NEW HOSPITAL FOR THIS CITY

Preliminary Organization Perfect and the Movement Started.

TO BE OF HOMEOPATHIC SCHOOL

At a Meeting in Albright Library Last Night Over $2,000 Per Year for Two Years Was Subscribed for Its Maintenance—Prominent Scranton Women Are at the Head of the Project—Woman's Meeting Tomorrow.

A movement preliminary to the establishment of a homeopathic hospital in Scranton was inaugurated at a meeting of well-known and influential men and women at the Albright library last night. Over $2,000, or about half the cost of maintaining a fifteen-bed hospital for one year was subscribed at the meeting.

The hospital movement was inaugurated last Friday at a meeting of women at the home of Mrs. A. M. Decker. At that time a preliminary organization was perfected and Mrs. H. M. Boies elected president.

Col. H. M. Boies, Col. George Sanderson, Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Watkins, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell, Jr., and Mrs. A. H. Storrs, Mr. and Mrs. J. Ben Dimmick, Mrs. F. H. Jernyn, Mrs. F. M. Vandling, Mrs. E. L. Fuller, Mrs. A. M. Decker, Dr. J. W. Coolidge, Miss Susan E. Dickinson, Dr. and Mrs. F. D. Brewster, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Holgate, Miss Emeline Richmond, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Stevens, Mrs. C. D. Simpson, Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. P. Christian, Mr. and Mrs. F. W. O'Leary, Dr. G. J. Berlinghoff, Dr. H. B. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Scranton, Dr. and Mrs. G. J. Berlinghoff, George DeWitt, Dr. A. A. Linderbury, L. M. Dunning.

COL BOIES PRESIDENT. Colonel Boies was chosen to preside and in response to a request he outlined the hospital project. It was stated, he said, not in opposition to the allopathic school of medicine, but according to the wishes and needs of rich and poor who believed in the homeopathic school, but who, if they entered any of the present hospitals in this part of the state, they would be obliged to receive allopathic treatment. It was also to be homeopathic physicians, Colonel Boies explained, that they should not be barred from the benefits and facilities of hospital practice.

According to the present rules of the Lackawanna and other hospitals in the city and vicinity, the new school of physicians or homeopaths are not permitted to practice therein. The promoters of the homeopathic hospital were not to be understood as criticising the rules of the allopathic associations, but it seemed nothing more than just that their new school brethren should have the same opportunities for advantageous practice and learning.

The executives of the Blair estate had offered the homestead property at the corner of Washington avenue and Mulberry street for hospital purposes at a rental rate of $500 per year, so Colonel Boies stated. He further remarked that the officers of the hospital movement had estimated that $4,000, divided as follows, would about maintain a 15-bed institution for a year: Rent, $500; heat and light, $200; water, $20; two nurses, $50; servants and attendants, $50; food supplies, $1; $800; telephone, $50; incidentals, $310; total, $1,490.

THOSE WHO SPOKE. In response to calls by the chairman there were remarks by Dr. J. W. Coolidge, Dr. H. B. Warren, Dr. Theodore Johnson, of West Pittston; J. Ben Dimmick, Colonel George Sanderson and Henry Bell, Jr. The two latter suggested that inasmuch as there seemed to be no question about the need of the institution, those present should begin in a practical way to create it. It could not be started without a pledge of funds and they suggested subscriptions on the spot. The suggestion was offered as a motion by Mr. Bell and was adopted.

Mrs. C. D. Simpson, the first vice-president, and Miss Emeline Richmond, the recording secretary, were appointed a temporary soliciting committee. They secured the following pledges from among those present: Marjorie Christian, $500; Colonel and Mrs. H. M. Boies, $200; Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bell, Jr., $200; Mr. and Mrs. J. Ben Dimmick, $100; Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Watkins, $200; Mr. and Mrs. F. M. Vandling, $100; N. G. Robertson, $50; Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Coolidge, $100; Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Simpson, $200; Mrs. A. H. Storrs, $25; Mrs. A. M. Decker, $25; J. W. Oakford, $50; L. M. Bunnell, $25; Mrs. H. B. Ware and son, $100; Dr. Theodore M. Johnson, $20; Dr. A. A. Lindabury, $25; Dr. G. J. Berlinghoff, $25; Mrs. E. L. Fuller, $25; George DeWitt, $25. The subscriptions were pledged annually for two years. That of Marjorie Christian was by her father, F. P. Christian.

