FOOTING ELECTION CONTEST BILLS

State Will Pay for the Shiffer-Leh Entertainment.

SPIKE IN THE LOAN BUSINESS

Provision Inserted in Senate Bill That Said Loans Shall Be Borrowed at a Rate of Interest Not to Exceed Six Per Centum Per Annum.

Harrisburg, June 21.—The order of business in the house the next two days was reported from the rules committee tonight and adopted. Revenue bills on second and third readings and senate bills on third reading and final passage is the programme for Tuesday morning and afternoon. Tuesday evening the order is bills on first reading and senate bills on second and third reading.

The programme for the morning and afternoon sessions of Wednesday is revenue bills on second and third reading, house bills on third reading and final passage, senate bills on second and third reading. At the evening session the order will be appropriation bills on second reading and senate bills on second and third reading. The appropriation bills will be reported out tomorrow afternoon and read the first time at the evening session.

On motion of Mr. Muehlbronner, of Allegheny, the Rodgers charter bill making Pittsburg a city of the first class was recommitted to the municipal corporations committee. The vote by which the Adams bill prohibiting the drinking of liquor on the public highways was defeated on final passage was reconsidered.

On motion of Mr. Creasy, of Columbia, the vote by which the bill taxing bicycles, tricycles and pleasure carriages was defeated was reconsidered. The vote stood 77 to 66. Mr. Creasy moved to postpone further consideration of the bill and won by a vote of 85 to 47.

Bills to provide for the relocation of boundary lines between wards in cities and authorizing quarter sessions courts to decrease the number of councilmen and school directors in wards or boroughs passed finally. The calendar was cleared of senate bills on second reading, after which senate bills on final passage were considered. There was a large attendance in anticipation of a vote on the Becker three-fifths confirmation bill, which is on the calendar for third reading and final passage, but will hardly be reached tonight.

STATE PAYS THE FIDDLER.

Chairman French, of the elections committee, presented a bill appropriating $1,600 to pay the fees and expenses of counsel and the personal expenses of the contestants in the Shiffer-Leh contest from Northampton county. He also presented a bill for $1,830 to pay the expenses of members of the committee, hotel bill, stenographer, printing and filing petition in this contest. Committee's hotel bill foots up $230.40. Sixty-five dollars are asked for the stenographer, $55 by the typewriter and $25 for printing and filing petition. The balance is to be distributed among the members for extra car fare, carriage hire and telegrams. Mr. Bobb, of Allegheny, introduced a bill licensing the sale of oleomargarine.

Senate bills empowering water companies to acquire lands and waters to preserve their water supply from pollution or contamination and allowing water companies to use other power to develop current in case of the temporary failure of the water supply were defeated. Senate bill allowing building and loan association to borrow 25 per cent. of their withdrawing value was amended by Mr. Clarency, of Philadelphia, by inserting a provision "that said loans shall be borrowed at a rate of interest not to exceed six per centum per annum." The bill passed second reading. The house adjourned at 10:15 until 10 tomorrow morning.

SENATE PROCEEDINGS.

The senate this evening upon resolution of Mr. Andrews, decided to meet daily, Sunday excepted, until final adjournment. Mr. Gray introduced a resolution which was agree to, to recommit the two Bliss beer bills to the finance committee, with instructions, that the committee report on them tomorrow.

These bills were introduced by Mr. McCarrell: An act authorizing cashiers of banks to an act as trustee, agent, director or officer of any other corporation and repealing existing laws prohibiting his so acting; an act to exempt churches and places of religious worship from taxation and assessment for street paving and other municipal improvements.

Some of the bills that passed second reading were these:

An act giving to the state preference in the trial and hearing of causes involving by collections of revenues claimed by the state.

An act to authorize the board of health in cities of the first class to declare the collection of kitchen garbage and offal by unauthorized persons a nuisance.

An act making the obligations of private corporations a separate class for purposes of taxation.

The senate then adjourned until tomorrow morning.

STATE DRUGGISTS TO MEET.

Twentieth Annual Convention to Be Held at Water Gap.

Stroudsburg, June 21.—The twentieth annual meeting of the Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical association will meet at the Delaware Water Gap this week. The arrangements have been under the direction of D. J. Thomas, of Scranton. The meeting will be opened by the president of the association, Professor Joseph P. Remington, of Philadelphia College of Pharmacy.

