete the work.

As a matter of fact the difficulty of adjusting differences in their own party in causing the managers some perplexity at present than the open opposition to the bill in the senate. It has been found almost impossible to harmonize the contending forces among Republicans on the tobacco and wool schedules. The differences on tobacco have been compromised, though not to the satisfaction of all concerned and if there should be another caucus before the tobacco schedule is taken up in the senate the question is liable to be re-opened there.

The wool schedule will confront the senate at the opening of the session Monday and it is Senator Allison's purpose to press the schedule forward to a close. Hence it will be possible to postpone for a very much longer time the settlement of the differences on the question. It is expected that if the committee should not be able to announce a determination by some time Monday the matter will be referred to an early caucus or a caucus may be called if the committee fixes a rate that is not satisfactory to the wool men. There is little doubt that an advance will be conceded by the committee, but the question of interest is whether the increase will be all that the wool men demand.

INDUSTRIAL REVIVAL.

Edgar Thompson and Homestead Steel Works Resume Business--Other Revivals.

Pittsburg, June 20.—An industrial revival along the Monongahela valley has started and prospects are brighter than for months past.

Both the Edgar Thompson and the Homestead steel works resumed this evening, all departments running full. The Duquesne steel works, which has been manufacturing billets, commenced tonight on rails. Enough orders are on hand to keep these plants working the greater part of the year.

At Pittsburgh, the Pittsburg and the Rankin wire works are in full operation.

The Duquesne forge is on full for the first time in two years.

At McKeesport, the National Tube works put in operation additional departments today, and the Deeweos Wood company is reported as likely to start up in a few days.

ANCIENT CHINESE IN MEXICO.

The Government Will Investigate the Reports of the Old Records.

City of Mexico, June 20.—The recent discovery of a stone bearing Chinese characters inscribed between 2,000 or more years ago in the state of Sonora has created much interest in scientific and archeological circles of Mexico, and the government will make a thorough investigation of the reported discovery.

An expedition will leave here next week to visit the remarkable stone as well as the ancient monuments and tombs said to be the handiwork of early Chinese settlers in Mexico in the same part of Sonora.

DECISION WHICH THREATENS TO CRIPPLE BUILDING AND LOAN ASSOCIATIONS.

Louisville, Ky., June 20.—By a decision of the Appellate court given at Franklin yesterday, all the building and loan associations in the state are now on a hair trigger. The court has ruled that the remedial law enacted by the legislature in 1893 and which authorized these associations to charge not exceeding 12 per cent. interest, including dues and the legal rate, is unconstitutional.

It holds that all the interest and even dues in excess of 6 per cent. are usurious and cannot be charged. It is also held that even the dues are "interest," and that the borrowers who have been paying from 12 to 15 per cent. in dues and interest are entitled to recover or be credited with all in excess of 6 per cent. interest paid. The decision will work a great hardship on thousands of people who have their all invested in building and loan associations.
