HYMNS AND BIYMN WRITERS.

Interesting Discos rse of W. E. Wood-raff, of Wil kes-Barre. A large audience heard W. E. Woodruff, city editor of the Wilkes-Barre Leader, last evenling in the Simpson Methodist Episcopal church speak about "Hymns and Hymn Writers." Mr. Woodruff was very interesting throughout in his manner of treating his subject and its mode of presenting it to the audience.

Special reference was made to the lives of Henry Prancis Lyte, Charles Wesley and William Cowper, three of the great hymn writers, and circumstances under which they wrote some of the most majestic hymns of the church were narra led. A brief sketch was given of the origin of church music and the hymns of the early Christian era; the reformation; etc., were brieftouched upon. The speaker closed with a bit of word painting as to the wonderful power of the hymns of the church, and the universal vehicle of praise, which they afford,

A MINE PARTY.

A number of the West Side society people enjoyed a delightful and interesting trip through the Bellevue mines Friday evening. The affair was arranged by Mr. and Mrs. George Benore, of South Main avenue, in honor of their guest, Miss Morris, of Brooklyn, N. Y. The party was met at the shaft by Bort Green, mine foreman and Electrician Culbertson and were then carried into the depths. They inspected the haulage system, rode on electric motor, got mixed up in the mysteries of cross-cuts, etc., saw the mules in their queer, underground stable and obtained a good general idea of the manner in which the dusky diamonds are mined. After being taken to the surface the party proceeded to the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Benore, where the remainder of the evening was pleasantly spent with unusic, speeches and an impromptu vaudeville performance. At a seasonable hour light refreshments were served. Those who composed the party were: Mr. and Mrs. George Benore, Attorney and Mrs. G. L. Peck, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Walker, the Misnes Margaret Eldwards Florence and Margaret Gibbs, Edith Richards, Elia Williams, Belle Vipond, Miss Morris, New York, and Attorney John R. Edwards, Gordon Noakes and Mr. Hills, of New York city; Edward Thayer, Curt Andrews, Frank Mansfield and Harry Decker.

THEY HAD A DISPUTE.

"Get off the tracks," said Motorman Edward Quinnan, of a city bound car to Teamster William H. Harris, whose wagon stood across the tracks at the intersection of Jackson street and Main avenue on Saturday afternoon, "I don't think," answered Teamster Harris, and in a few minutes thereafter Patrolman Matthews escorted both belligerents to the station house. They were given a hearing before Alderman Owen D. Johns on the charge of "fighting," and were fined $2 each for the fun they had had. They paid.

Father McNally preached the funeral sermon in the presence of a large number of the friends of the deceased, Interment was made at the Hyde Park Catholic cemetery. The following acted as pall-bearers: Michael Hannihan, Nicholas Hellring, David Curry, Michael Finn, James McHale and John McHale.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JOHNSON. The funeral of the late Mrs. George Johnson, of 2006 Washburn street, occurred yesterday afternoon. The services were held at the residence and Rev. M. H. Mills, pastor of the St. David's Episcopal church, of which the deceased was a member, preached the funeral sermon. There were only immediate friends and relatives, and the floral tributes were very beautiful. Following were the pall-bearers: Daniel Beynon, Henry Seymour, John Thomas, Harry Davies, James Williams, John Marchant, Edward O'Boyle, Gus Mc-Dee, John Coyne, Jacob Henry, John Paff and Philip Rupp.

UNMUZZLED DOG SHOT. Unmuzzled and savage, a dog wandered along Hampton street on Satur-day afternoon. MINOR NEWS NOTES. An attempt at burglary was made at the Hyde Park mine late Friday evening. Between 10 and 10,30 o'clock, while Night Watchman William Lewis was going his rounds, some person or persons broke into the weigh-house and left the interior in a disorderly state. The presumption is that the mauraders expected to find money in the place taken in from daily coal There was none and they departed without otherwise molesting

Mr. Lally gave his word of honor to the salesman that he would pay for the new trousers if they would but trust him for a few hours, and he was given permission to leave. He went, and the first place he found himself was in Alderman Millar's office, where he swore out a warrant for the arrest of David Williams, of Hampton street.

NOT ENOUGH OF JOHNSON.

If He Could Divide Himself He Would Not Be in Trouble.

Mary Johnson was in the warrant making business Saturday. She is colored woman and her crusade against divers people was actuated by revenge for her own arrest Friday on a warrant sworn out by a Mrs. Parfrey, who charged Mrs. Johnson with malaciously breaking in the door of her residence on the fourth floor of No. 16. Lackawanna avenue.

The hearing was given Mrs. Johnson Saturday and she was discharged. Mrs. Johnson immediately issued war-rants for the arrest of Minor Johnson charging him with improper relations with Mrs. Parfrey. He was held in $500 ball. Another warrant issued right afterward charged Mr. Johnson with desertion and non support. He again entered bail, this time for $300.

Mrs. Johnson then caused the arrest of Mrs. Parfrey charging her with complicity in the already mentioned alleged crimes. Mrs. Parfrey entered bail for $500 to appear at court.

ALLEN-GARDNER BOUT TONIGHT.

The Two Bantams to Box Ten Rounds for a Decision.

Joe Allen and Toby Gardner, the two representative bantam weight boxers of this section of the state will meet in a ten-round bout at Music Hall tonight. The contest will probably decide the long disputed superpremature blast while at work Sat- lerity between the two. They met in a four-round go six weeks ago and Gardner got the decision, but Allen's friends claimed he was the better of the two and could prove it in a longer fight. The present match is the result.

There will be three good preliminarles, among which will be a four-round meeting between "Jack" Tighe, who is a protege of James Judge, and John Malloy. The latter is probably the stronger but Tighe is believed to be the more scientific. If they desire a decision the bout should be a good one,
