SOUTH STEEL MILL HAS SHUT DOWN

Twelve Hundred Workmen Are Thrown Out of Employment.

NUMBER OF THE MEN OUIT WORK

Officials of the Lackawanna, Iron and Not Advisable to Continue Opera-Who Quit and Ordered the Entire Mr. Wehrum Says.

A four o'clock yesterday afternoon the South mill of the Lackawanna of employment.

bune there was great dissatisfaction among some of the workmen when they received their pay Saturday and learned the extent to which the cut in their wages affected them. Those who quit Saturday and refused to return to work were augmented vesterday morning by the "chippers" who worked nights last week, consequently were scheduled to go on duty at six o'clock yesterday morning. They did ot report for duty and carpenters, machinists and other workmen about the plant were substituted for them. The esults were not very satisfactory, lowever.

Early in the morning the "chargers" and "dolly" men employed in the neating department of the rail mill waited upon Superintendent John O. Stanton and told him that there would have to be a readjustment of the scale of wages or they would refuse to continue to work. They requested an answer not later than II a. m. Mr. Stanton advised General Manager Wehrum of the action taken by the men and reported back to them that the company could not increase the scale of wages.

MEN QUIT WORK. When this information was conveyed to the "chargers" and "dolly" men they quit. The heaters objected to having inexperienced men take the places of those who quit and intimated that they too would leave if green hands were put to work with them. They agreed to do their own charging for the remainder of the day and did so until the mill shut down at four o'clock

With the "chippers," "chargers" and 'dolly" men out the officials of the company decided that it would be somewhat difficult to keep the mill in operation and orders were given to suspend operations. The men who quit did not make a hostile demonstration of any kind, but as a matter of precaution the force of watchmen at the mill last night was doubled. There is a feeling among many of the men that the mill will not be shut down for long. They argue that the company will in all probability make some concessions to the men who quit work and that within a week all view of the situation was not shared gressman William Connell. by all the workmen last night. They feared that they were doomed to aneral Manager Wehrum, would discuss the situation further than to say that in their opinion the men were making a mistake in stopping work, for the company could better afford to have the mill idle than to run it with the rail market in the condition it is at present.

WILL REMAIN IDLE.

General Manager Wehrum, when spoken to by a Tribune reporter, confirmed the news with reference to the mill shutting down, and said that it would have to remain idle until such time as the men who quit work return or other experienced men take their places.

He said the company was anxious to give its men employment and for that reason and not because any money could be made had started the mill a month ago at the reduced scale. He intimated that the company was not particularly anxious to have the mill resume while the rail trade is in its present condition

Foreman Cifford, who was in charge of the rail shed, where most of the disaffected workmen were employed, has been suspended. He was very unwith the workmen under his

The Christian Endeavor general executive committee met last evening in the parlors of the Young Men's Christion association hall and took action on Sunday ball playing. The following resolution, passed at the meeting, will be forwarded to Mayor Bailey by Rev. E. Guild, president of the City Union. The resolution is as follows:

widespread and constant playing of base effect on the communities and city, and believe, further, that his honor, Mayor Bailey, has both the authority and the power to effectually stop the said Sunpower to effectually stop the said Sun-day base ball games. ## DOWN GOES THE WYOMING.

Well-Known Hotel Building Making Room for Handsome Successor. The old Wyoming house will soon be memory. Work at tearing it down to make room for the new department store was begun yesterday as the clock struck seven. In its day, like the viilage chestnut tree, it has sheltered people of renown. But it had to go before the wave of modern enterprise.

Hundreds of men yesterday applied to Contractor Schroeder for employment at the work. Only a small portion could be accommodated. Yesterday the familiar front porch and steps were re-moved and the tower at the corner of Lackawanna and Wyoming avenues was attacked.

LABOR MUST PAY TAX.

But State Senate Goes Slow on Taxing Beer and Some Other Things. Beginning July 1 next any man who employs a foreigner to work for him must deduct from that foreigner's wages three cents per day and pay it over to the county treasurer. Postmaster Vandling's term does no expire until the fall, but as he is desirous of making a European trip this ummer he requested the department to relieve him at this time. His resignation will take effect July 1, if his successor qualifies before that time.