Many interesting subjects are likely to be discussed at the meeting of the association. New methods of pharmaceutical manipulations will occupy the attention of the association, and the abuses of and the matters that are a menace of the association will be discussed at length. The evenings are given up to entertainment, and they are expected to be very enjoyable affairs. The Pennsylvania Pharmaceutical association was organized in 1878. The aims and objects of the association is to unite the educated and reputable pharmacists of the state; to improve the science of pharmacy, and so restrict the disbursing and sale of medicines to regularly educated druggists and apothecaries. It has done much in elevating pharmacy to its present high standard of excellence in Pennsylvania by shaping legislation and promoting higher education, and lifting the profession to a higher plane. By and through the efforts of its members the State Pharmaceutical examining board became a possibility through the passage in 1887 of the pharmacy law, which requires the registration of those engaging in the practice of pharmacy.

The association now numbers over 400. The present officers are as follows: President, Professor Joseph P. Remington, of Philadelphia; first vice president, Albert R. Durham, of Reading; second vice president, Charles D. Keefer, of Chambersburg; treasurer, Joseph L. Lemberger, of Lebanon; secretary, Jacob A. Miller, of Harrisburg. Executive committee—Jacob H. Knouse, of Harrisburg, chairman; George W. Roland, of South Bethlehem; Charles L. Hay, of Dubois. Since the organization of the association the following presidents have come from Philadelphia: Alonzo Robbins, William L. Turner, William McIntyre and Joseph P. Remington, the present presiding officer. Others who have filled the office are Charles A. Heinitsh and George W. Kennedy, of Pottsville; George A. Kelley, of Pittsburg; Jesse B. Duble, of Williamsport; Charles H. Cressler, of Chambersburg; Charles T. George, of Harrisburg; James A. Meyers, of Columbia; William Harris, of Hamburg; John W. Miller, of Allegheny; Jacob H. Stein, of Reading; John F. Patton, of York; William H. McGarrah, of Scranton; Willoughby H. Reed, of Norristown, and Hugh N. Coxe, of Schuylkill Haven.

BUCKNELL GRADUATES.

Successful Pupils in the School of Music—Prizes Awarded.

Lewisburg, June 21.—The following graduated from the Bucknell School of Music yesterday:

Elbina Lavinia Bender, Lewisburg, pipe organ; Fannie Bloom, Sunbury, harmony and piano; Lena Burke, Northumberland, harmony, piano and pipe organ; Caroline Elizabeth Kelly, Lewisburg, harmony, piano and pipe organ; Sarah Merriman, Lewisburg, harmony, and pipe organ; Ada Electa Pennypacker, Norristown, harmony piano and pipe organ; Eleanor Potter, Lewisburg, harmony, vocal; Anna Mary Rogers, Allentown, harmony, piano; Berdie Leona Taggart, Empohium, harmony, piano; Jessie Theckla Steiner, Lewisburg, harmony, piano; James Brown Martin, Lewisburg, violin, violoncello, mandolin, all string instruments and harmony; Mary Thornton, Lewisburg, pipe organ.

The following prizes were awarded in the school of music:

Excellence in music, Eleanor Potter, Lewisburg; musical composition, James Brown Martin, Lewisburg.

In the evening President B. L. Whitmore, of Columbia University, addressed the college literary society.

SLIGHT CAVE IN THE RAVINE.

No One Injured and Work Resumed Yesterday Morning.

Pittston, June 21.—At 11 o'clock last night operations in the Ravine shaft of the Newton Coal company were brought to a standstill for a while by the falling in of about thirty feet of the roof. A few minutes before that hour a trip of cars were started down the run from the Marcy vein to the foot of the slope. They jumped the track and tore out a row of props and the roof being without support came down.

No one was injured and the work of clearing up the debris was begun at once. The mine worked today the same as usual.

FRACTURED HIS SKULL.

Peter Selinsky Fatally Wounded John Riddall with a Cane.

Wilkes-Barre, June 21.—John Riddall was fatally hurt in a fight with Peter Selinsky at Luzerne borough, near here, last evening. The men were quarreling when Selinsky struck Riddall three times on the head with a heavy cane, fracturing his skull in two places.