MEETING FOR WOMEN. A meeting for women in connection with the hospital movement was announced for 10 o'clock tomorrow morning at the home of Mrs. S. M. Decker, 619 Jefferson avenue. It is not settled that the hospital will be located in the Blair homestead, nor that there are any of the arrangements definitely decided, but the hospital is assured and a permanent organization will soon be perfected. It will have to be self-supporting for two years, but after that state aid will be granted to the extent of $7 per week for each inpatient.

It was announced at last night's meeting that there are but 100 homeopathic hospitals in this country; Scranton ranking thirty-fifth in population among the cities of the United States, is without one.

EIGHT THOUSAND PEOPLE CELEBRATE

Queen's Jubilee Demonstration Was a Tremendous Success.

EXERCISES AT FARVIEW PARK

National Aids of American and Great Britain Sung and Played—Those Who Were Fortunate Enough to Secure Prizes—Mrs. David M. Davis, of Taylor, Brought the Largest Family with Her—Mrs. William Rich Had the Second Largest.

There was a magnificent celebration of the Queen's Jubilee at Farview yesterday, one of the finest in the country, perhaps, and it was under the auspices of the United British societies of Northern Pennsylvania. The weather was delightful and the demonstration attracted about 8,000 persons to the popular Moccasin mountain resort.

Two accidents occurred yesterday to passengers going to and returning from the Queen's Jubilee celebration at Farview. About 7 o'clock last night Edward Vannan, of Carbondale, a young man 26 years of age, got aboard a train of thirty-two open gravity cars at Farview to return to his home. He sat about in the middle of the train and when four miles from Farview the conductor demanded his ticket, he could not produce it and was put off.

After the train was in motion he tried to again get on and fell between two of the cars and was literally cut in two. Alongside of his dead body his ticket was found. The remains were placed on the train and taken to Carbondale and were afterwards removed to his home on Canaan street. Mr. Vannan was a painter. Coroner Longstreet will hold an inquest today.

At 10:15 a. m., while the through excursion train was going to Carbondale a coupling pin broke and the last car of the train left the track. Thomas Morgan, of Nanticoke, and Conductor David Nichol, of Green Ridge, were on the platform at the time and were thrown to the ground. Conductor Nichol struck on his shoulder and escaped without broken bones, but sustained a number of severe bruises.

Mr. Morgan struck on his head and was fatally injured. He was taken to the Lackawanna hospital in this city. It was reported there last night that Morgan is suffering from concussion of the brain, and that his chances of recovery are very slight. He is a man 60 years of age and has a wife in Wales.

WILD ANIMALS INCREASING. Or Else the Bounty Collector Is Becoming More Active. During the past twelve years this county has paid a bounty on 243 wild or noxious animals. This information was gathered by Clerk Robathan, of the commissioners' office, at the request of State Zoologist H. H. Warren, and was forwarded to his department yesterday.

Foxes numbered 83; next cats, 10; minks, 287; weasels, 122; owls, 47; wolves, 4. That all these wild and noxious animals were not killed in the earlier years is shown by the following table: 1895—Foxes, 69, 1896—Foxes, 102; minks, 63; wild cats, 24; hawks, 24; owls, 29; weasels, 40, 1897—Foxes, 100; minks, 80; wild cats, 24; hawks, 84; owls, 18; weasels, 82, 1888—Wild cats, 12, 1889—Foxes, 13; minks, 16; wild cats, 19, 1890—Foxes, 102; minks, 67; wild cats, 10, 1891—Foxes, 68; minks, 72; wild cats, 8, 1892—Foxes, 95; minks, 148; wild cats, 12, 1893—Foxes, 70; minks, 100; wild cats, 31, 1894—Foxes, 130; minks, 137; wild cats, 19, 1895—Foxes, 101; minks, 71; wild cats, 29, 1896—Foxes, 108; minks, 84; wild cats, 16; wolves, 4.

A bounty of $1 is paid on each fox; 25 cents on a mink; $2 on a wild cat; 50 cents on a hawk owl or weasel, and $10 on a wolf. These bounties all told, together with the fees for affidavits, amounted to $2,291.70. The average annual bounty for the twelve years was $186. In 1896 over $200 was paid in bounty.