THE NEXT POSTMASTER.

Few, indeed, if any Scrantonians en joy greater popularity that Scranton's next postmaster, and it will doubtless be conceded that he is in every way that is a problem that is not yet worked fitted to give a most satisfactory administration of this important office. Col. Ripple was born in Mauch Chunk, Pa., February 14, 1842. At the age of fifteen his parents moved to this city locating on the West Side, then the borough of Hyde Park. He attended the public schools and after wards graduated from Wyoming sem> inary and Eashman's commercial colege, Poughkeepsie, N. Y. In 1862 and again in 1863 he went out at the call for "emergency men" to re-pel the invasion of the state and in March 1864 he enlisted in the Fifty-second Regiment, Pennsylvania Volun-teers. July 3, of that year he was captured by the rebels at Charleston, S. C. and for three months at Andersonville nd five at Florence, he suffered all the horrors of the Southern prison pens. Once he escaped but was tracked by bloodhounds and although he ought hard for his liberty was recaptured and from that time until the close of the war he underwent ever worse tortures than he was subjected to before.

> POSITIONS HE HAS FILLED. Among the positions of prominence that he has filled or is filling might be mentioned colonel of the Thirteenth regiment, common councilman, treasurer of Lackawanna county, mayor nember of the board of control, presilent of the board of charities, membe of the park commission and member of the state commission on soldiers' orphans schools and commissary general of the state. He is a foremost member of the Grand Army of the Republic, prominent in Masonic circles and a trustee of Grace Reformed Episcopal church. He is a member of the firm of William Connell & Co. Coal operators and largely interested in many of Scranton's leading industries.

DO NOT WANT A BOROUGH.

Various Interests Except to Moosic Becoming Such.

Exceptions to the incorporation of Moosic as a borough were yesterday filed by Atorneys M. J. Donahoe and C. lomegys, representing P. J. Quinn and Frank Toole, supervisors of Lackawanna township; W. A. Lathrop, general superintendent of the Lehigh Valley Coal company; W. J. Lewis, trustee for the bondholders of the Lackawanna and Luzerne Coal and Iron company, and a number of citizens of the proposed borough.

The exceptants allege that the petition for incorporation is defective, as it is vague in its description of boundaries, and erroneously states that all the petitioners are freeholders; that the advertisement is faulty in that it mentions a "village of Green" as being one of the compotent parts of the proposed borough, when there is no such village in Lackawanna county, and besides it gives no notice to the residents of Greenwood, Oak Hill, Starks and No. 4 that their settlements are included in the boundary; that the five setlements out of which it is proposed to incorporate the new borough are widely scattered, sparsely settled, unconected by common streets or lanes and in no wise fitted to become a borough.

It is also alleged that a large portion of the acres included within the limits of the proposed borough is uninhabited land brought in solely for the purposes of taxation.

COLLEGE MEN BANQUETTED.

They Comprise the Base Bail Team of St. Thomas College.

The faculty of St. Thomas' college last night at the Lackawanna Valley house tendered a banquet to the members of the base ball team, which has played such fine ball this season. An excellent menu was provided by Proprietor Flynn and after it had been discussed to the satisfaction of all present there was a short season of speechmaking.

Those called upon were Rev. D. J. MacGoldrick, president of the college; Brother Angelus, director of studies; Hugh J. Ruddy, manager of the base ball team; T. H. McLaughlin, the captain and Thomas Cummings. Present at the banquet were Father MacColdrick, Brother Angelus, Hugh Making Up the Teaching Staff and Fixing Salaries. Last night the teachers committee of the board of control began its annual task of making up the list of teachers for the succeeding year. The meeting was private. President Jennings, to a Tribune reporter, stated that there will be few changes, and those few will be made only as a matter of convenien the teachers. The vacancies that ex-ist will, he said, be filled in most cases by making permanent the position of the substitute at present filling the place. Raising salaries, he says, is out of the question, owing to the board's depressed finances. It might be, however, that the grammar grade principals will receive moderate additions to their saiaries, a small appropriation having been made for this purpose.