Selinsky was arrested and jailed. Riddall is in a precarious condition and may die.

Pittsburg Will Entertain.

Pittsburg, June 21.—Arrangements for entertaining the delegates to the International Commercial museum by the Pittsburg chamber of commerce here on Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of this week, are now completed, and the indications are that the entertainment will be on a scale of elegance and elaborateness never before equalled in the reception of any party of guests that have ever visited this city.

NO TAX PLACED ON MALT LIQUOR

The Plans for Raising More Revenue Are Agreed Upon.

RESULT OF SENATOR QUAY'S VISIT

The Leaders Have Agreed to Reduce the School Appropriation $500,000 a Year—Liquor License in Small Towns Will Be Doubled.

Harrisburg, June 21.—Senator Quay spent several hours today in conference with Governor Hastings and leaders of the senate and house on the revenue question. As a result of the senator's visit the leaders have agreed to reduce the school appropriation $500,000 a year, and drop the amended inheritance tax bill and trust to the supreme court to declare the original law constitutional.

It has also been decided to plase no tax on malt liquors, but in its stead double the liquor licenses in boroughs, townships and cities other than those of the first and second classes and cut quasi state charities 20 per cent. A state tax is to be put on brewers and distillers according to their output. It is claimed that if this plan goes through it will raise sufficient revenue to cover the deficit of $3,500,000 and meet the expenses of the state government. Senator Quay went to Washington this afternoon.

BATTERED DOWN A BASTILE.

Novel Method Adopted by Four Young Men to Secure Their Liberty.

Wilkes-Barre, June 21.—Says the Times: The quiet little town of Dorranceton was thoroughly aroused this afternoon about 2 o'clock and the citizens, both old and young, turned out and united in defense of the borough's rights.

The trouble was all caused by a detachment of four from the Broderick's zouaves. Shortly before 2 o'clock four young men in a high state of hilarity made their appearance in the quiet precincts of the borough. A farmer from over the mountain was driving up Wyoming avenue. The gang espied the unsuspecting granger and forthwith took possession of his gig. The farmer was in great consternation and obeyed the gang with the regularity and precision of a soldier in the army. They ordered him right and left, steering into wagons, pedestrians or whatever came in their way. They drove up and down the avenue shouting and spreading consternation among the drivers of light turnouts.

Finally Chief of Police Davis made his appearance and held up the invaders. A break for liberty followed, in which the chief was getting the bad end of a bargain when the citizens began to gather from the sidestreets and alleys, and a small battle of Lexington ensued. Councilman Joseph Welter was injured quite badly during the scrimmage, but finally the citizens triumphed, and the four gay young men were led to the lockup. They did not tarry long under the sheltering roof of the law in peace, but used the stove as a battering ram and began an assault on the bastile. The lockup was so badly wrecked that the borough will be compelled to erect a new one, but the prisoners did not escape.

Justice Evans gave the men who gave their names as John P. Fritz, Joseph Palmer, Thomas Maren and Joseph Quigley, of Brodericks, a hearing and committed them to jail in default of $200 bail.

MOTHER OF FOUR PAIRS OF TWINS.

Remarkable Record of a Woman Now 105 Years Old.

Bellefonte, June 21.—One of the most remarkable old women of Pennsylvania is Mrs. Mary Ann Cassidy, of Coalport, Clearfield county, who is now 105 years of age. She was the mother of thirteen boys and five girls; nine are living and nine dead. She gave birth to four pairs of twins.

Mrs. Cassidy was born in County Famar, Ireland, in 1792, emigrating with her husband and family to this country in 1845. Her husband was killed at Broad Top a few years after coming to America by being caught in a coal shaft.

Mrs. Cassidy was never known to be sick, and never had a physician as mother of her eighteen children. She never went to a dance in her life.

For the past twenty-one years she has had her "second sight," and now does not need to wear glasses. Though she is toothless as the day she was born, she can eat heartily of the common fare. She weighed 220 pounds in coming to this country, but during the past fifteen years she droped to about 200. About a year ago she kissed one of her twin boys as he lay in his coffin, having died at the age of 65 years.

REV. PRICE'S TALE OF WOE.

Legislative Committee Will Listen to It Tomorrow.

Harrisburg, June 21.—A special session of the committee will be held on Tuesday to consider the case of Rev. Jonas H. Price, of Quakertown, who was kidnapped last January in Philadelphia and forced to work as a convict in a mine in Virginia for nearly three months.

Senator Moyer and Representative Funk, of Bucks county, have interested themselves in Price's case and will urge a legislative investigation. Price is a Dunkard preacher, and the members of this sect in the eastern end of the state are anxious that the matter shall be sifted to the bottom.

Banking Commissioner Gilkeson knows the preacher and believes his story.

COMPANY E ELECTION.

It Amounted Virtually to Promotions According to Seniority.

Special to the Scranton Tribune.

Honesdale, June 21.—First Lieutenant George A. Smith was to-night elected captain of Company E, to succeed Walter A Wood, resigned. Second Lieutenant John Kuhlbah was elected first lieutenant and First Sergeant W. L. Dodge, second lieutenant.

All three elections were by acclamation. They were conducted by Major George H. Whitney, of the Second Battalion.

Verdict of Murder in Second Degree.

Easton, Pa., June 21.—The jury in the Fausto Depaola murder trial returned a verdict of murder in the second degree. The jury went out at 3.50 this afternoon and returned at 7.50 o'clock tonight. The prisoner will be sentenced Monday. He stabbed Nicolas Ruggerio at a dance at the latter's home near Bangor last March.

THOMPSON.

Our town was greatly shocked at the news of the death of Mrs. A. D. David, wife of the pastor of the M. E. church last Wednesday morning. They had been her but seven weeks, and she was in feeble health, yet she had moved among the people, and had received them so gracefully at the parsonage that many had come to be interested in her to an unusual degree. The evening before her death several called at the parsonage and she was joyous and hopeful. She retired early, at 11.30 she told her husband how sweetly she had been sleeping and how much she was refreshed. At 12.30 she became worse and all in the house, friends and neighbors, were at her bedside, and the physician came at once. But all effort to restore to consciousness was unavailing and at 6.30 she was not, for God took her. The funeral was held here at the M. E. church Friday afternoon. Rev. W. B. Westlake, of Dallas, who married them four years ago, conducted the services. He was assisted in the opening services by Revs. J. H. Boyce of Mt. Pleasant, N. J. Vaughn of Henicklenton, A. C. Ober of Nineveh, N. Y., and L. Cole of Thompson. Rev. T. R. Tower who lives just across the street from the parsonage spoke of her seven week's sojourn in Thompson as a beautiful star appearing in the horizon whose bright and mellowed light attracted the attention of many and while they gazed in admiration it went down, leaving a halo of light for those to walk in. Relations from Springville, Scranton, Olyphant, and Owego, N. Y., came to her funeral, and friends from both of Mr. David's former appointments mingled their tears with the many sorrowing ones on this charge. The burial was at Feckville, where Revs. W. S. Thorpe and S. C. Simpkins officiated, and members of the Epworth League there of which Mrs. David was the efficient secretary in its early history, participated in the last sad rites.

The funeral of the wife of John Merk of Carbondale, who died at her sister's here, was held in the M. E. church here Saturday afternoon, and attended by many relatives from out of town. Rev. P. R. Tower officiated.

HONESDALE.

The band boys have let the contract for new uniforms.

William Wallace Ham, of the Herald office, contemplates starting a daily newspaper in Honesdale. May success crown his efforts.

Hon. E. B. Hardenburg spent Sunday at his home here.

The membership of Company E, including officers is sixty, the largest ever in their drill.

All who go on the excursion to Harvey's Lake next Wednesday may return on Thursday, as the tickets will be good for that day also.

A party of wheelmen, of Honesdale, visited Laurel Lake on Sunday, a fifteen-mile ride.

Friday evening, June 25, John and Mary McCoy, a blind brother and sister, will give an entertainment in the Opera house, consisting of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, etc. Mr. McCoy possesses a powerful baritone voice and comic dialect. Miss McCoy has a strong soprano voice. They give a very pleasing entertainment.

Miss Edith Swift is home to spend the school vacation.

Bill Against Jack Ignored.
